CLASSES

As the years go by, we all like to look back to the "good old days", for somehow the apparent tragedies of yesterday become the comedies of today, and the good times we have enjoyed in the past will seem even more wonderful in the future. For that reason, this Oak is designed to be a collection of souvenirs, each page a pleasant reminder of our high school days.

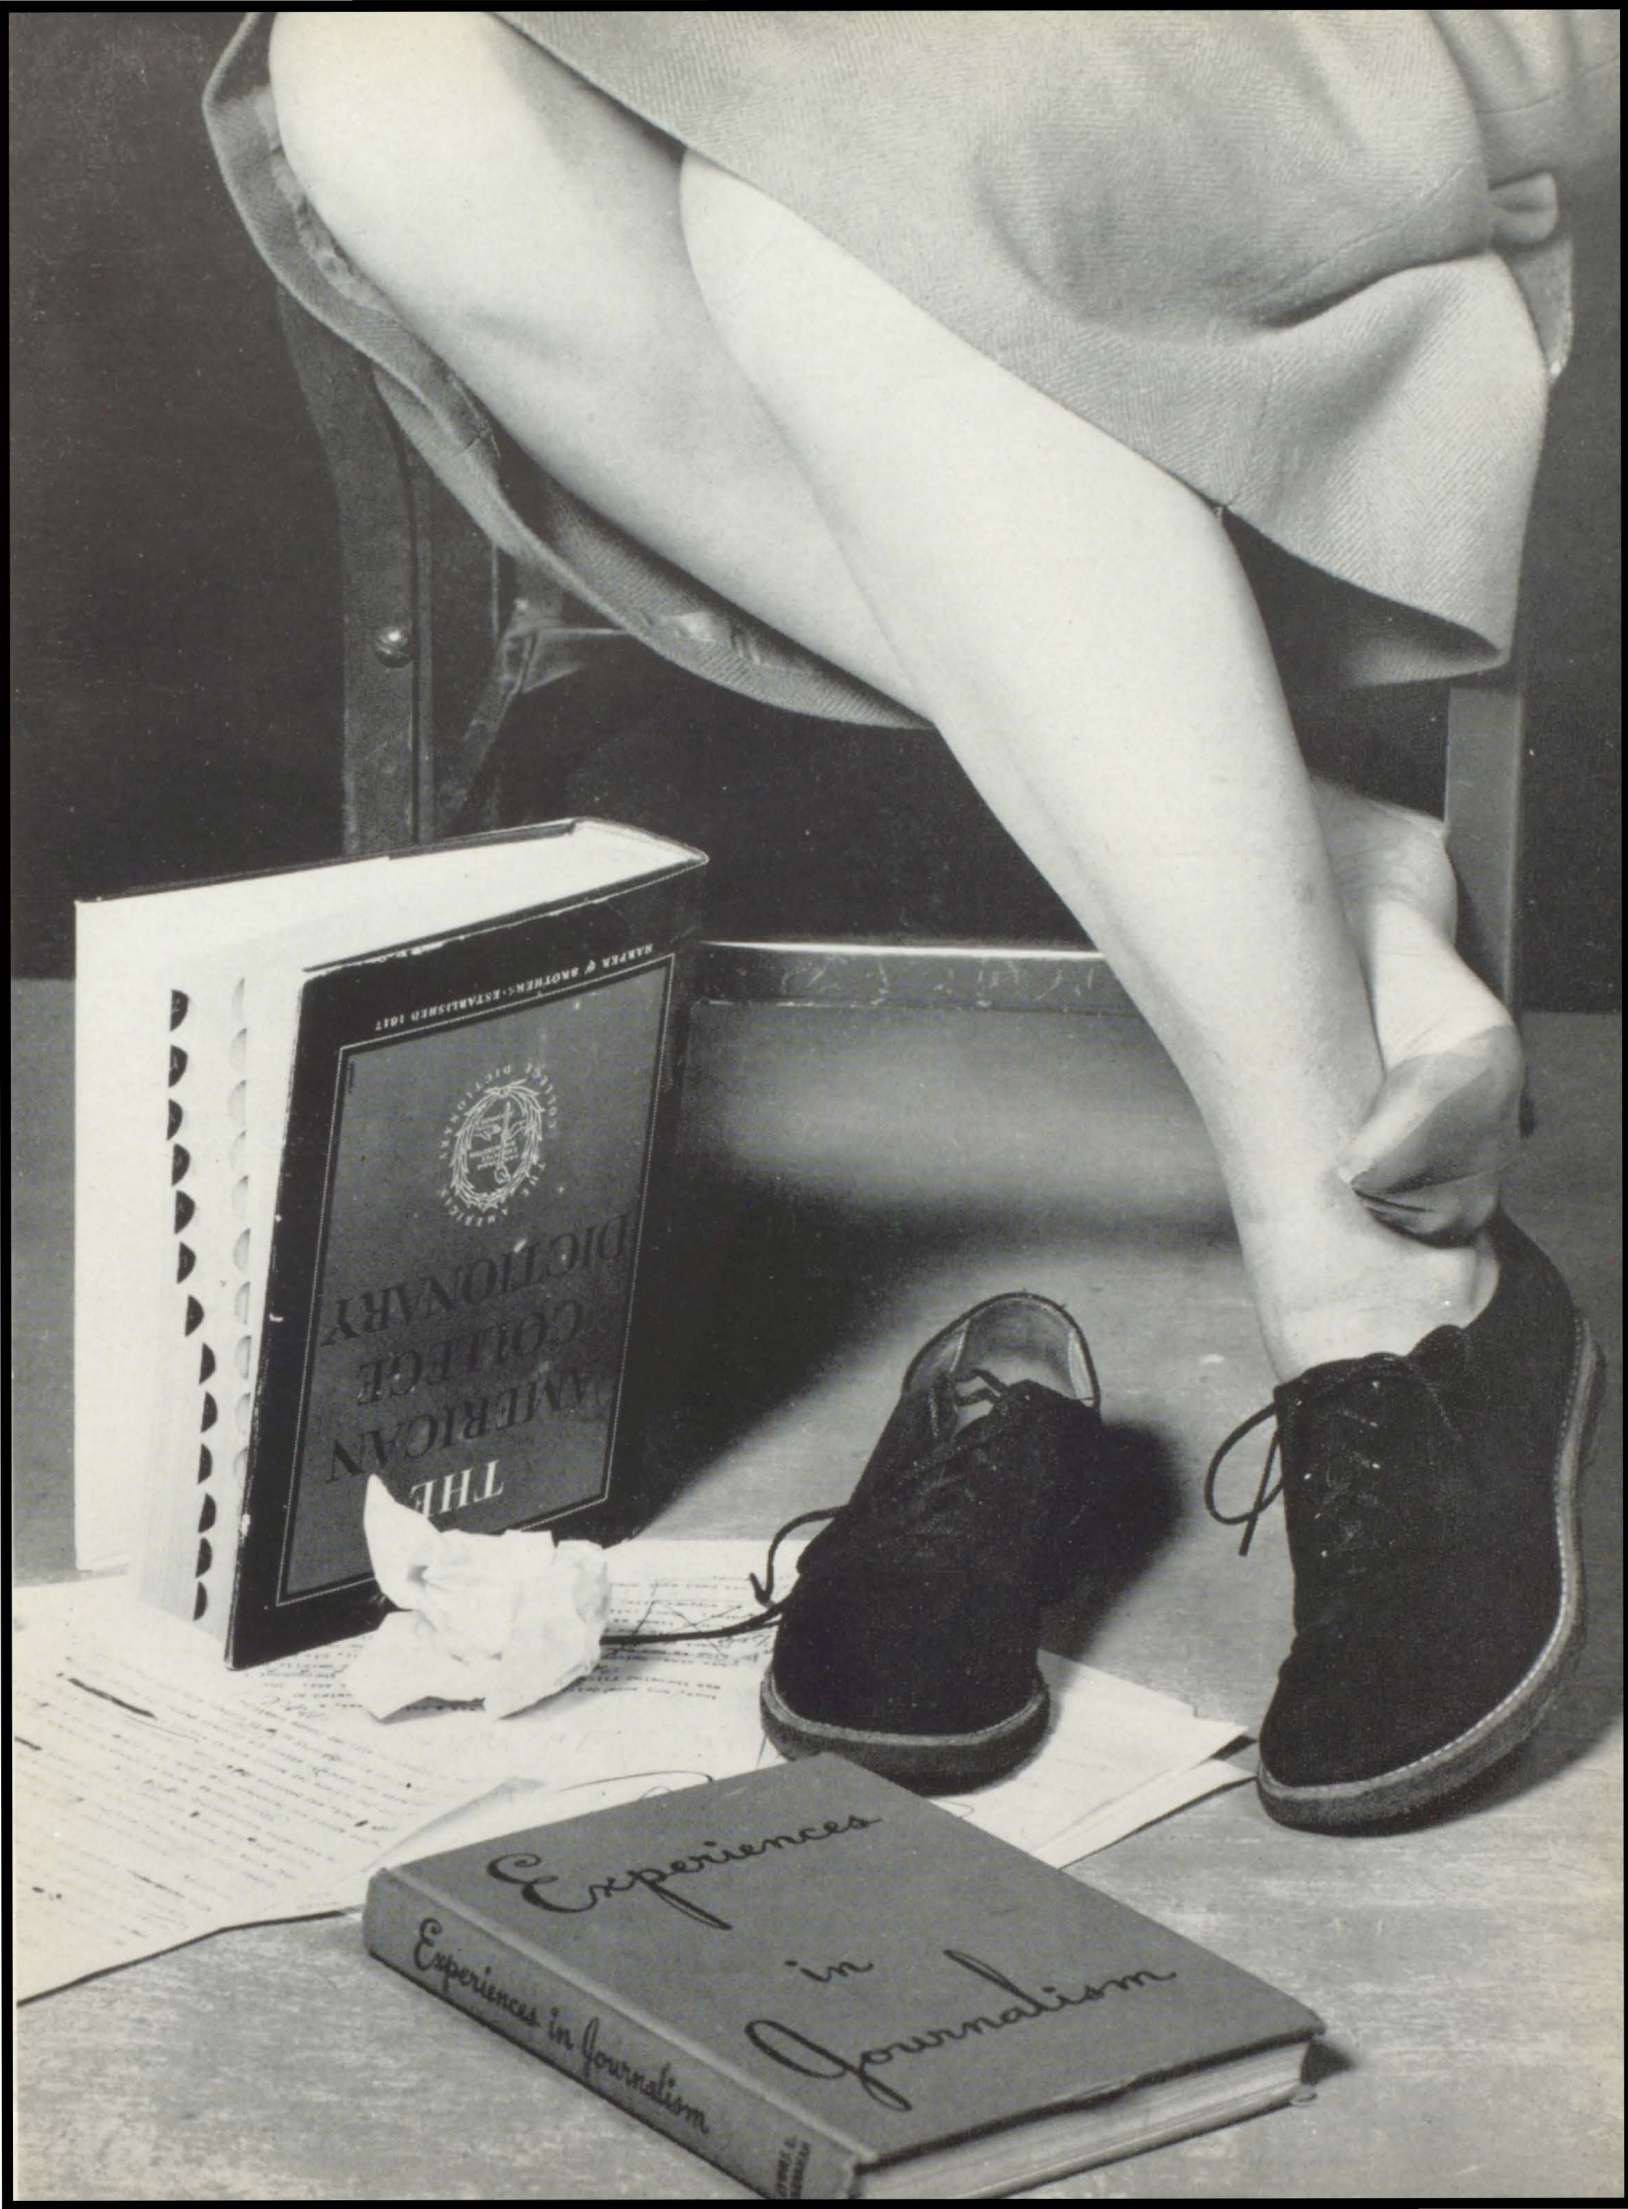

From the 8:30 bell and Mr. Weise's "Good morning, and your attention please . . ." to the longed-for 3:15 bell, we were all seated in classes. For that amount of time we were expected to sit still, be quiet, and maybe even soak up a little of the knowledge that our teachers so patiently and endlessly flung in our direction.

