Ten months ago we stepped into Kimball High School...individuals searching for ourselves, looking to fit in, wanting to achieve something. We were seeking to do well, to find our identity, and to develop new friendships. We opened our lockers for the first time, looked at our schedules, and thought about how grand it was to start a brand new school year. Just as every year does, this year brought on change. Our friends held us strong when things were shaky, in good times and bad, through boyfriends and girlfriends, bad grades, family problems, and love. Our friends showed us that life was worth enjoying.

As we took that first step into Kimball High, none of us could have ever imagined the events that have unfolded this past school year. We all watched as our nation came together to unite under the waving of the thirteen stripes and fifty stars that make up our American flag. We watched clips of blazing airplanes diving head first into the two towers that were once a symbol of New York. We watched as flames from the Pentagon touched the sky, turning it a musty black. These haunting memories will be burned into our minds, and where we witnessed these events on September 11, 2001, will never be forgotten.

For now, regardless of what color we are, or where we stand in our popular culture: black or white, red or yellow, American or European, rich or poor, new comers or returning students, for this short moment in time, and forever, we all have something in common.

Time to U-Knight

The fourteenth annual All School Picnic was once again a huge success. The picnic is a time when new and returning students, as well as parents, can get an idea of what types of activities Kimball has to offer. Kristen Byrdak'02 exclaimed, "the picnic was a blast!" This year, the picnic served as a source of support and remembrance for those struggling with the September eleventh tragedy. With all of the spirit and togetherness, our community united during the All School Picnic in an event to remember.

A Fairy-Tale Knight

An Enchanting Story

The 2001 Homecoming was as magical as a fairy tale. It started on a sunny October afternoon with a parade. The students paraded through neighborhood streets, displaying the class floats, club banners and Homecoming court. The deafening roar of the band and cheers from students filled the air with excitement as the students marched up and down the streets surrounding the campus. The night only became more exhilarating as the Knights' Football Team took the field early Friday night. The stadium was illuminated as the Knights dominated the entire game against Waterford Kettering. The cool, clear evening ended with a winning football game. All this added up to an enchanting evening.

The Varsity Football Team charges onto the field for the homecoming game against Waterford Kettering.

Lindsay Kudwa'04, Meagan Masterson'05, Marquita Burk'03, Sarah Brinkman'05, and the rest of the Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squad, pump up the crowd during halftime.

Adam Briggs'02 takes down an unlucky opponent.

Wide receiver A.J. Bordy'02 breaks a tackle early on in the game.

This year's Homecoming was a dream come true. The theme of 2001 was "Fairytale," and that is exactly what the night turned out to be. Decorations lined the walls, halls, and gym of the school. The fairies, mushrooms, trees, and balloons made the gym and hall feel like a page from a storybook. "The decorations were really done well," commented Rebecca Messing '03.

The freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors all packed into the gym to dance the night away. There was even a surprise performance: Blair French, Linder French's older brother, showed up on stage and did a freestyle performance for the crowd. "He is a great performer and always surprises me with something new," stated Laura Marsoupian '03. The dance continued on and there was a smile upon everyone's face. "It was the best Homecoming ever, and I'm sad it's going to be my last," quotes Monika Stormer '02.

Soon it was time for the Homecoming Court to be announced. Everyone rushed to the stage with excitement, and as the names were being announced, the suspense built. Finally, after a long awaited announcement, Dave Dillion and Kathryn Caruso were crowned Kimball's 2001 Homecoming King and Queen. "I'm really pleased with the Homecoming King and Queen. They both are wonderful people and deserve the great honor," Carly Fuelling '02 said.

a knight's

As the night came to an end, students bid their goodbyes and strolled away from the dance floor. As everyone departed, they closed a new chapter of their lives. A chapter that came right out of "Fairytale".

David Dillon and Kathryn Caruso are honored to be Kimball's 2001 Homecoming King and Queen.

Who Are Who Are Who Are WE!

Spirit Week gets people excited for the Powder Puff game. "I think it's fun to see everyone dressed up to show some school spirit. People are always looking for reasons to make fools out of themselves," stated Dave Dillion'02. Spirit Week is when students show their spirit for the school, whether it's from dressing up Blue and Gold to Wacky-Tacky. Megan Hurcomb'04 said, "It's more fun when the entire school participates in Spirit Week." Students look forward to this time of the year when they can be silly and spirited.

Kathryn Caruso'02, Lyndsay Richards'02, Kelly Martin'02, Dana Farida'02, and Andrea Schensky'02, bright butterflies, fluttered to their classes.

Junior girls gather for a picture as they show good spirits while still having a blast.

Lindsey Pawloski '02, "The Rocket", takes off for a touchdown as she leaves the Juniors behind.

The Senior Girls crazily rush out into the field to celebrate another glorious victory.

BACK 2 BACK

The Class of 2002 returned as champions for the highly anticipated Powder Puff game. The Senior girls challenged the Junior girls to play flag football as a fundraiser for the Senior Class. It's been over a decade since one class has been undefeated both years. The girls fought it out to the end, but the Juniors just couldn't handle the Seniors' quick moves. The aggressiveness from both teams kept the crowd excited and full of spirit. In the end, the score was 32-12 and the Class of 2002 was yet again victorious.

The Senior Girls, Class of 2002, join together for a rowdy picture right after proving they are number one.

Mr. Hug, Mr. Barnett and Mr. Spurgeon, all referees, talk to both sides as they flip a coin at the start of the game.

The Senior and Junior Girls show good conduct while putting the rivalry aside as they shake hands after the rough Powder Puff game.

Tara Wesley '03 tries breaking away, but Tyeesha Emerson '02 is just too quick and snatches Tara's flag.

So Long Seniors

"Don't you worry, Sometimes you've just got to let it ride. The world is changin' right before our eyes." - The Eagles

"I'm not the same as I was long ago, I've learned some new things and I hope that it shows." - Neil Young

As we come to the end of our Kimball journey, we find ourselves experiencing many different feelings.

We've all made the best of our four years here, and although it will be hard to let go, it is our time to move forward.

"It's not where, but who you're with that really matters." - Dave

"Each today, well lived, makes yesterday a dream of happiness and each tomorrow a vision of hope." - Sanskrit Poem

Matthews Band

Overwhelmed with wonderful memories we may worry about what is to come in the future. We as the class of 2002 will never be together in the same way again.

Co-captain Joe Leibold proudly walks off the football field after a win.

Adam Briggs loves being a Senior THIS much!

Tommy Kant is very upset when he thinks about the ending of his Senior year.

Kimball Crowd

"All successful people have a goal. No one can get anywhere unless he knows where he wants to go and what he wants to be or do."
-Norman Peale

The students here at Kimball are setting goals for what they want to accomplish in their lives. Whatever it is they have their minds set on, they are building the skills to accomplish them.

"If you can imagine it, you can achieve it. If you can dream it, you can become it."
-William Arthur Ward

Achieving goals can be a difficult task to accomplish, but many lessons and morals are learned in the process.

"Some of the best lessons we ever learn, we learn from our mistakes and failures. The error of the past is the success and wisdom of the future." -Tyron Edwards

At school, we have a safe place to test our ideas. We are given the freedom to learn from our own mistakes.

"I have learned that success is to be measured not so much by the position one has reached, as by the obstacles which one has overcome trying to succeed." -Booker T Washington

Success is learned over time. Our students spend four years gaining the necessary skills to become responsible and successful individuals.

Don't rush through life because you miss out on many things along the way.

"The best thing about the future is that it comes only one day at a time." -Abraham Lincoln

Our times here at Kimball have helped us to learn, grow, and succeed in life.

"Your future depends on many things, but mostly on you."

Fresh Ideas

Principals' Power

The main office is full of new faces and fresh ideas. Two important additions were made to the Kimball Administrative staff: Assistant Principal Ms. Bridget Schipper and part time Assistant Principal and Athletic Director Mr. Eric Sturm. Our new principals were proud to be working alongside Principal Mr. Thomas Neville and Assistant Principal Ms. Jennifer Browne.

Ms. Schipper came to KHS from Dondero, where she was an Assistant Principal. Her responsibilities here range from discipline and facilities, to Instructional Supervision. She was excited to switch high schools. "I had always heard that Kimball was a great and exciting place to work," beamed Ms. Schipper. Some of the faces within the Kimball halls are not new to her. "I know a lot of the students from elementary. It is fun to see them all grown up," she said.

Mr. Sturm came to Kimball after working at Trenton High School, the International School of Cairo, Egypt, and the International School of Venezuela. He came to Kimball full of fresh ideas and new perspectives. He is a fellow Kimball Knight, having graduated in 1984. The student body has changed since his days as a student at KHS, but he was excited to "embrace the diversity."

The efficiency of the main office relies heavily upon the duties of the secretaries. Their dedication and persistence allows our school to run smoothly. The students of Kimball are thankful for our dedicated administration and staff.

Ms. Eydie Brown (above), Ms. Jennifer Browne's secretary, is always ready to lend a helping hand.

Ms. Pat Hayes (above right) works on important data for Ms. Bridget Schipper.

Mr. Thomas Neville sets the tone for the tasks at hand.

Ms. Browne is busy handling curriculum and scheduling, but enjoys working with students the most.

Amanda Smith, co-op student, puts address labels on the envelopes in the main office

Ms. Schipper is never too busy to talk to a student.

Mr. Sturm enjoys working with students, whether as athletic director or disciplinarian.

Mrs. Murphy is happy to be working in Kimball's SSC.

Co-op participant, Carly Cricelli'02, works hard to file away the day's paperwork.

Crystal Pamer'02 tries to figure out time sheets for Mr. Chard.

Mr. Anderson enjoys his work with students. Is that an Oscar for Outstanding Work with Kimball's Attendance on his desk?

The SSC is the Place to Be!

