Royal Oak Police Department Giving Back to the Community

Royal Oak Charity Golf Event

The Royal Oak Police Department hosted the eighth annual Charity Golf Outing on Monday, September 21st. This year's event was held at the Knollwood Country Club in West Bloomfield. The outing was capped at 100 golfers due to the COVID-19 restrictions. Despite many challenges associated with hosting an event during a global pandemic, participants were treated to great weather and golf. The scaled back event was a means to thank our long-time sponsors who have supported us through the years. We hope to be back and host a much larger event in 2021.

Royal Oak Run with the Police Event

The Royal Oak Police Department hosted the fourth annual Run with the Police Event. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, this year's event turned virtual. Each runner that signed up had the opportunity to select their own 5K race route and report their run times online. Once the runner registered their 5K times, they received a finisher medal along with a shirt commemorating the event.