Whether or not we enjoyed these classes, they doubtless left some sort of an impression on us. If we live to be a hundred, there are some memories that never will fade out.

Who, for instance, could forget the thrill of splashing into an ice cold pool first hour on a wintry morning? and breathes there a biology student with soul so dead that he can't call up a picture of that "lifeless" little frog twitching and squirming as the student took his scissors and cut it open? What survivor of American history has forgotten the famous saying "Don't give up the ship" (even if he can't remember who said it)? And no student of journalism will easily forget the night he chewed five erasers and tore up two packs of paper trying to write that news-feature story.

These are only a few of the everlasting memories of our high school classes, but perhaps the pictures on the following pages will bring back many more.

9B FRESHMEN

Here we have many of the enthusiastic newcomers who love potato chips, cokes and parties. These are the kids who baby sit for their pocket money and who are never seen out of their blue jeans. Some not shown in the pictures are: Martha McGee, Hugh Connors, Carl Vogel, Christine Gullberg and Joe Keyes.

Preparing for their trip to France in Mrs. Tessem's class are Isabelle Fecteau, Karen Johnson, Carol Malmgren, Karen Arthur, Arlene Gibson, Elaine Hardy, Elaine Khoubesser and Mrs. Tessem.

2 + 3 = 4. No, try again — Joyce Cowen, Marilyn Lau, Ingrid Mathisen, Fred Prost, Pat Russell, Bob White, Tom Sawyer, Alvin Ozminski and Jerry Smith.

9A FRESHMEN

On this page are the gay, fun loving freshies, who are thrilled at the thought of being SOPHS next semester. In them lie the roots of the high school spirit that loves sports and defends its school and class in all games. Other members of this class are Nancy Roulette, Tom Sawyer, Bob Nicholson, Marilyn Cain, Pat Hare, and there are many, many more.

It ain't easy, this English, as Gail Masta, Alvin Ozminski, Richard Marsh, Alton Wells, Jean Ribitch and Jo Anne Roberts will testify.

10B SOPHOMORES

Preparing their lessons during the class period are Barbara Shrock, Katie King, Jane Kidle, Bill Hill, Helen Gudemoos, Garry Dragich and Carol McNair. Miss Skinner is helping them along.

Locating strategic points on the globe in Mr. Loukusa's history class are Mr. Loukusa, Bill Hocking, Elisa Beigler, Eugene Grey, Florie Caruso and Frances White.

10A SOPHOMORES

David Westwater, Harper Smith, Dave Rogers, Yvonne McInnis, Miss Hornac, Bob Morrison, Emily Edmunds, Jerry Dickson and Phil O'Brien are having an engaging conversation during home-room.

Those fascinated by the rat on Bob Schwank's arm in biology are Shirley Cole, Janet Schrieber, Barbara Price, Mr. Tenhave, Shirley Winters, Clifford Parent, Mead Shott, Louie Moody and Roy Van Zandt.

Miss Gohla's second hour typing class of 10A's and 11B's is industriously learning the alphabet

11B JUNIORS

Mapping out the past are Mr. Jackson, Wanda Wilson, Nancy Pitkin, Richard Finch and Dick Drake.

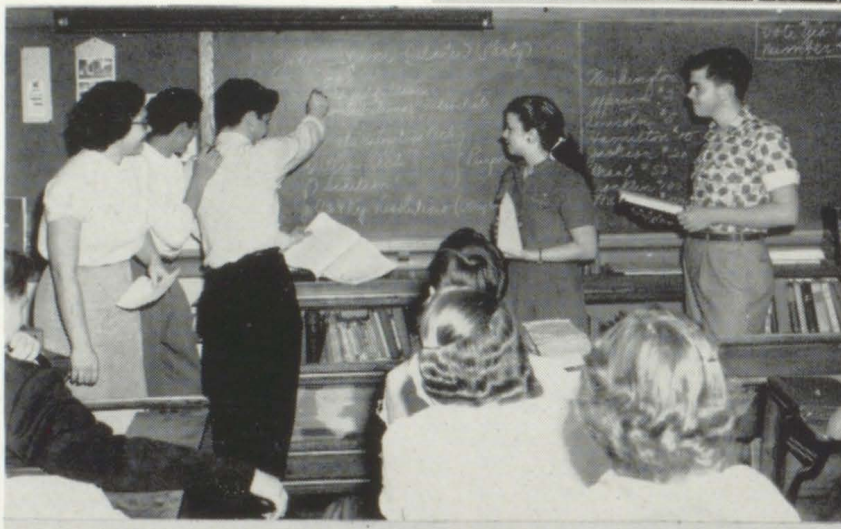

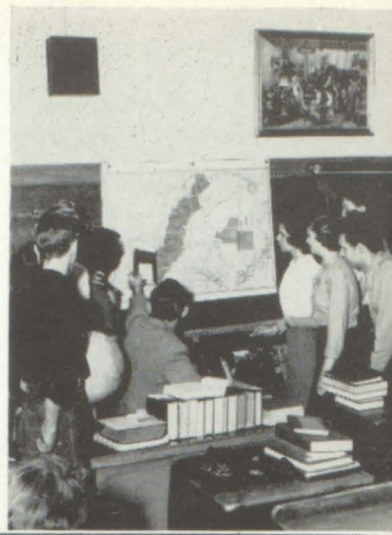

Hazel Hines, Gladys Parley, Joanne Varnum, Julie Freeman, Kay Blossom, Jo Keegan, Patsy Sauliner, Ginny Besemer, Bev Chaney, Joan Key, Marilyn Spohn, Margaret Johnson, Shirley Smith and Mrs. Smith try to harmonize as Pat Hoffman plays the piano.

Bob Carter, the speaker, holds the attention of Judy Hollebeck and John Buckmaster.

At the board are Sidney McNary, Sammy DeMascio, Jeannette Soddler and Bob Ritchie.

Figuring their way out are Terry Allen, Dick DeHart, Bob Carter, Dick Little and Carol Eseman.