If Kimball students ever have a problem and need services, they know to head to the Student Service Center. The SSC is a place where students find the comfort of knowing that they can receive help.

The counselors include: K. Knapp, A. Davies, M. Brown, W. Spurgeon, M. Keefe, and M. Herman. G. Marck is the student Psychologist and is new to Kimball this year. These counselors deal with class schedules, student problems and career/college advise. They assist students in discovering a bright future.

The secretaries deal with everything from attendance to schedules, and are the foundation of the SSC. Mrs. Leisa Jones and Mrs. Paula Jones are the secretaries for Mr. Anderson. "Working here is awesome because of the kids; attendance here is never a problem," exclaimed Mr. Anderson, Attendance Officer. Mrs. Murphy works with the counselors. Ms. Meyerand is the technical assistant and handles the grades and scheduling. These people are all very essential to the building.

The students who do Co-op in the SSC also help students. Crystal Pamer'02, Joy Campbell'02, and Carly Cricelli'02 are all in the Student Service Center from 1-3, five days a week. "The job means more to me because the atmosphere feels like family," commented Joy Campbell'02. With the help of all of these people, the SSC fulfills its purpose.

The effect of the Student Service Center is far-reaching; without it, kids would not be happy. And if the students are not happy, then the teachers are not happy...and so it goes.

Kimball's Eyes and Ears

Kimball is a safe place to roam the halls, thanks to the dedicated and hard-working staff. The students feel comfortable and confident that the staff will maintain a peaceful environment for them. From the infamous hall guards, to the friendly cafeteria staff, someone is always there to keep the students in line. A new addition to the hall guard staff is Kathy Ketel. Ketel exclaims, "The kids have been really good. They are very respectful for the most part and have been pretty nice." She will be a big help to the rest of the hall guards.

Ever wonder why no food fights break out? That's because our dedicated lunch monitors always have an eye on the kids, keeping things under control. They sure know how to cook up a pizza, grill up some chicken fingers, or make up a tasty submarine sandwich. The lunch monitors and staff make high school a wonderful experience for the students. With a couple new rules enforced, and a few more staff employed, Kimball is now safer than ever.

Kerry Ketel tells Katherine Hartter'03 not to drink pop in the hallways.

For the People...

Roundtable Revolution

This year, Roundtable has been very busy. Under the leadership of Joe Leibold'02, Jack Brennan'03, Kathryn Caruso'02, George Doman'03, and Kenny Koshorek'04, Roundtable has had a very successful year. Roundtable has contributed to the Kimball experience, as well as to the community. Whether it's planning social events or raising money for charity, representatives have taken on many feats with optimism and enthusiasm. "Roundtable has been so much fun, and we know how to get things done," exclaimed President Joe Leibold when asked how they've achieved such great success. Vice President Jack Brennan stated "One of the goals of Roundtable is to make a positive contribution to the community, and I believe we've accomplished that goal." From the All School Picnic to the Volleyball Marathon, Roundtable has been busy. Parliamentarian Kathryn Caruso reiterated that, "being a representative is a full time position, which takes a lot of hard work both in and out of school." Mr. Decker, advisor, summarized the year by stating, "All the hard work really paid off this year in all the events we took on."

Electric Ensemble

The 2001-2002 Advanced Ensemble, made up of Madrigals, Men of Note, and Bel-Cantos, underwent many changes this year. Mrs. Buffa prepared all three groups for Solo and Ensemble concerts.

In only their second year, Bel-Cantos, the elite all women's group, and Men of Note, the elite all men's group, have already captured the attention of many people who attended their concerts.

With the help of Oakland University Student Director Joe Moultrup, Men of Note were able to expand their variety of music, performing such hits as "In the Still of the Night," "Prayer of the Children," and "You're A Mean One Mr. Grinch." Auditions were held in January of 2001 for the purpose of creating Men of Note, and the group has already developed many vocal techniques, along with great memories "Men of Note is a really fun group to be a part of because while learning music with an elite group, I'm able to enjoy spending time with all the other members of the group," stated Sean Grier'04. "The most memorable experience from Men of Note this year is when Chris Moultrup deafened everyone in the group when he was fooling around with the microphone system," stated fellow sophomore Jonny Ellison.

Madrigals, the elite all men's and women's group, also changed since last year. "All members of this year's Madrigals are very dedicated to the music program," stated Mrs. Buffa, "not to mention their vocal tone is absolutely outstanding." With only four seniors leaving next year, Madrigals is sure to be just as good next year.

With six returning seniors, Bel-Cantos were able to turn their knowledge from last year, and make their group even better this year. Senior Liz Gregory stated, "The hard work and dedication really paid off. We really came together as a group. There's no "I" in team."

With hard working, dedicated members, it's easy to see why being part of an elite group at Kimball is one of the most sought after honors in the school.

Clef Kids

The 2001-2002 Kimball Choirs were made up of over one hundred dedicated and hardworking individuals whose main goal was to make the Kimball Choirs the best they could possibly be. To excel in choir, students must not only have the ability to carry a tune, but they also must be able to sight-read music. Students must work their way up to become part of the A Cappella Choir, Kimball's highest and most respected choir. In Varsity Choir students learn the basics of singing and sight-reading music, as well as important key terms and musical phrases found within music. Passing numerous theory and sight-reading tests earns a student a spot in Kimball's Concert Choir. In Concert Choir, students learn how to expand their music technology and learn to broaden their choral tone, while learning to blend their voices in with a larger singing group. In A Cappella Choir students expand their vocal abilities to accomplish one main goal: to receive a "One" at the Michigan State Choral Festival. This year, Kimball's A Cappella Choir added a new Broadway concert for the purpose of collecting money for scholarships. This allowed more people to go to the competition. President Adam Skrzynski, Vice-President Rebecca Boucher, Secretary Brian Moultrup, and Treasurer Therese Messing, helped make choir one of the best experiences of the school year. "Choir has greatly expanded my circle of friends," stated senior Michelle Griffin. Mrs. Buffa's hard work and dedication was the reason why the Kimball Choirs were as good as they were.

All Strings Attached

The Kimball Symphony and Concert members were under the direction of Mr. Peter Tolias. The musical sounds could be heard throughout the hallways as the orchestra members practiced and rehearsed for their concert debuts.

The Symphony Orchestra began with a concert at the Royal Oak Presbyterian Church. They played Beethoven's Seventh Symphony and Pastoral by John Ireland. The Concert Orchestra started the year playing for the Band and Orchestra Booster's meeting. The Orchestra members came in during the early morning hours to prepare music for our listening pleasure. "The dedication of the students this year is wonderful, they truly appreciate the opportunity to play beautiful music," commented Peter Tolias. "The leadership of the senior class is commendable." "Playing music is a lot fun, the final product was always very rewarding to listen to," added Lauren Meek, Orchestra Secretary.

The Kimball Orchestras participated in several group activities. They went to a Haunted House, and on a Haunted Hayride in October. These activities were organized by the senior officers: President Sarah Peterson, Vice President Vanessa Dunlop, Secretary Lauren Meek, Treasurer Julia Farber, and Concert Officer Carey Canty. The Orchestras also went to see a Production of The Nutcracker at the Detroit Opera House in December. The Symphony Orchestras played an arrangement of the Nutcracker for their Christmas concert. "It was cool to hear professionals play the same music we did. I have to admit, their tempos were faster!" laughed Julia Farber.

Mr. Conaton's Opus

The Symphony Band had a hectic year filled with concerts, social events, and outings. Their concerts included a Holiday Concert, as well as the ever popular Band-O-Rama. The Symphony Band planned a joint trip with Concert Band to Chicago. There they visited the popular sights, attended shows, and shopped on Michigan Avenue. They had the opportunity to be critiqued by a clinician, as well. "It's so much fun to get out of school and hang out doing something that is fun," explained Dennis Matyas '02. They also joined the orchestras in their trip to the see the Nutcracker Ballet at the Detroit Opera House. Assistant Principal Ms. Schipper joined the trip as a chaperone in order to get a chance to know some of the band and orchestra members.

David Biliti '02, Brian Moultrup '02, and Douglas Austin '02 concentrate intently on their percussion music.

The Concert Band members had an exciting year as well. They joined in on all the concerts and attended some of the outings. Sophomore Tina Dimoski stated that "Concert Band was a blast this year! The best part was getting to do activities with Symphony Band." Mr. Conaton was thrilled with the progress that Concert Band made over the year. Congratulations on a great year!

Music to the Ears

Marching Band and Pep Band were very busy during the beginning of the year. Football season made way for early morning marching practices and tired bodies. Megan Canty'04 commented, "Marching band is a lot of fun, but morning rehearsals everyday make the football season seem so long." The Kimball Marching Band opened the season at the All-School Picnic leading in the Varsity Football team, and from then on played at half-time at all the home Varsity games. "This year went really well despite the cold and the slippery field," stated Drum Major Jackie Doyon'02.

The Marching Band played in the Rochester Christmas Parade and marched in the Royal Oak Memorial Day parade. They also gave an enthusiastic entrance at the Band-O-Rama. A memorable mid-year performance was when the Band played for the community as the Olympic Torch passed through Royal Oak on its way to Salt Lake City.

The Pep Band joined in on the fun during the fall when they played during the home football games. Members also traveled to most away games to get the crowd excited in the stands. "It's fun seeing everyone's faces from below when we are playing for them and getting them pumped for the game," expressed Brian Moultrup'02. Pep Band also got the student body excited on Varsity home game days by playing in the lower glass hall before school. Their schedule also included playing at the Freshman Ice Cream Social before the All-School Picnic and at other Varsity sports events. Congratulations to all the bands and keep up with the great work!

Memories in the Making

After many deadlines and endless hours of hard work and dedication, the 2001-2002 Lancer staff, advised by Mrs. Beverly Wine, finished the yearbook with much pride.

"I'm very happy with the way the yearbook turned out. We spent a lot of time on it to make this year's yearbook the absolute best it's ever been," exclaimed junior Taryn Fish.

