A regular meeting of the Royal Oak Crime Prevention Council was held on November 14, 2023, in the Community Room at the Royal Oak Police Department located at 450 East Eleven Mile Road, Royal Oak, MI 48067.

The meeting was called to order at 6:02 p.m.

Members Present: Lindsay Warren, Ted Page, Robin Winter, Faye Faraci, Ellen Kehoe, Brigitta Burguess, Frank Quinn, Charlie Fleetum, and Commissioner Monica Hunt

Members Absent: Officer Andre Stienke

Approval of Agenda

- The presented agenda was unanimously approved.

Acceptance of Previous Minutes

- The October 10, 2023, meeting minutes were reviewed and unanimously approved.

Public Comment

- Resident Amy Hatfield presented an issue with a neighboring house that is being used as an Airbnb and allowing single night rentals and not limiting occupancy or purpose. This has become a “party house” and is a neighborhood nuisance for traffic and noise at all times of the day and night.
 - The resident was seeking guidance regarding her options with this situation.
 - The council suggested she provide some ideas on ordinance restrictions that CPC could help present to the city manager’s office for review.
 - The resident will follow-up with Lindsay.

Announcements/Communications

- No new announcements.

Old Business

- Revisions to the Royal Oak Crime Prevention Council are moving forward and including to be renamed the Royal Oak Community Engagement Board.
 - Commissioner Hunt made some suggested changes to the ordinance.

New Business

- A Royal Oak version of “Law & Order” is still being worked on but will need to be rescheduled.
 - See attached draft flyer looking for input and approval from Chief Moore and Judge Meinecke along with proposed date in January.
- Attorney General Dana Nessel has been contacted for a possible speaking event on March 12, 2024, and a follow-up discussion is planned.
- The City-Wide Block Party is tentatively scheduled for June 11, 2024; Faye will contact Shelly Mazur to confirm date availability and review any conflicts Food Truck Rally’s or other events.
- CPC anticipates a public safety presentation in October 2024 involving police department hot topics or a similar public presentation.