Carol Malden, John Widman, Gee Gee Owen, Kay Blossom, Joan Key, Lenore Nixon, Eugene Muhn, Marilyn Gibbs and Corrine Crothers are studying hard at their French.

11A JUNIORS

Be careful of the building! Those trying to do so are Nadine Smith, Sally Doane, John Buckmaster, Charles Weed, George Stoner, Dave Roberts, Dave Elliot, Donna Peterson, Marijane Potter and Barbara Laidlaw.

Intently listening to Bob Sharp are Chuck Houston, Lisa Hunter, Ken O'Brien, Doris Wride Martha Williams and Miss Cowen.

Puzzling over world affairs are Richard Hilligus, Joann Bennett, Ed Schippel, Ila Renshaw, Mrs. Ardis Fleming, Buddy Robertson, John Ris and Delores Lannie.

"Down with Montie!" roar Bruce Schultz, Bill Basey, Donna Hilde, Bob Boal, Ron Birou, John Bishop, Bill Bradford, Margaret Holbrook and Lorraine Breitmeyer. Mr. Montie just listens.

12B SENIORS

Speaking over the mike are Barb Cline, Barb Frick, Carolyn Gray, Juanita Clarke, Dick Vanek, Carol Simmons, Ken Gmelin and Jim Layman.

Learning to run an office are Bettie Connors, Carol Miller, Sue Smith, Arlene Jacobucci, Joanne Joyce, Barbara Painter, Gloria McBride and Ada Gilham.

ACTIVITIES

"Remember when . . .", and "How about the time we . . ."

Probably that's the way our conversations will go in future years when we chance to meet another aged alumni over a bromo at Kinsel's. And probably the things we'll reminisce about most often when we discuss our high school days will be the good times we had in the hours after that 3:15 bell rang. Like the times we met the gang at the Varsity for a malted and a gab fest or when we square-danced ourselves dizzy at the senior parties.

A whole parade of all school parties will come back to us when we remember the fun we had at them — dancing, swimming, playing ping pong, watching a movie in the auditorium, or merely sipping a coke. Perhaps one of our most vivid memories will be that of the Hallowe'en party with its variety of gay, funny and weird costumes which often successfully disguised even our best friends.

And we'll recall the predicaments of "Mr. and Mrs. Smith" (were they married or weren't they?) and how an undecided river changed not only its course but the course of their lives. We laughed at their problems then, but we're glad the Smiths managed to settle their difficulties before the final curtain rang down on our senior play.

Then someone will bring up the Thanksgiving Day dance and how we slaved all the day before (mostly to escape a couple of tests) decorating the gym, halls and cafeteria. And even if we had to make up our class work, it was worth it and the bruised thumbs, pricked fingers and strained muscles we incurred, for those colorful decorations along with the soft music and friendly atmosphere added up to make that Thanksgiving night a really enchanting "November Nocturne".

CLUBS

In any collection of high school memories, some space would have to be set aside for clubs because, no matter what clubs we joined, all of us have some common memories connected with these school organizations.

Probably the most vivid of these memories is that of our first club initiation. There's nothing like being painted up with lipstick, smeared with flour and water, and forced to scrub the school halls with a toothbrush to make a person feel that he really belongs.

Then, too, there were the business meetings, which most of us avoided as much as possible, but which every so often we were forced to attend. Even these were sometimes fun and could have been much more so, if it weren't for such people as the Parliamentary Procedure Experts. One such person attended every club meeting to see that things went precisely according to the book. If the building were burning down, this character wouldn't let a soul use the fire escape until a motion had been made, seconded and carried to adjourn the meeting.

But despite the minor trials and tribulations which we encountered in our clubs, we had many more good times. And we shall never forget such traditional club activities such as the Girls' Lit Dance, the RO club's famous initiations and the Latin club's Roman Banquet. Indeed, the clubs were a vital part of our high school life.

We know the future holds many new experiences for us and we're confident they'll be pleasant, interesting ones; but though they're just as good, somehow they'll never be quite the same.

MAJORETTES

BAND

On the football field, in the gym, and at the band concerts the heart of the crowd sways to the pulsing rhythm of the band. This active music group has entered into more activities this year than ever before. It is directed by Mr. Al Garen.

ORCHESTRA

Royal Oak is also proud of its fine orchestra, which performed at the senior play this semester.

SPORTS

"Raise high your voices and shout a rousing cheer, a rousing cheer" for all the boys who fought so hard to make this past semester the thrill-packed, breath-taking sports season it was.

Not all our teams won championships this year, and many of the boys would have liked to chalk up a few more victories on the season's final score board. Nevertheless, every athlete set an example of determination and school spirit which his classmates will not soon forget, and we are in debt to all of them for giving us some of the most exciting moments of our high school years.

How could anyone forget the thousand and one thrills of the football season with the splendor of its marching bands, the heart-rending disappointment of that almost completed forward pass, and most of all, the exaltation of a victory hard won? We'll remember this semester's football games not so much for the numbers in the won and lost columns but for the fight and will to win which characterized our team.