The eight editors, who led the rest of the staff were Kristin Brydak'02, Kathryn Caruso'02, Jeff Cornillie'02, Dana Farida'02, Andrea Fritsch'02, Erin Kress'02, Lyndsay Richards'02 and Dayna Smith'02.

"Being an editor of the Lancer was amazing, although it was no walk in the park. A lot of time and energy was put into the making of this book and it really paid off in the end," commented editor Erin Kress'02.

The class, which was made up of 23 students, worked together as a team to capture the memories of the students in the school.

"It's fun working on the yearbook knowing that people will look back years later and remember what a great time they had in high school," stated Jessica Staubach'02.

The 2001-2002 Lancer staff put quality time into this yearbook in order to preserve the memories of their classmates so that when they look back years from now, they will remember the times of their life.

The Herald

Under the guidance of Gail Bennett, The Herald strove to be the best newspaper in Kimball's history.

Led by Editor-in-Chief Colleen McBrien, the staff worked hard in writing articles that informed the student body about what was happening around the school. "Putting together The Herald is the highlight of my day by far! I think that we put out some great issues this year, thanks to a great staff," stated McBrien'02.

The Herald staff also used the newspaper to voice opinions and the feature section to entertain its readers. The staff also enjoyed covering all the Kimball sports.

"This year's staff was extremely hard working and especially creative. I had so much fun working with them," commented advisor Gail Bennett. The Herald members just couldn't stop talking about this class.

Reporter Mike Block'02 expressed, "Being on The Herald staff has given me the opportunity to express myself and voice my opinions. It has also been a great learning experience because I plan on making a career out of journalism."

"It's an amazing experience. I really enjoy learning about journalism from Mrs. Bennett. Writing articles and having the student body read them and hearing their input on my work really inspires me to continue writing articles for The Herald," commented reporter Erin Kress'02.

Making of the Magazine

This year's Xenolith staff worked their tails off to make this our creative arts magazine the best it possibly could be. Led by Editor-in-Chief Erica Sebolka '02, Xenolith was a huge success. As many who have worked on the staff before know, it isn't as easy as one thinks to put together Kimball High's creative arts magazine.

It all begins in the classroom where staff advisor Mrs. Eischeid assigns the staff members numerous writing and poetry assignments that they will submit to be put in the book. Next they concentrate on submitted entries, where the submissions undergo a grueling editing process in which the Xenolith staff votes on the entries they feel are qualified to join the book.

It may seem like a lot of work to some people, but members of Xenolith enjoy being a part of the staff. "Xenolith was just too much fun for me to handle. I'll sure miss it next year," stated member Colleen McBrien.

Excellent Exposure

Metaphorical Memories

From William Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet to Arthur Miller's The Crucible, to Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness, Kimball students experience a wide range of literature.. Many students turn their heads at the thought of reading novels, but the teachers in the Kimball English Department try to change the minds of the student body, and make reading something they enjoy doing. "The reason I pick the novels that I do is because I feel they expand the minds of students," stated Mrs. Bennett.

As we all know, when it comes to English, reading isn't the only homework we're assigned.

Learning important rhetorical devices such as metaphors, similies, diction and detail, helps students to increase their writing ability. To many students, these can seem like endless lectures on unimportant information that will never be used again. But at Kimball teachers make the best of the situation and make English an enjoyable subject. "Ms.Wine is so animated and humorous in her teachings, it makes it so much easier to pay attention in class," stated senior Andrea Fritsch. By using their vast knowledge, teachers are able to create memories that will last a lifetime.

Bunsen-Burner Bliss

From electricity, to gravity, to protons and electrons, the Kimball High School Science Department covers all aspects of science. Headed by Mrs. Ashburn, the Science Department has vastly improved over the last couple years. "Being head of the department gives me the opportunity to fill a leadership role and get more involved in the curriculum," stated Mrs. Ashburn. Because of the dedication of the Science teachers, students are now able to be involved in more hands-on experiments.

Not only do students learn all areas of science, but they are also able to have fun with what they're doing. Each of the Science teachers at Kimball is known for something that makes each class more enjoyable for the students. For Mrs. Ochoa, it's her all time favorite science joke: "what happened to Avogadro when he got bitten by  $6.02 \times 10^{23}$  mosquitoes? He got mole-area." For Ms. Elsner, it's her distinct physics diagrams which she draws on the board.

Learning the different areas of science and having fun isn't all there is to the subject. Many students propose the question "how will science help us in the future?" Mr. McMann replied, "people use science in everyday life, even in such activities as cooking and sports." With style and purpose, the Science Department sets the pace.

Making History

History is what captivates our whole existence. It is our past, present and future. Here at Kimball we are learn all about Social Studies, from Economics to Government to World Geography. Mr. Decker heads the Social Studies Department. "I feel really honored to be the Department head for such dedicated teachers. I look forward to working with them to improve student learning to the best of our abilities," exclaimed Decker.

Ms. Humara and Mr. Pfeifle are new to the scene this year. They are not entirely new to the building as both have been here as substitute teachers. "My students and I have felt comfortable around each other since I have been here at Kimball. I adjusted very quickly because of my previous teaching experiences with the kids," stated Pfeifle.

The other Social Studies teachers that make up the department include: Mr. Bowker, Mr. Greening, Ms. James, Ms. Kampa, Ms. Lindsey, Mr. Robbins, and Ms. Russell. "It's the way that the teachers interact with us that makes history so fun to learn. They don't bore us with worksheets; they do more hands on activities," commented Trestin Bradley '03.

Like a magician, their tricks are unknown. However they manage to make history fun, and we are glad to have these teachers with us here at Kimball.

Changes in Math

We have a new person in charge of the Math Department this year. His name is Mr. Kaye and he comes to Kimball from Dondero. "I am trying to keep the students changing with the times, and to get them used to new technology," stated Mr. Kaye. "Mr. Kaye is a really cool teacher and is good at what he does," said Ian Teeley '04.

Our Math program is diverse. Whether a student takes Extended. Algebra, AP Calculus, or something in between, Kimball is the place to learn. "At times pre-calculus can be difficult, but in the end all of my hard work pays off," exclaimed Jamie Segel '03.

"We need math for two reasons," said Mrs. Giacoma. "First, we need math to learn problem-solving skills and second, we need math to be able to succeed in a highly technical society." Students and teachers agree, math is worth the time and effort.

It's a Small World After All

Learn a Language for Life

Hola, bonjour, guten tag! Ever thought about traveling the world and getting some culture? Well, Kimball shows its own splash of culture by offering three foreign language classes, French, German and Spanish. Taking a foreign language broadens your knowledge of the world, and can be fun, too!

"I'm in fourth year German and I love it! I'm not fluent, but when someone is speaking German around me, I can pick up on some of the things they're saying. It's pretty cool," Tara Wilson'02 stated enthusiastically.

Frau Tatai and Herr Greening teach German, while French has Madame Fitch and Madame Hern, who also teaches Spanish. Along with Hern in Spanish are Señora Fetsco and Señora Bowen.

"Teaching is so much fun because I get the best quality students. Since Spanish isn't a required class, the kids are there because they actually want to be," remarked Fetsco happily.

"I love teaching French because it's great to see the progression from first year to fourth year. I particularly enjoy it when my students show some cultural knowledge," stated Fitch, who has been teaching at Kimball for thirty-four years now.

Taking a foreign language prepares our students not only for college, but also for life in the real, diverse world.

For Those who like to Argue...

Debate is an elective course that allows students the opportunity to compete in interscholastic debates. The students are able to research and debate current national topics; they then compete in tournaments.

Every spring the Michigan Interscholastic Forensic Association informs schools throughout the state on the national topic. In October, the tournament begins and students debate the national topic. This fall Kimball students debated on the issue of "Whether the United States Federal Government should establish a foreign policy significantly limiting the use of weapons of mass destruction." The students were not only limited to debating on the national topic, but they also participated in classroom debates on different topics.

The success of the Debate team was due in part of their sponsor, Mrs. Natke, who was very excited by the progress of the team. "Most students who are involved in debate obviously like to argue and enjoy competition. Last fall we had a great bunch of guys who were very successful."

The top three debaters of last season were Dan Gibson '04, Dustin McCauley '04, and Matthew Turner '05. "It was a great experience to participate in Debate. I learned a lot," stated Nathan Wiles '05. "I am looking forward to next season!"

Art Works

Whether it is with the stroke of a brush or the molding of clay, Kimball students are working hard to learn, create and sell art. Students display their art in the showcase to enhance individuality and our surroundings. They also have the opportunity to make some money from the sale of their art at the student art show.

Talent is filling the halls, however, credit must be given to the teachers of the art classes, Mr. Powers and Mr. Rice. Tony Roy '03 stated, "Mr. Powers gives us good direction in the world of art." Melanie Teggart '02 excitedly exclaimed, "Powers is the best!" While Jenny Huston '03 laughed, "Mr. Rice's class is so much fun; he lets me express my feelings through my work."

The art program at Kimball really does allow for self expression, not to mention a lot of fun. With paint, pastels, crayons, charcoal, clay and glazes, any type of art project imaginable can be created.

As stated by Mr. Rice, "The art classes at Kimball offer the students an opportunity to express their creativity in a variety of different mediums- and express themselves they do."

They can be certified in Community CPR, First Aid, and in the Emergency Response class, Medical First Responder. # Grabbing the Future

Whether it was a class that taught architecture and design, or a class that taught computer skills, or even a room where students learned what it's like to raise children, Practical Arts offered something for everyone. The Practical Arts program consisted of Technical Education, Drafting, and Child Development. Even though the courses were fun and "hands-on" the students were smart enough to pick these classes for reasons that involved improving their futures.

