

Free Digital Magazines

RBdigital (formerly Zinio for Libraries) offers full digital copies of your favorite magazines! It's the same material as print issues, plus enhanced features like video, audio and live links. Magazine issues are not limited to one user at a time so they're always available, and you can keep them as long as you like.

Step 1. New users will create an account in the RBdigital gateway by going to www.ropl.org, click Downloadables, the RBdigital link, and then create an account with your ROPL library card, e-mail ID, and password when the site opens.

The most popular magazines are displayed first. Use the Search bar to view titles in alphabetical order or the genre drop-down for a list of subjects. There are 100s of magazines for you to choose from and no limit to the amount you can check out!

Step 2. Click on a magazine cover for more information about the magazine or click checkout to add it to your collection.

Click on My Collection to view/manage (delete) the titles you have already checked out.

Step 3. Click 'Start Reading' to read your magazine. A RBdigital Reader tab opens in the web browser of a PC or Mac (Chrome, Firefox, Internet Explorer 10+, and Safari 5+).

To check out more magazines, toggle back to the RB Gateway. All searching and checkouts take place on the browser.

Read on your tablet or smartphone device! Go to your device's app store, to install the app for offline reading.

Once it is installed, open the app, sign-in, and choose The Library Network as the library selection option. Royal Oak is a member of the TLN consortium.
