

A regular meeting of the Royal Oak Crime Prevention Council was held on January 8, 2019 in the second floor conference room of the Royal Oak Police Department at 221 East Third Street, Royal Oak, Michigan, 48067.

The meeting was called to order at 6:03 p.m.

Members present: Faye Faraci, Robin Winter, Ted Page, Lindsay Warren, Matt Wood, Tom Fuentes, Marc Comptois, City Commissioner Shar Douglas, and Lieutenant Chris Annetta

Members absent: Heather Lewis

Acceptance of previous minutes

- The November meeting minutes were reviewed with minor adjustments were made to the adjournment section, and the revised minutes were approved by all members present.

Approval of Agenda

- The agenda was unanimously approved by all members present.

Public Comment

- No public comment was provided.

Announcements/Communications

- CPC needs a replacement appointed for Vince Clauncherty – he did not renew his seat.
- Final bid documents have been issued for construction of the new police department, breaking ground is expected in March 2019.

Old Business

- Continued planning for the next Cops and Donuts event is scheduled for March 12, 2019 at 6:30 p.m. with the location will be moved to Churchill School.
 - The event will consist of a presentation by the Royal Oak Police Department's Lt. Annetta. The council is also reaching out to the 44th District Court Judges to see if Judge Derek Meinecke and/or Judge Jim Wittenberg w participate.
- Lindsay will be working to finalize a promotional flyer once the topics are confirmed.
 - Tentatively, topics will include ROPD hot topics, drug abuse and the opioid crisis, and issues related to legalization of marijuana
 - Marketing and promotion for the event will be important and not a lot of lead time to accomplish.

New business

- The council would like to create a public survey to find out if there are topics the citizens are interested in hearing about. The results of the survey should be used to supplement this meeting or for future presentations.
- The election of officers, normally held at the first meeting of the year, will be postponed until the February 12 meeting for full attendance.

Adjournment

There being no further business to attend to, the meeting was adjourned at 6:30 p.m.