The Cisco class taught students how to network, build, and maintain computers. "I joined this class because computers are our future and if you want a competitive job, you need to be computer savvy," stated Jenny Greig'03. Nick Loos'03 agreed with that statement. "I believe that it's a good learning experience and that it's very versatile for future careers and options.

"In Child Development, the students learned about the psychological growth of young people and the challenge of raising them. "My favorite experience in the class was when I had to carry around a fake baby [doll] to mimic the job of child raising. It was just fun to cart around this life-like baby and to get a reaction from people who didn't realize it wasn't real," stated Carly Cricelli'02.

Finally, the third but equally important class of the three major practical arts was Computer Aided Drafting (CAD). In Kimball's drafting class, students got a chance to become familiar with special components of aided drafting such as linework, lettering, methods of project designs with three dimension, geometry concepts, digital animation, and working with wire frame and solid models. Practical Arts means hands-on and real-life skills for the future!

Jumping with Joy

When most students think of a physical education class, they often think of running laps, doing sit-ups or sweating profusely. The students in Physical Education this year just couldn't stop talking about how much fun their class was. In the freshman physical education classes, students are active in a wide array of sports, from badminton to basketball. The students learn the rules and history of the sport, while at the same time enjoy them immensely. This year Kimball welcomed a new teacher, Mr. Rattliffe. He joined Ms. McLellan and Mr. Gordon Kimball to form a very knowledgeable and qualified Physical Education staff. Students at Kimball are required to take at least one year of Physical Education, but for many, the experience was so great that they couldn't wait to take it again. For Ryan Spangler'03 this couldn't be truer. Ryan took at least one Phys. Ed. class in each of his three years at Kimball. Ryan said, "I love being active." For other students, a Phys. Ed. class can serve as a time to let off some energy or get in shape. Steve Brokaw'03 liked physical education for both of these reasons. "I like pútting down the books and burnin' some calories," exclaimed Steve. The Phys. Ed. Students at Kimball, had the time of their lives while participating in Physical Education classes.

Shopping for Success

Craving hot, chocolate chip cookies right from the oven? Looking for a cozy sweatshirt for the upcoming winter? Trying to find that perfect gift for your best friend? Well, look no farther than Kimball's new and improved student store. It is stocked with everything you could possibly imagine. The Knight's Den is a student-run store under the direction of Mrs. Northey. It aides in business management, teaches students how to advertise their products, and insists upon having polite customer service. The Knight's Den is an actual retail store that requires plenty of work and energy to maintain. New prerequisites were set to make it more difficult to take the class.

Mrs. Northey explained, "Students now have to take Marketing 1 and 2 in order to run the Knight's Den. I wanted students to understand the important concepts of managing a business and know a little about what they were doing before actually taking the class." The students took field trips to stores in order to learn more about other businesses. They also listened to guest speakers to acquire a better knowledge of the industry. "We now have more staff, more security, more apparel and much more to offer," said Lindsay Murray '02. # More Than Special

We have one of the best programs in the area that provides support for the mentally or physically challenged students. Under the instruction of Mr. George, Ms. Festa, and Mr. Potter, kids learn to perform many everyday tasks like cooking and shopping. When asked what they liked to cook, the entire class responded with an excited tone. They commented that they cooked foods like nachos, macaroni, hot dogs, spaghetti, chili, pancakes and pitas. For three out of the five days that students are in school each week, the kids go on trips to restaurants and stores like Mervins, and Target. Here they learn skills like how to shop and what to buy. The students also contribute to our school each week by recycling bottles and cans. They take them to Meijers and return them for cash that they use when they go to the store. These students also do special jobs like folding and stamping letters. "All the kids are great. They all have such different personalities," commented Mr. George. All of the kids that participate in the program work hard to learn what they need to learn, and get done what they need to get done. Mr. George, Ms. Festa, Mr. Potter, and the other staff who work with them had nothing but good things to say about their students.

Attaining Tomorrow, Today

The Oakland Technical Center is a facility devoted to giving juniors and seniors hands-on training in specific career fields. At OTC, students are able to receive realistic training in areas of interest from Telecommunications to Culinary Arts.

For the students who chose to take advantage of OTC, the results were valuable. For Ryan Mulholland '02 OTC is the highlight of his day. "My Agricultural Science class provided me with priceless knowledge and skills. I also enjoyed frolicking in the greenhouse." OTC provided students with the skills and knowledge that are not normally offered in a high school. Senior Justin Gorncy stated that his favorite part of OTC was where he was "able to make balloon art," a process in which he put items such as teddy bears and flowers inside a balloon. "They make great gifts!"

Besides learning about certain careers, Kimball students were able to meet students from other high schools in the area that also attend OTC. "You make a lot of friends that you normally wouldn't even meet if you hadn't gone to OTC," stated Gary Dahl '02. As Ryan said, "OTC is a once in a lifetime experience."

Training for the Future

The Kimball Co-op program gives students a chance to get hands-on experience in the work field while still attending school. In Co-op, students have the opportunity to experience working for various businesses, from Funchland to our very own school store. They generally work two to three hours a day, and get weekends off.

"It's really cool that I can come to school and make money for doing it. I am also applying my business skills to my job so that maybe I can own my own store someday," stated T.J. Rutledge'02.

Program Directors Mr. Charlie Chard and Mrs. Mary Fry have worked very hard to keep the Co-op program functioning. "It's a good learning experience for the students and it's a nice bonus that they get the weekends off," exclaimed Mr.Chard.

Co-op can also be really fun for students entering into the work field.

"Not only does this give me experience for my future, but it's a lot of fun to work with the animals," commented Tara Wilson'02 who works at the Berkley Animal Clinic.

The Co-op program holds great educational value and preparation for students in the future.

A World of Information

The Media Center is full of many resources. Among the countless books and encyclopedias, there is always the internet. The internet has numerous sources from which students can access information. "I use the Media Center for research and for a quiet place to study," said Melissa Dziurda'02

The four women who work in the Media Center are well versed in the new technology that is offered. "Mrs. Rosenbaum knows the books from A to Z, and all about the computers, too," said Tim Simmons'02. The women who work in the center are Mrs. Leslye Rosenbaum, full-time Media Specialist, Mrs. Betsy LaFond, part-time Media Specialist, Mrs. Barbara Pederson, Media Technician, and Mrs. Carol Harbert, Media Clerk. "Mrs. Pederson was very helpful to me when I needed to find books for an English project," said Vicky Zieldorff'02.

Everyday is different for these four. "It is the best job in the school," exclaimed Rosenbaum. They help students and staff access information and provide audiovisual equipment and assistance. The internet is so popular that all of these women know all about it. "The internet rules," stated LaFond. If you ever need information, the Media Center is the place to be!

Jenny Nesbitt'02 reads up on European artists in the media center.

Mrs. LaFond inputs data into the computer for that day. She is never too busy to help the students.

Mrs. Pederson takes a break from color coding to file book titles.

Mrs. Rosenbaum assists Troy Morrison'03 and Alicia Thomas'03 with finding the right book.

Jenny Mangold'02 uses the computer to type an essay on the novel Frankenstein.

Student assistants Erin Bilitzke'03, Jack Terzibashian'03, and Aaron Dixon'02 work hard to keep the Media Center running smoothly.

Mrs. LaFond leaves her computer to help Jon Carnovsky'04 with his assignment.

A Season of Highlights

This year's rocky start for the JV Football team ended with no sad emotions but with high spirits and adrenaline that made this season a lot of fun. JV player Jon Elson '04 had a positive point of view and stated, "It was a disappointing season but I had a ton of fun. Next year when I'm on Varsity, I hope to do a great job and still help maintain a fun atmosphere with the team." This year's team was led by coaches Derek Adams and Adam Ray, who diligently worked the team hard and gave them inspiration. Not only did the coaches give the team inspiration, but they also gave each other hope and admiration. JV player Bob Pantalone '04 mentioned, "My favorite highlight of the season was our very first touchdown when John Blizinski '04 made a forty yard touchdown to Max Stuart '04, which gave me hope for the season." Jon Elson also reflected on his contributions. "My favorite personal moment was when I made four long runs. I felt that I was pulling my weight for myself and the team," remarked Elson. Despite the rough season for our Freshman and JV Football teams, our players have proven to have their hearts in the right places by enjoying the moments they shared.

Breaking Through the Barriers

Through all the tears and a bumpy start, the Varsity Lady Knights fought to the top and won the league championship. Through hard work and a lot of determination, the girls pulled together and got through hard times. "Our team was really small this year but we were all really close," exclaimed Danielle Tanner'02. "We didn't win every game, but we learned to work hard as a team," continued Tanner. "We put so much time and effort into this season; we sacrificed our bodies and our summer nights. We deserved to win our league," Colleen Spurgeon'02 stated.

Looking back on the season, captain Elynnor Pavlovics'02 expressed a strong sense of achievement. "We didn't start out that well but we improved as individuals and as a team, and went on to win leagues." Jennifer Mangold'02, Colleen Spurgeon'02 and Coach Andre Harding were honored for their contributions to the winning season.

New Faces Help With A New Season

New faces added to the advantages on the Junior Varsity and Freshman Girls' Basketball teams. "Meeting new people and having a new coach was hard," commented Katherine Schell '05. "But it helped with being a freshman by meeting friends." The rest of the freshman team agreed. "Even though we had four different coaches at the beginning of the season, it helped me become a better player," stated Kathleen Wolber '05.

All the girls were excited for the season. They all wanted to work hard at practice, and to find new friends to work together with.

"I got to know the older girls on JV pretty well which made it easier for us to play," exclaimed Meghan Boyle '05. "That made for a fantastic season." Great job girls on seasons that were successes in more than one way.