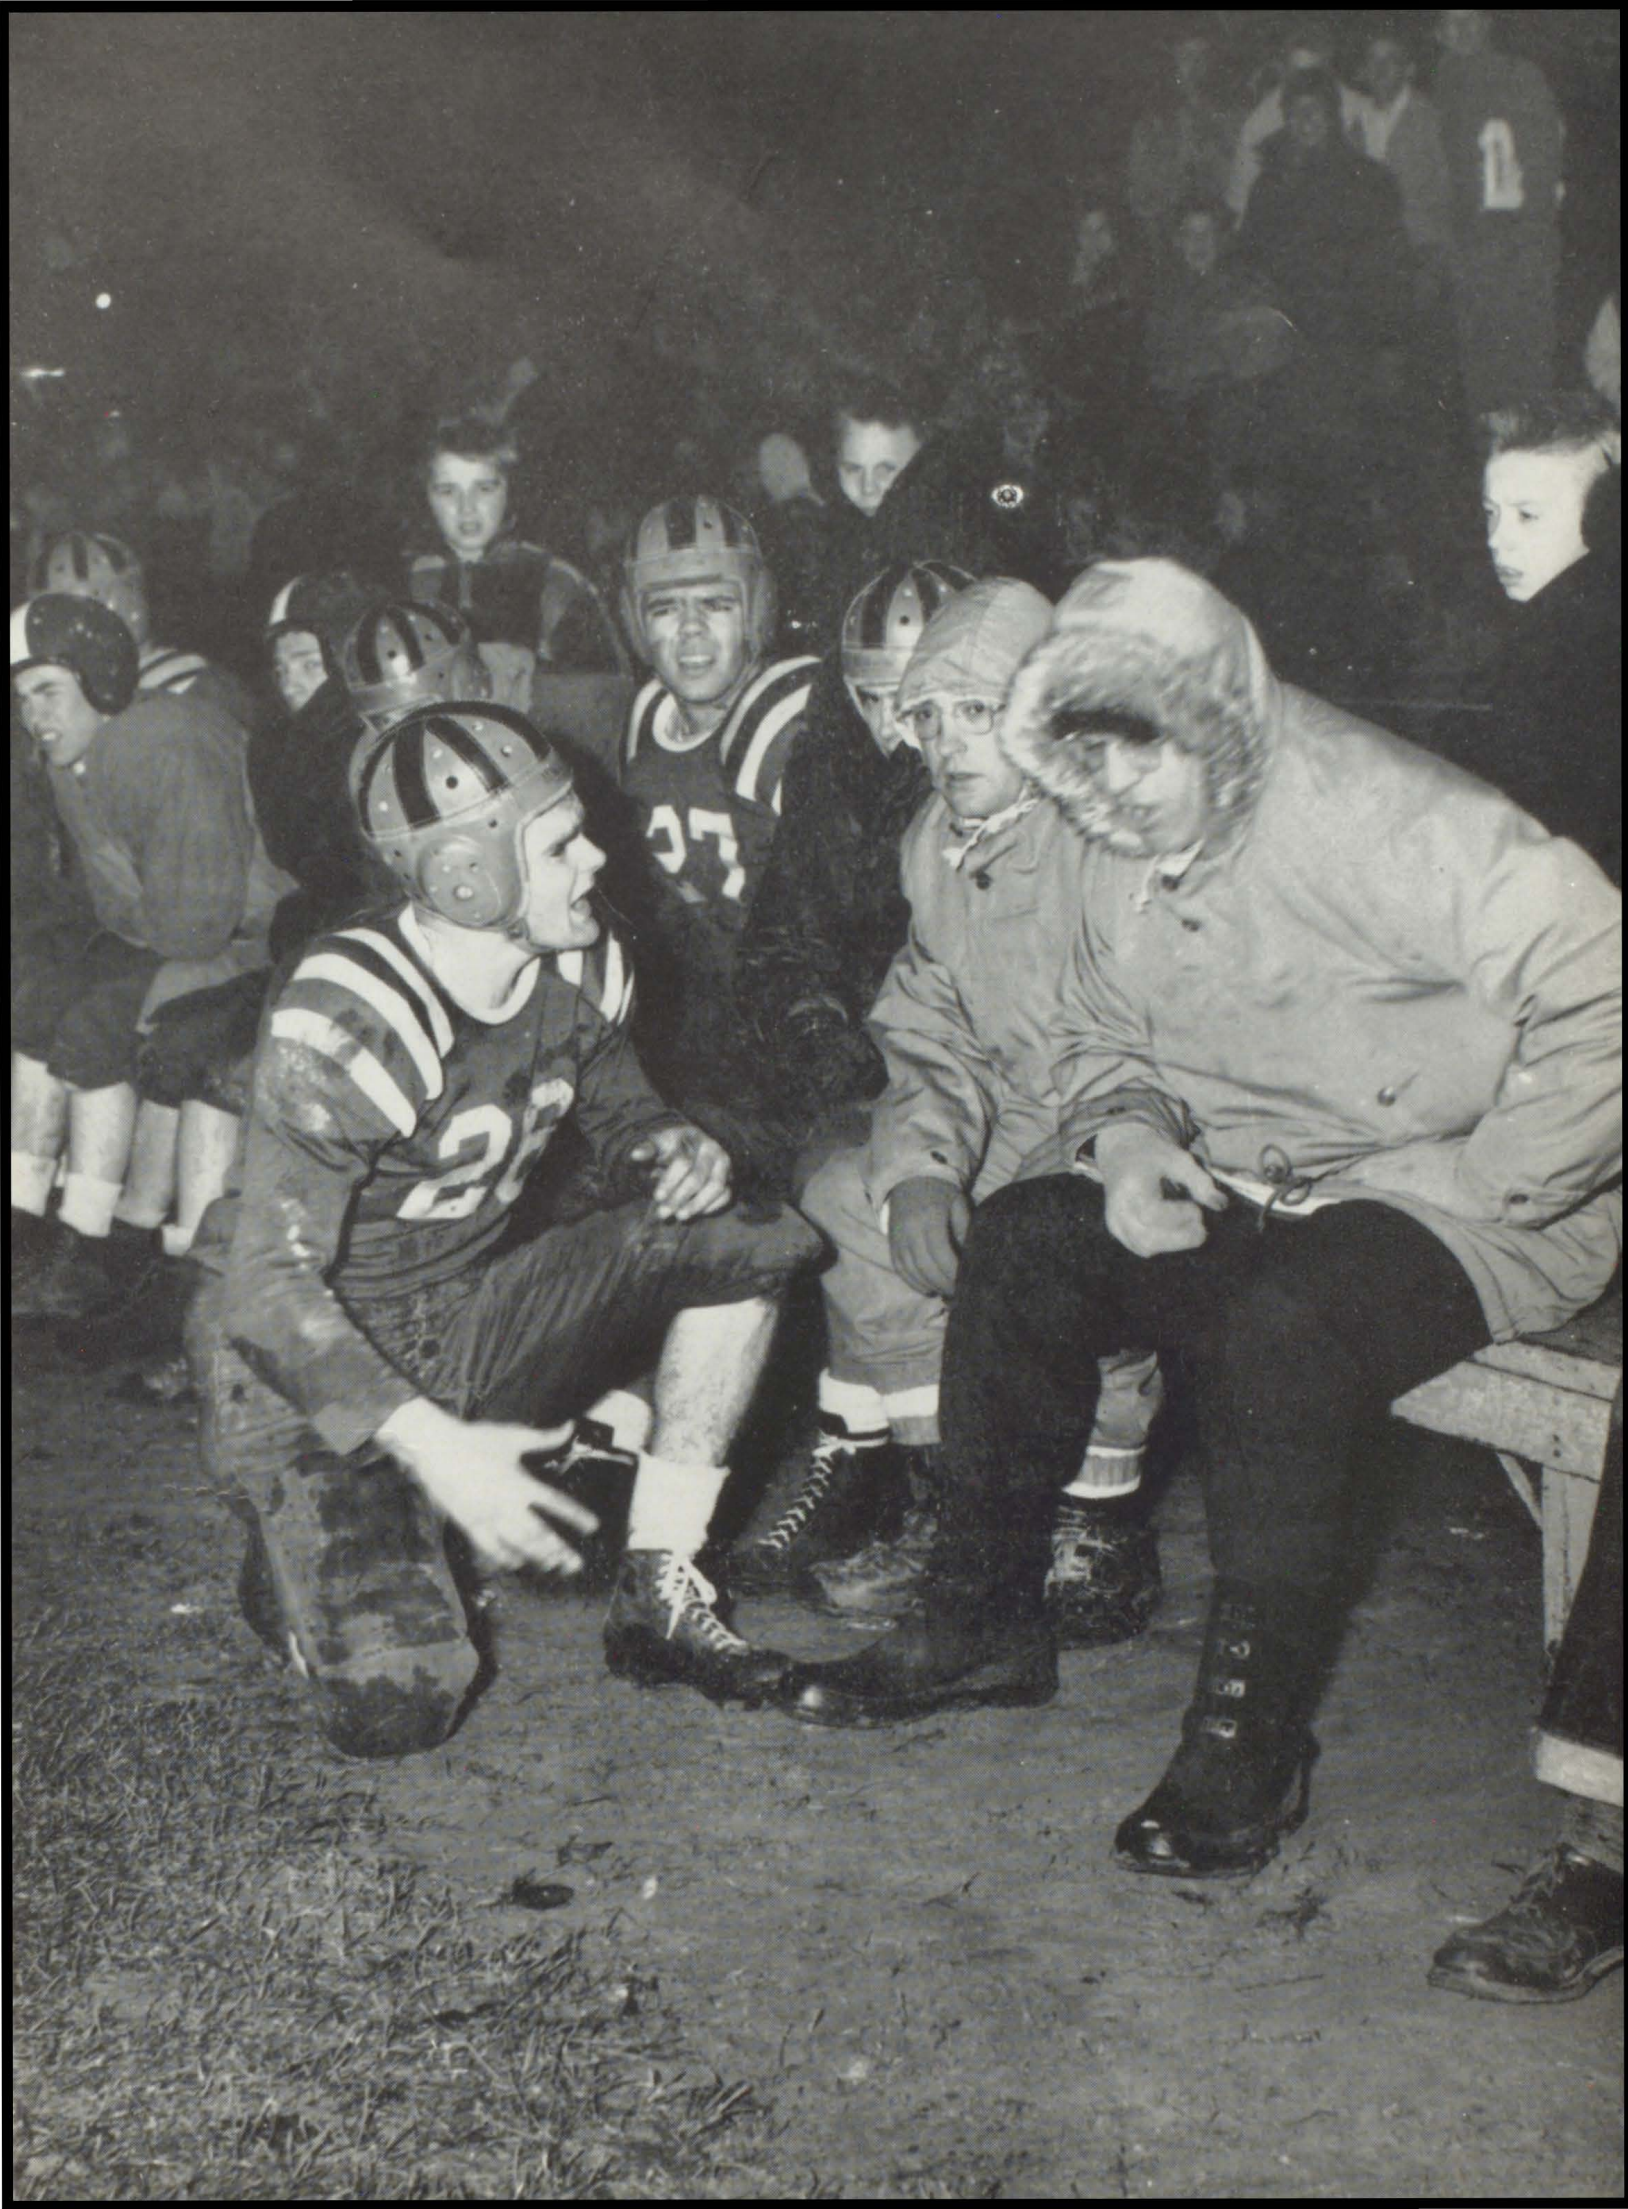

When it comes to track, there can't be anybody so absent-minded as to let escape his memory the headlines our cross-country squad made while driving its way to a dynamic, undefeated season!

And recall for a moment the excitement which swept the crowd when our basketballers came out on top in their first two games. "Thrilling" is an understatement in describing that battle with Ferndale, when in the last minutes of play, our Acorns made the basket that won the contest!

As for the swimming team, it too started off with a bang, defeating one of Detroit's finest swim-squads and continuing to splash its way to triumph after triumph.