Knights Strive For Excellence

The Knights stepped onto the field this year with a lot riding on their shoulders. They successfully defended their Division II league title for a third straight year. From the beginning, teams throughout the league were skeptical due to the loss of a few key seniors. Returning to the team were six solid seniors whose experience was extremely useful in guiding the otherwise young team. The Knights' confidence was boosted by a 2-0 victory over Division I Utica Ford in the season opener. This confidence helped fuel the Knights to defeat Brandon, Waterford Kettering and Avondale in the first three weeks of the season. When asked about the team, Andy Kresbsbach '04 boasted, "We had a talented offense and a solid defense." According to Brian McLaughlin '03, "With a team like ours, it's no wonder we were able to take leagues again."

"The Hard Work Pays Off"

The youth of Kimball soccer were strong this year. Coach Pfeifle and Coach Jones helped mold these young players into the future varsity players. "We trained as a team from the beginning of August, and some of us individually since the beginning of the summer. The hard work pays off," Scott Jones '04 commented.

Both the J.V. and Freshmen are off to great seasons. J.V. captain Alex Mancino '04 reported "I think this season was a lot of fun, and a good opportunity for team development." The freshman crew is also having a great time. Joe Falcon '05 was overheard telling one of his teammates, "I love dominating the freshman scene this year." Both teams seemed to not only work hard, but enjoy themselves, as well. With attitudes like that, it's no wonder the season was a winning one for both teams.

Squad Succeeds with Determination and Desire

Under the guidance of Coach Ewell, the ladies of Cross Country have shown great endurance. Everyone who was on the team this year agreed that it was a fun season. "It was a pretty outrageous year," stated Jessica Morton '02, "My most memorable moment with the team was when we teepeed coach Ewell's house. He was pretty cool about it and he emailed us a picture of our beautiful handiwork, too!" Cross Country wasn't just fun and games, but also devotion and hard work. The team proved to be up to the challenge by showing up to practice everyday after school and living up to the expectations of captains Merry Gavin '02 and Jessica Sczempek '02. "The captains did a really good job this year coaching us and encouraging us to do our best," remarked Emily Renkert '03. Emily Renkert recalls, "All the people I know in track talked me into joining the team, and it was really worth listening to their advice." All the other girls on the team would agree with Emily. Joining the team was definitely worth it.

Looking At Golf In A Hole New Way.

The Boys' Golf team really "hit" it off this year. They excelled tremendously and achieved many goals. The team won the Wyngate Junior Classic and came in fourth place in the Oakland County Tournament Competition. "This is the best year we have had in a long time. The team accomplished many goals and earned a new respect for the game of golf," stated Coach Caruso. Not only did the team work hard, but they played hard as well. "We had some difficult moments, but we handled this year very well and had the most fun we could," stated Dan Bosanko '02. As a team, they showed true unity, but when it came to individual skills, each excelled profoundly. Scott Cassady is just one out of the many who displayed his skills this year. He placed second in the Oakland County Competition. Who knows what the future holds? Maybe Kimball High School will send out the next Tiger Woods.

The Girls' JV and Varsity Tennis teams have terrific team spirit. They put forth a great amount of effort this season, and had fun at the same time!

The girls struggled for their wins and suffered some losses. "We may not have had the best season this year, but we made a lot of new friends and really bonded together," explained Captain Tara Wilson '02. These girls gave their all each and every match. Whether they won or lost, you can bet they were still having fun! "We didn't let losing get us down," recalled Jessica Semanson '02.

Some girls said the best part of the tennis meets was the bus ride to away games. "We laughed the whole way to and from every away meet. I laughed so hard that I cried!" exclaimed Lauren Meek '02. This year's Girls' Tennis teams developed a strong bond which made their season a memorable one.

Making the Best of It

"So far so good!" commented Nathan Mueller'02 about the Boys' Varsity Basketball team's season. These guys had to overcome losing four out of five starters this season but they tried to make the best of it. "We had a much younger team this year which will be beneficial for upcoming seasons," stated Captain Dave Dillon'02.

With their rigorous practice schedule, these boys were whipped into incredible shape. Each day they practiced after school, lifted weights and they even practiced for four hours on Sundays! "Without the help of my teammates, I don't think

I would have gotten through the rough practices," stated Mike Hakala '03.

Coach Galbenski rewarded players who exhibited hard work during practice, with nutra grain bars. Players weren't only rewarded during practices, though. "If we took charges during the game, Coach would take us out to McDonalds for chocolate milkshakes!" exclaimed Captain Ryan Kerby'02.

Coaches Kori Adams and Tracy Guyeski were huge influences on the girls' success this season. "Our coach is sometimes tough, but always an inspiration to us," stated Varsity Captain Emily Sweet'03. "We once spent an entire practice doing toe touches; we didn't stop until everyone could do it perfectly!" The girls' dedication and hard work was evident in their cheers and attitudes. # Bust A Move

The Lady Knights Finish Another Season On Top

The Lady Knights, led by Senior Captains Joy Campbell, Carly Cricelli, and Melissa Southern, pushed the team in a positive direction. All of the hard work paid off, by the team's taking second place at camp, and getting an invitation to Nationals in Orlando, Florida. These rewards set the positive tone for the entire season. Carly Cricelli expressed, "This season was a good season. Although we struggled along the way, it ended up being a fantastic year."

The Dance Team pumps up the crowd at the pep rally.

The team placed 6th at the Great Lakes Invitational and 11th at the Palace Competition. "The season would not have been the same without our wonderful Coach, Captains, and Seniors who taught us more and more each practice," stated Iris Costello'04.

Because of their hard work and dedication the Lady Knights had a successful season on and off the dance floor.

The Desire To Win

Long sweaty practices, singlets, and ring worm. Yep you guessed it, Knights' wrestling. The team this year was coached by the Castle brothers, Greg and Ben. "We worked the boys hard this year, but we did it for their own good," said coach Greg Castle.

"I think we did well this season, although we didn't have an amazing record. All the guys became better wrestlers through their dedication and hard work," commented Captain Brandon Kowalski '02.

"Our coaches have told us all season that if we push ourselves, work hard and have confidence, the wins will come. I have realized throughout the season that it's the absolute truth," added fellow Captain Chris McLaughlin '02.

Varsity Girls Grow Throughout The Season

It is without question that the Lady Knights Varsity Volleyball Team lead by Coach Paul Surdenik had a great season. From the beginning of the season, the girls formed a strong bond with each other, which in turn, helped improve their play on the court. The team was lead by senior captains Lyndsay Richards, Elynnor Pavlovics and Katie Jablonski.

When asked about the season, all three agreed that it had been productive. "Although I admit it hasn't been a winning season, I do think that we have grown better and closer as a team," Katie Jablonski stated. Jenny Mangold '02 also added, "I agree with that. I have enjoyed the time with all my friends on the team as well as with coach Paul."

Building A Solid Foundation

It was a bitter-sweet year for both the Freshman and Junior Varsity Girls' Volleyball Teams. Due to tough opponents like Dondero and Rochester, the teams each had disappointing records. Despite the records it was an extremely enjoyable season for the girls.

Captain of the Junior Varsity team, Christina DePassio '04 said, "It was a rough season, but we kept our heads up and we all improved, for sure." Her positive attitude was also shared by Freshman captain Lauren McCracken. "We all had lots of fun this year. I can't wait to play with the Varsity!"

The girls' coaches agreed that all of the girls throughout the season were "building strong foundations."

Combination Proves Worthwhile

The Kimball Girls Gymnastics team this year was combined with Dondero High School, forming the Royal Oak combined team. Although many had doubts about the switch, it turned out to be an extremely promising season. The team finished 2nd in the league overall, and qualified to compete at Regionals. Many unexpected friendships were made between the two schools. "The team was a lot closer compared to last year. I am really happy about the switch," feels Megan Canty. Overall the season was a great success, and from the way the team is going, they will be an even bigger threat next year.

The Blades, Blade to Victory

The Boys' Hockey teams got off to a shaky start, kept working hard, and as the season went on things improved greatly. "We lost some big games, but we won some, too," said Patrick Taylor '02. The teams made some changes in the coaching staff, and the adjustments worked well for the teams. The seniors ended up having a good year "Last year was a good season, this year was even better, and I had a great time playing with all of my friends for my last year here," stated Chad McWilliams '02. Not only did the Varsity team come together, but so did the Junior Varsity team. "It was really fun to be on a team that had such unity, and we all had such a great time. It was a good experience," expressed Jeremy Cooper '04. Both teams worked hard. "Working together not only created friendships, but helped us win the big games," Taylor stated. All and all hockey had a memorable year.

This year's Boys' Swimming and Diving Team made a big impression. The team is combined with swimmers from Kimball and Dondero. "I like having the team combined, because it gives us a chance to make more friends from another school," explained Kevin Jewett '03.

The team practiced twice a day on weekdays and on Saturdays, as well. "The 5 a.m. practices were really difficult but we saw a major improvement because of them," stated Christoph Becker '02.

"The Coach gave us a little bit of a break on Saturdays, though," added Captain Matt Pardy '03. Each Saturday the team would play an intense game of Water Polo. They renamed it "Änimal Ball" because there were no rules. "It was a nice way to end practice and it would put us in a good spirited mood at the end of the morning," concluded Brian Brennan '05.

For the Love of the Game

What more could you ask for than dedication, desire, and dreams? According to Dan Evey '02, the Varsity Baseball Team had it all, and more. "Our team played with a lot of heart, we love what we do. And we had enough talent to go farther than we did," added Evey. These boys had a great season, but not as good as they expected. But that didn't stop them from having fun!

The team captains were seniors Dan Malley '01, Jason Rushton '01, and Ryan Drews '01. The team consisted of 5 Seniors, 9 Juniors, and 2 Sophomores. The Seniors did a great job leading the team. The team was coached by Brian Gordon and Brett Hanson. Joe Leibold '02 wrapped up the year and said, "It was a huge year, with a lot of huge kids, winning some huge games, and having a huge amount of fun!"

Knuckle-Balling Knights

The 2000-2001 Boy's JV and Freshman baseball teams rocked the competition, as they both finished the season with winning records. The JV team led by Pitcher Mike Raab and Shortstop Ryan Spangler, guided the team to a great season under Coach Jeff Dinkelmann and Coach John Forti. "Thanks to both Dink and Forti, our team really came through this season," commented Ryan Spangler.

To go along with the JV's successful season, the Freshman team finished with a 12-3 record, winning their Division. The season was capped with a dominating 13-0 win over Birmingham Groves, and catcher Cam Francek '04 and third baseman Jon Blizinski '04 led the hitting attack for Kimball all season. Pitcher Chris McFadden '04 led the way for the Knights' defense. Only his second year coaching out of U of D, Coach Colin Quinn did a great job training the freshmen.

Team Succeeds with Determination and Desire

The Varsity Softball Team had a strong season but the challenges the girls faced as a team pulled them together. When it came to unity, they became close and showed their determination to the sport of softball. Many practices made this team able to have fun. They all agreed that this team was like a family "Our team seemed to grow closer as the year went on," stated Dawna Jeffs '03. The team had an advantage on others because they did not have many team members leaving. "Even though we had a rough season, I do believe we will be awesome next year. We only have three graduating seniors," Michelle Dunscombe '02 stated with a small frown on her face. She thought of the seniors she will so dearly miss. ## What A Racquet

"Tennis has got to be the most fun sport," exclaimed Bryan Cooley '02, when asked about this year's Tennis team. Although the boys did not have their best season, they all had a blast. The team unity also improved since their new coach, Paul Surdenik, joined the team. Nick Skwira '02 stated, "He's taught us so many new strategies and tricks that have helped us out a lot this year."

The captains of the Varsity team were Nick Moritz '01 and Brian Cook '02. Nick was also chosen as most valuable player. Matt Itami '01 teamed up with Nick Moritz for a fabulous doubles team. They had the teams best record of 6-5. "The highlight of the season was definitely when Matt and Nick upset Groves' leading doubles team," said Jeff Cornille '02. "It was sweet!" The JV team was also lead by strong doubles teams, while the singles struggled. The team of Zack Meloche '03 and Nick Cotta '03 lead the JV squad.

We always get excited when someone on the team does good," exclaimed Sarah Peterson '02. Mary Drinkwine '01, Katie Craft '01, and Kyle Race '01 fulfilled their duties as team captains and succeeded in uniting the whole team. They also displayed excellent leadership skills and it showed throughout the season. "Our captains have without a doubt unified this whole team. Without them, we would be lost," commented Colleen Spurgeon '02.

This team accomplished a lot during their season. Their blood, sweat and tears did not go unnoticed. However, it was hard for this team to say goodbye to their captains. ## She Shoots...She Scores!

Both the JV and Freshman Girls' Soccer Teams had successful seasons with each player contributing. The JV team went the entire season undefeated due to much dedication and hard work. Coach Ben Hamilton said, "It was going to be a challenge at first, but the team came together on the field and excelled." The team was relatively young, but didn't let that stand in their way. Julie Gleason '02, Holi

Patrick '02, and Danielle Tanner '02 had great seasons and provided the leadership that the team needed.

The Freshman Soccer team was coached by Jill Ruffles and had a productive season, as well. The team worked very well together and ended with an excellent record. Both JV and Freshman teams worked very hard to achieve their goals. They all came together on the field and came out victorious.

Race to the End!

"This is the best team I have ever coached," recalled Mr. Bowker. After seeing the records that these boys set, no one could disagree with a statement like that. They went undefeated throughout their season and won the division. The team worked extremely hard and it was no surprise that they did so well. The team was well-deserved of all they accomplished.

While striving to be the best in their district, the Boys' Track Team thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Captain Greg Sheldon '01 stated, "Track is one of the most rewarding and memorable things I've done at Kimball." He's not the only one who felt that way, either. Adam Briggs '02, a record breaker for the 300 Hurdles, added, "I have made a lot of new friends this year, and the season has been great."

The team was proud of such a fantastic season.

Run Like The Wind

The Best of Times, The Worst of Times

Girls' Track is not only for girls who want to run, but for girls who want to have fun. "Being on the Girls' Track team for four years has been a memorable experience. I've met a lot of people and have become friends with most of them, too," commented Sarah Schultz '01.

Although their season was not one of their best, all of the girls can say they had a wonderful learning experience. Their coaches, Mr. Shellenberger, Mr. Ewell, and Ms. Gross, gave them the skills and incentive to do their best. Michelle Loretan '02 stated, "Track is so much fun. I love to run. My favorite moment was at the league meet. I broke the 17 second record in the 100 meter hurdles with a time of 16.77 seconds, and won first place.

Clubs Build Character

"Character cannot be developed in ease and quiet. Only through experience of trial and suffering can the soul be strengthened, ambition inspired, and success achieved."

-Helen Keller

Through the many activities that are offered, students learn the skills that will take them into the world.

"The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy."

Students come together during clubs and activities to make friends, help people in need, and develop strong character.

"The measure of a man's real character is what he would do if he knew he would never be found out."

-Thomas B. Macaulay

The activities at Kimball strengthen the spirit of our student body.

"Never believe that a few caring people can't change the world. For, indeed, that's all who ever have." -Margaret Mead

Through a variety of clubs, Kimball offers students the opportunity to round out their education with extra-curricular activities.

The Peer Mediation Program consists of a group of twenty-three students. The goal of these individuals is to resolve conflicts while eliminating violent solutions. These dedicated individuals, led by Ms. Ann Davies, the school social worker, have been trained in problem solving techniques. They resolve problems peacefully with the students.

The program is led by seniors Jeff Cornillie, Dave Dillon, and Brian Cook, all of whom have been involved since the program began during their sophomore year. The three have since helped train the current mediators. Dave Dillon stated, "Students are now offered an effective alternative to resolving their issues." The Peer Mediation Program has greatly improved our learning environment.

Both versions of the Odd Couple were directed by seniors Catherine Dildilian and Brian Moultrup. Secretary Chris Moultrup '03 stated, "This year has been a successful one for Drama Club, and I am proud to say that we have grown to well over eighty members." Vice President Brian Moultrup added, "I am extremely proud of everyone's hard work and dedication."

Commitment is a necessity in order for Drama Club to thrive, but for most members, the club is a second family and they have no problem devoting their time. Treasurer Vanessa Dunlop '02 informed, "I have no regrets about spending so much of my Kimball time in Drama Club, and I will hold the valuable experiences close to my heart forever," and Michelle Loretan '02 agreed, "I learned so many valuable skills from being a part of this, and I recommend that everyone try it out!" Laura Knapp went on, "Drama requires a lot of hard work, but the outcome make it well worth it."

Director, producer, teacher, and mentor, Mr. Kaufman said, "This was a year full of surprises. It's going to be tough to see the seniors go, but I'm impressed with their leadership and their guidance to the underclassmen." President of Drama Club, Eric Hermes '02 concluded, "This year was a blast! I've never had so much fun in my life! The class of '02 definitely left their mark on Drama Club."

Only the brightest and the best are accepted into the Kimball Chapter of the National Honors Society. Members of NHS show traits of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service. "NHS is a positive organization that promotes the basic qualities of a well rounded high school student who excels in academics and leadership," stated Bryan Cooley'02. Sponsors Mrs. Noelle Ochoa, and Mr. Ryan Shellenberger enjoyed working with the talented group of young adults. "The leadership of the officers has been outstanding, and I am proud of their achievements," remarked Mrs. Ochoa. The NHS members offer their tutoring services to students both before and after school several days a week. NHS also participates in the March of Dimes to help premature babies.

It is important that we have an organization that recognizes and commends the academic qualities that NHS does. It is a good example of the school and community," added Ben Kienman'02.

Ever thought about helping the community? If so, maybe the Key Club is ideal for you. The organization, headed by advisor Mrs. Sheckles, had a very busy year, doing everything from the AIDS Walk to helping the elderly. The club also did bottle drives and the annual "Rake and Run," where the members ran around and raked the leaves off of as many community lawns as possible. "All the money received from the bottle drives were donated to charities. It really is a great organization," commented

Welcome to the Jungle

"Welcome to the Jungle" was the theme for the 2001-2002 Dance Company show. The 50 member club, led by advisor Valerie Potzos, continued to amaze viewers with their talent, proving that their hard work and dedication throughout the year definitely paid off. "Every year the show keeps on getting better and better. We took last year's mistakes, made some revisions, and put them to our advantage for this year's show" stated officer Carly Cricelli'02.

The members met one or two days every week, leaving no time for slacking. The choreographers put together songs and created amazing dances, and everyone's attempt at new things proved their eagerness to learn. "I am so happy with the show! Kimball took on a new sport this winter. Kimball and Dondero joined forces and made their ice skating club into a team. Ms. Doster was the advisor of this energetic team and the coaches were Jennifer Hewelt, and Stacey Shepler. "I'm really proud of the girls and the class they show on and off the ice," stated Ms. Doster.

The ice skaters worked hard at practices to perfect their moves. Then, when the competition rolled around the skaters could show off their moves. Although ice skating took a lot of hard work and dedication, the outcome was amazing. "It is breathtaking to watch the girls glide across the ice with such grace," said one of the team's coaches, Jennifer Hewelt.

The captains for this year's ice skating team were Ellen Backus, a junior at Dondero, and Kacey Dittmer, a sophomore at Kimball. "Our team grew a lot this year and we had a lot of fun! Students for Environmental Awareness is what the students of SEA stand for. "I am really glad that I got to work with Ms Lindsey this year. Together we make an awesome team. SEA has also grown immensely over the years to give the club a lot of momentum," replied Mr. Doug Robbins, advisor. Both Mr. Robbins and Ms Lindsey make SEA a fun and worthwhile program for everyone involved. After recycling, picking up, and sorting through all of the recyclable items and such, the members of SEA are rewarded. They aren't just rewarded by the knowledge they learn from the environment or by the gratitude of their accomplishments, but also by mini pizza parties and even a trip to Cedar Point. "I really like sitting around chilling before school," agreed Mike Block'02. It's not all fun and games, though. "I thought I would be good, but at the end of a group of exhibition games I ranked 20th out of 25," Block continued.

Members Mr. Decker and Mr. McMann face off in an early morning game before heading to teach their classes.

Safe and Sober

Once again, SADD members, otherwise known as Students Against Destructive Decisions, are making beneficial contributions to their classmates and community. They give constant reminders of what consequences and dangers can come from poor decisions. Nathan Albrecht'02 stated, "I like knowing that what I say and do can help those around me make better decisions and live healthier lives."

Not only do they spread the word about the importance of the decisions we make, they also look out for the good of the community. This year SADD set up a canned food and personal supplies drive to help benefit local families. "I know it seems like a small effort, but I am trying to make a difference in our community," answered Brian Cook when asked why he was a member of SADD.

Justin Skrzynski'03, SADD officer, makes a poster to advertise the canned food drive to help needy families.

Mr. Caruso plans the next meeting.

On Course for Success

Mr. Caruso helps Kathryn Carroll'02 with her stance.

The Girls' Golf Club is now in its third year of existence. The club members and advisor Mr. Caruso have been working with the school board to change the club into a varsity team. They accomplished their goal for the spring 2002 season.. The club worked diligently this year to prepare for their first year as a varsity team. As a club the girls go to the driving range weekly in the winter and spring; and independently play on the golf courses. Mr. Caruso was excited by the girls' progress. "Golf is an activity that will last a lifetime. It is a fun past time and an important skill for the work field," stated Mr. Caruso. "Going to the driving range with the girls is always fun!" chuckled Andrea Rachko'02. The club also conducted fund raisers such as bottle drives, and bake sales to help pay for the cost of the driving range and other activities. The club was proud of their progress and enjoyed their time together. "I will never forget the friendships that I made and the times that I had through this club," added Chrissy Parker'02.

Lights, Camers, Action!

Allen Gervasi'05 and David Jeffreys'02 discuss what goes where on their mini-movie set.

Whether being behind the camera or actually being an actor in a movie, The Young Director's Club provides a fun haven for its members to fulfill these wishes. At three o'clock on Wednesdays, Ms. James's sponsored, film-loving members get together to develop scripts that go into production and are acted out in front of the camera. For some members, the club is a recreation. "I wanted something to do after school and I also figured it would help out on my creativity. Plus I get to hold a camera," stated Trenton Whitfield '04. James Talia'02 also agrees "it's a great place to express creativity." For others, it's a good activity that would apply to their future careers. Lyle Muresan'04 stated, "I want to be an editor someday, so joining the club has given me a head start on my education and experience." The club spends its meetings getting together in groups and creating film projects that range in story lines from cyborg slaves that revolt to historical events such as Irish farmers during the potato famine. When each group finishes its film creation, they present it to the rest of the members of the club. The results are funny and just as good as any world premier. Almost as funny as the consequences the boys of the group might have faced, if the only girl, Jennifer Lacey'05, wasn't a member. "It's a good thing they have me here because I'm saving someone from dressing in drag for a film," pointed out Jennifer.

The club's sponsor, Ms. James, sits back and watches the club's handiwork on the T.V. monitor.

The Young Director's Club: Jennifer Lacey'05, Michael Donigan'05, David Bonner'05, Allen Gervasi'05, Andres Alvarado'05, Lyle Muresan'04, Joseph Lefief'05, Michael Delavan'05, James Talia'02, Trenton Whitfield'05, and David Jeffreys'02 in the back.

Lyle Muresan'04 is having a blast putting his movie set together for his upcoming cinema feature.

James Talia'02, Michael Donigan'05, and Michael Delavan'05 debate on how to edit their script.

Trenton Whitfield '05 watches a movie presentation from his fellow club members.

Jennifer Lacey'05, and Allen Gervasi'05 stay relaxed during their Wednesday club meeting.

Michael Delavan'05 revises a script for an upcoming movie project.

The Next Episode

"I'm young, I live in a house my father owns, in a bed my father bought. Nothing is mine, except my heart and my fears and my growing knowledge that not every road is going to lead home anymore."

As we grow, we become individuals, taking risks, facing our fears, and building our own lives.

"Be not afraid of growing slowly, be afraid only of standing still."

As we take on one of the biggest challenges of our lives, we must look forward, not afraid to move on, because the future lies in our own hands.

"No matter how long it takes, if you keep moving, one step at a time, you will reach the finish line..."

Keep your goals close to your heart by living your dreams because the future begins now.

"Enjoy yourself. These are the good old days you're going to miss in the years ahead."

As our Senior year comes to an end, we realize that these are the moments we will never forget. Memories can last a life time and we can take these experiences we've had together to help us grow through life.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: OUR FEARESS LEADERS

In all seriousness, when all their work was finished, these officers still knew how to have fun.

Whether saving the world, feeding the hungry, or ruling the school, the Senior Class Officers of 2002 knew how to do it all. They may not have actually saved the world, or fed all of the hungry, but they definitely proved they were capable of leading the Class of 2002 through its final year. President Bryan Cooley, Vice President Dan Evey, Secretary Lyndsay Richards, and Treasurer Lauren Meek led the Senior Class. Ms. Kampa advised these four dedicated students. Throughout the year, they planned a magical Senior Reception, an exciting Powder Puff game, a successful Holiday Charity Breakfast, an exquisite Prom, a magnificent Graduation, and much much more. These officers kept busy all throughout the year and still did a fantastic job creating a cherished year for the student body of the class of 2002.

"The memories that we have created are unforgettable, I've loved every moment of this year, and much love goes out to the other three officers."

-President Bryan Cooley

"I'm a Big Kid now!"

Bill Renker still enjoys doing handstands for fun in his spare time.

Silly seniors Kathryn Caruso and Lyndsay Richards goof off in the hallways, enjoying their last year.

Mike Brennan disguises himself as a trash can to avoid going to his next class.

Nick Skwira morphs into a rabid squirrel.

Even as seniors, Adam Briggs and Scott Cassady just aren't tall enough to make it up the stairs.

Kimball All-Star Dan Evey almost reaches the net when attempting to dunk. Maybe he should stick to football and baseball.

Clint Thompson and Joe Leibold still need to work off some of that baby fat...

Community Support

"Without a sense of caring, there can be no sense of community."

-Anthony J. D'Angelo

It's with this unending support that the Lancer and all Kimball activities thrive and prosper.

Kimball High School receives tremendous support from the entire Royal Oak community.

Lieutenant Governor Dick Posthumus and State Representative Shirley Johnson speak to AP History students about adult responsibilities and domestic violence.

"One should guard against preaching to young people success in the customary form as the main aim in life. The most important motive for work in school and in life is pleasure in work, pleasure in its result, and the knowledge of the value of the result to the community."

-Albert Einstein

Thank you Royal Oak businesses and community members for all you do for Kimball.

"For a community to be whole and healthy, it must be based on people's love and concern for each other."

Love-
Mom & Dad Ridgway
and Mom & Dad Caruso*

1460 days, 35,040 hours, 21,102,400 minutes, 126,144,000 seconds of BEST FRIENDS. It's come the time where the road isn't always going to lead home anymore...but the memories will follow us wherever we go. The jokes, the laughter. The drama, late nights and hookups. Boyfriends and breakups, the heartache and tears. THE CONNECTION. Friendship is as simple as breathing to us. Only by going too far can one possibly find out how far one can go...we crossed the line and brought each other back, we were there every step of the way. True friends are the ones you can't live without, true friends is what we are. LOVE ALWAYS!

Absolutely Fabulous!!

Thank you, I'm here all week

Pushing the envelope...

The jig is up!

Are your arms a little chilly today?!

It is the friends you can call up at 4am that matter.

It's raining in my Kitchen!!!!

That's 5 minutes we're never getting back!

Seniors

If all my friends were to jump off a bridge, I wouldn't jump after them I'd be at the bottom to catch them when they fall.

A friend is one who knows all about you and likes you anyway

Side by side or miles apart, dear friends are always close to the heart

Some people come into our lives and quickly go.
Others stay for awhile, leave footprints in our hearts,
and we're never the same.

Never Forget!

"I'll remember all the laughter as we go our separate ways, but there's so much we're still learning and we cannot be afraid.
There's a world outside our door and nothing's in our way, but if it's not what we're looking for, we'll meet again someday."

"It's not that I can't live without you, It's that I don't even want to try."

You will never know true happiness until you have truly loved,
And you will never understand what pain really is until you have lost it.

Friends are like stars in the sky. New ones may form and old ones may fade away.
But no matter what, they shine a light into your life that will never be forgotten.

*Over the past 4 years our friendship has grown so strong. We have been there for each other threw thick and thin, and I can not thank you enough. I love you guys so much!
Love always Jenny*

Eileen, Carey, and Lauren. "I have learned that no matter how serious life requires you to be everyone needs a friend to act goofy with."

To Shaunie & Otto

No matter where the world takes you, may you always remain friends forever.

Love Roxanne, Tony, and Jackie

Never forget the good old days of swimming and crab dip!

Laura, Sarah, Eileen, and Erin. "A real friend is the one who walks in when the whole world walks out."

John~

It has been two wonderful years and many more to come. Thank you for all the wonderful memories! You mean the world to me. I'll definitely miss you when you are gone. I will always love you no matter what.

*Love Always,

TO MY LADIES!!

Lindsey, Colleen, Lyndsay, Dana, Jenny, Amanda, Andrea, Jennifer Weeks... You are some of the most beautiful people I have ever met. You have pulled me through the good times and the bad and without you girls I couldn't have made it! I know all of you will be successful in whatever you choose to do with your lives. Please stay in touch! And remember... *Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened!*

KATIE

"A person is only complete when she has a true friend to understand her, to share all her passions and sorrows with and to stand by her throughout her life." You have made me laugh when I thought I would never smile again, and have always been there to support me in whatever I do. I couldn't have asked to have a better friend by my side. Though these four years of our life are over, I know that our friendship is not. Thank you so much for everything, and know that I will always be there for you no matter where we go or what we do!

I LOVE ALL OF YOU SO MUCH!

~ELLY~

Yeah, that's my brother! To Eric, who's crazier than I am, I'm proud of you! Love Kristen

Erin-

You can accomplish so much in your life.
You are a very talented young woman. We cannot wait to see what comes in the future.

Love-

Mom, Dad & Becky

P.S Erin, you sure look cold, but you're not! Colleen, you sure look scared, but you not! You're just cold- Oops, no you're not.

Cute then- even cuter now.
Congratulations to all of you
Who made it to the end.
Love, Fran & Nick Pavlovics

We have been friends since pre-school
And have been through everything. You used
To boss me around.. Oh yea, you still do! You're Like my sister, and I will never forget my Dino!
Love ya, Cori

Cori Frances~

We made it this far! Where would I have been without you?
You are my best friend and my sister. I can always confide in
You. From playing tag on the 'island' to gossiping about the Usual, you have always taught me something, and I thank you
For that! LOVE YOU BOO!

YEAR IN REVIEW

01-02

Much like Dec. 7, 1941 (the attack on Pearl Harbor), Sept. 11, 2001 also became "a day that will live in infamy."

At 8:48 a.m., a hijacked American Airlines commercial jetliner crashes into one of New York City's World Trade Center towers. At 9:05, a second plane crashes into the second tower.

As people try to evacuate, the impact and heat from the crash cause the first tower to tumble to the ground in enormous clouds of smoke and debris. The second tower collapses shortly thereafter, leaving nothing but ash, rubble and destruction for miles where one of our nation's greatest landmarks once stood.

▲ At 9:40 a.m., a third hijacked plane flies into the Pentagon, and within the hour, a fourth crashes near a wooded area in western Pennsylvania. More than 4,200 lives are lost in total.

▲ The hijackings are part of an intended multitude of terrorist attacks on America headed by Islamic radical and wanted terrorist leader Osama bin Laden and his al Qaeda terrorist network. Bin Laden had been making open threats against America for several years, demanding the U.S. withdraw from the Middle East.

"Today, our fellow citizens, our way of life, our very freedom came under attack..."

Thousands of lives were suddenly ended by evil, despicable acts of terror...The pictures...have filled us with... terrible sadness and a quiet, unyielding sense of anger."

In an address to the nation, President George W. Bush ▲ demands Afghanistan's ruling party (the Taliban) hand over bin Laden. The Taliban attempts to negotiate the United States' demand, saying they will not cooperate without evidence of bin Laden's involvement in the attacks. Bush states the demand is non-negotiable, and the U.S. will take retaliatory action against Afghanistan if they refuse to hand bin Laden over.

Airlines around the world suffer major setbacks, many declaring bankruptcy. Congress approves an airline assistance package that includes $15 billion in financial aid and a victim's compensation fund to limit expensive lawsuits that might bankrupt airlines like American and United.

▲ Former Pennsylvania Governor Tom Ridge is appointed by President Bush to head the newly created Office of Homeland Security Cabinet post, which involves coordinating and creating a strategic plan for homeland defense against future terrorist attacks.

"And tonight, the United States makes the following demands on the Taliban...These demands are not open to negotiation or discussion...This is the world's fight...the fight of all who believe in progress...tolerance, and freedom...We will rally the world to this cause by our efforts, our courage. We will not tire, we will not falter, and we will not fail."

President Bush announces plans to starve terrorist groups of all money, and signs an order to freeze all U.S. assets of suspected terrorists, ordering financial institutions do the same.

▲ After repeated refusals from the Taliban to turn over bin Laden, the U.S. and allied British forces begin launching air strikes on Afghan cities, military targets and terrorist camps.

▲ The U.S. continues bombing Afghan cities, while at the same time dropping food packages, called Humanitarian Daily Rations (or HDRs), from planes to help Afghan refugees at risk for starvation.

The World Health Organization warns Western governments to be on the alert for attacks using chemical and biological warfare.

▲ A 63-year-old employee at the American Media building in Florida dies from inhalation anthrax, a potential agent for use in biological warfare. Several other American Media employees also test positive for anthrax.

◀ Osama bin Laden is the leader of al Qaeda, a worldwide network of terrorists, and is America's most wanted terrorist suspect. Born in Saudi Arabia to a wealthy Yemeni family, bin Laden became an Islamic fundamentalist and turned against Saudi Arabia and the U.S. after working with the Afghan resistance against the former Soviet Union in 1979.

◀ Mullah Mohammed Omar was the supreme leader of Afghanistan's ruling Taliban. Rarely ever photographed, Omar fought beside bin Laden in Afghan resistance to Soviet occupation. He created the Taliban in the early 1990s to put an end to the chaos in Afghanistan and transformed it into what he envisioned as the purest Islamic state in the world.

▲ The discovery of letters containing anthrax in several states other than Florida (including D.C., N.J., N.Y., Ind., Mo., and Va.) raises the fear of bioterrorism. Traces of anthrax turn up in postal facilities around the country, and two Washington, D.C. postal workers die from the inhalation variety of the bacteria. Authorities are unable to pinpoint the letters' source, and are unsure whether they are connected to the al Qaeda terrorist attacks.

President Bush signs an anti-terrorism bill into law, giving police and intelligence agencies new powers against terrorism, including stronger penalties for harboring or financing terrorists, an increase in the number of crimes considered terrorist acts and tougher punishments for committing them. The bill also gives police new rights to secretly search people's homes and business records and to eavesdrop on suspect telephone or computer conversations.

The Bush Administration faces accusations from many that the array of new tactics implemented with the anti-terrorism bill, including military tribunals (trials held in secret in which the judges are military officers, a two-thirds vote is enough to convict, and there is no need for proof beyond a reasonable doubt), are the worst infringement on civil liberties in decades.

▲ About 1,000 U.S. Marines move into Afghanistan to tighten the squeeze on remaining Taliban and al Qaeda leaders by limiting their movements from Kandahar, Afghanistan's second largest city and center of trade.

The Taliban surrenders the city of Kandahar, their last major stronghold. The city falls to looters after the last Taliban fighters flee the area.

▲ An American is discovered among Taliban prisoners after a violent prison revolt that killed hundreds of the prisoners as well as an American CIA officer. John Walker Lindh, a 20-year-old non-Afghan Taliban fighter (originally from California), said he joined the Taliban six months earlier after converting to Islam and "jihadi" (fighter of holy wars). Walker is returned to the U.S. to face four criminal charges, including conspiracy to kill Americans abroad. Prosecutors consider other evidence that could carry the death penalty.

▲ Hamid Karzai is named the Prime Minister of Afghanistan's interim government. The title is passed to him by former Afghanistan president, Mullah Mohammed Omar, marking the first peaceful transfer of power in Afghanistan in more than two decades.

▲ A videotape is acquired by the Pentagon, showing Osama bin Laden boasting of his involvement in the Sept. 11 attacks, and rejoicing in the level of devastation "achieved" by the terrorists aboard the planes, some of whom did not even know what kind of mission they were on until they boarded the planes.

British citizen Richard Reid ▲ boards trans-Atlantic American Airlines Flight 63, and attempts to light explosives hidden in his shoes. He is subdued immediately by passengers and crew members, and sedated. The plane diverts to Boston, where Reid is arrested. He is later charged on nine counts, and it is discovered he received training in al Qaeda terrorist camps.

The U.S. military ▲ sends al Qaeda prisoners to a prison in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. The detainees are questioned for information pertaining to the Sept. 11 attacks, the whereabouts of bin Laden and other attacks that may have been planned.

As the war on terrorism continues, the U.S. rallies the support of the international community. Taking the intelligence gained from prisoners as well as investigations at home, America turns attention to other terrorist havens around the world, such as Abu Sayyaf, a terrorist group in the Philippines allegedly connected with the al Qaeda network. ■

Groups

International Front for Fighting Jews and Crusades

This is a large coalition of groups dedicated to killing Americans and destroying U.S. interests worldwide. It was formed by Osama bin Laden in 1998, and includes al Qaeda (also founded by bin Laden), a network of small terrorist cells operating independently around the world, dedicated to overthrowing Middle Eastern rulers and removing westerners from Muslim countries.

The International Front is partnered with the Egyptian Islamic Jihad, or "Al Jihad." This group was established in the 1970s with the aim of overthrowing the Egyptian government and setting up an Islamic state. The group's leadership is divided between those who favor violent means and those who favor more peaceful means, particularly against U.S. targets.

Northern Alliance

The Northern Alliance is an Afghanistan rebel faction that has actively opposed the Taliban for five years. Prior to the fall of the Taliban, the Northern Alliance claimed five percent of Afghanistan, while the Taliban controlled the other 95 percent.

Abu Sayyaf

Abu Sayyaf is a smaller Islamist group fighting to establish an Iranian-style Islamic state in Mindanao, an island in the southern Philippines. The group, whose name means, "Bearer of the Sword," has ties to a number of Islamic fundamentalist organizations around the world, including Osama bin Laden's al Qaeda and Ramzi Yousef, an individual convicted of organizing the 1993 bombing of the World Trade Center in New York City. Abu Sayyaf has a membership of approximately several hundred young Islamic radicals, many of whom were recruited from universities and high schools.

I.S.A.F. (Internal Security Assistance Force)

Also called the "peacekeepers," the I.S.A.F. was developed after the collapse of the Taliban to help keep peace in Afghanistan during the interim government's establishment. The peacekeepers consist of British Royal Marines as well as troops sent in by France.