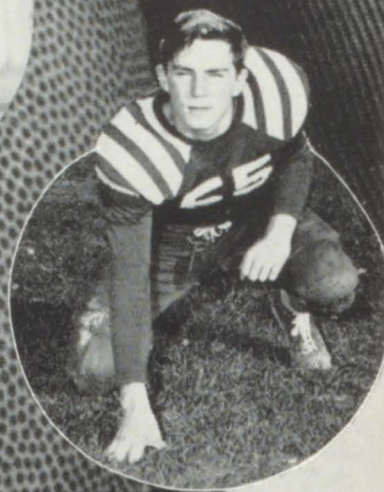

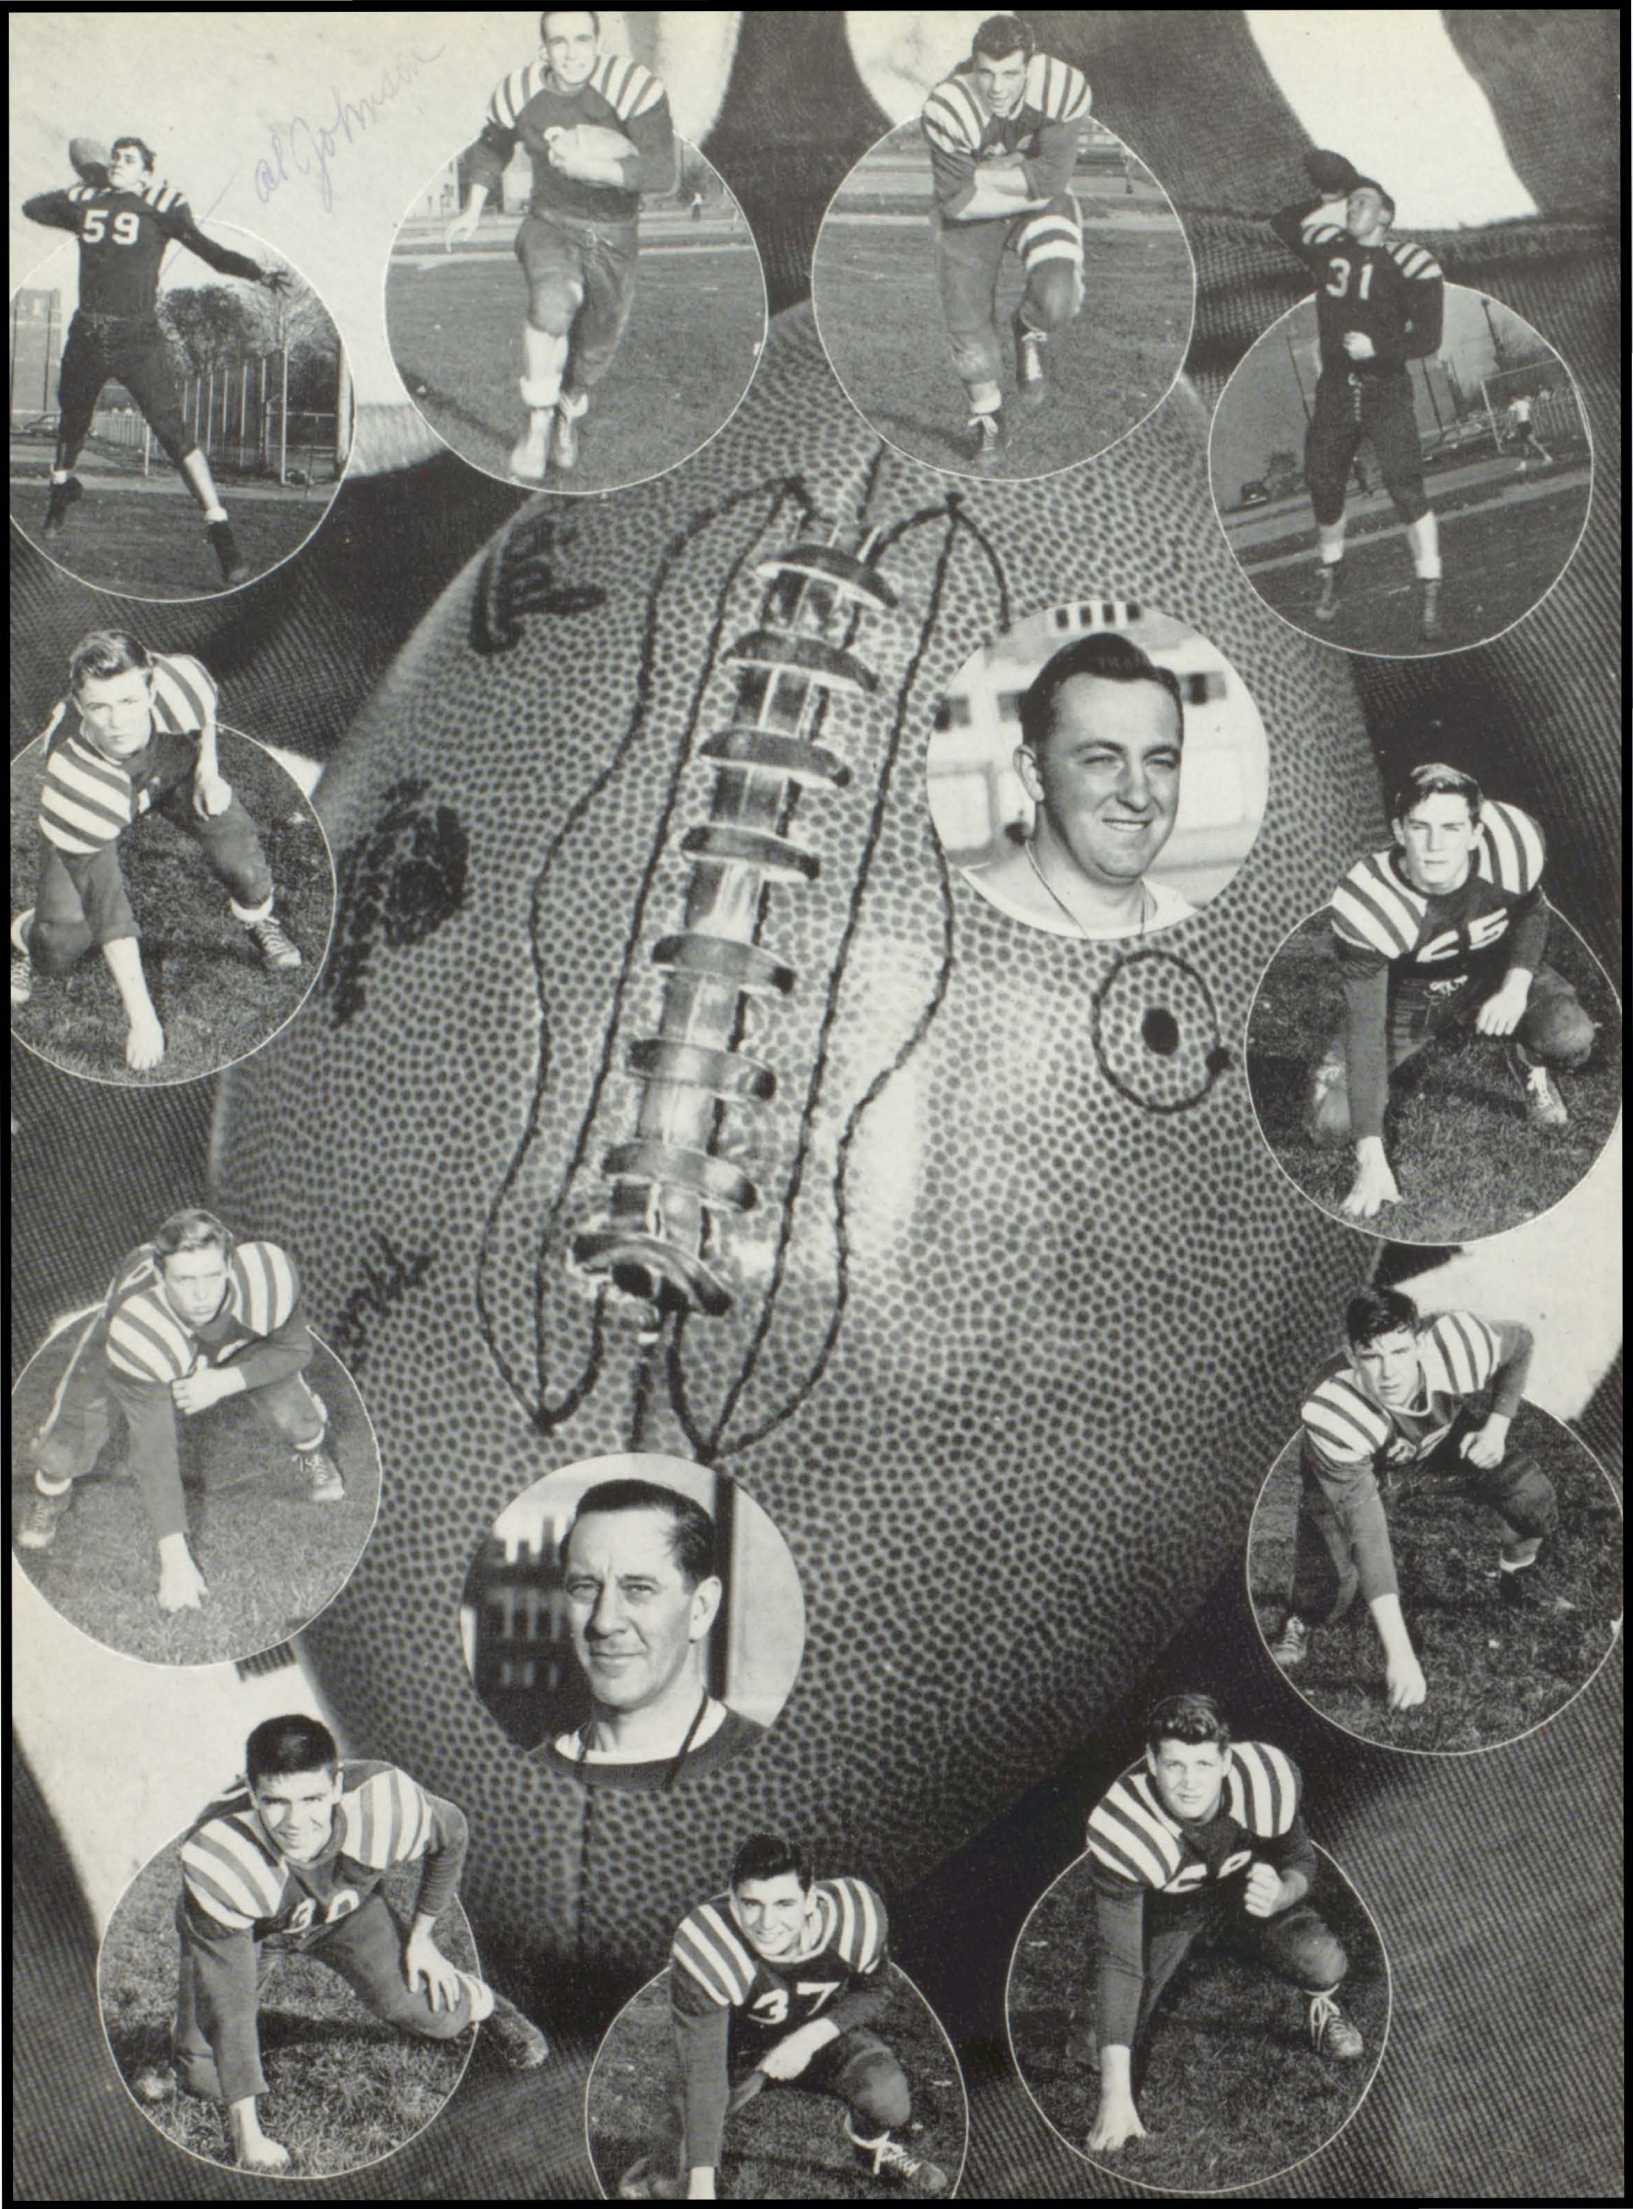

Yes, when, in those years of reminiscing which lie ahead, we look back on our days at Royal Oak High School, we'll always find memories of the sports and the school spirit which accompanied them "among our souvenirs."

Third Row—Delano Hillstrom, Bob Rivest, Jim Zickel, Bob Carter, Art Uhlmann, Morg Davis and Milton Turrell, manager.

BASKETBALL

This year's basketball squad has had, so far, a rather successful season as compared with the teams of the past years. The squad, with eleven returning lettermen, has only one senior, Dale Baumler, graduating at mid-term. The team opened the season with victories over Cooley and the Acorn's arch rival, Ferndale, but then lost a heart-breaker to Ann Arbor and their first BCL contest to Grosse Pointe.

First Row—Al Johnson, Jim Fredrick, Ernest "Butch" Stock, Dick Staunton, Lanny Johnson, Bill King, Ken Frazier, Royal Olsen, Stan Newton.

SWIMMING

Royal Oak's swimming team is defending Border Cities League champion, and they hope to maintain the position in the 1950-51 season.

Seniors are Dick Staunton, Bill King, Ron Barr, Dick Vanek and Lanny Johnson.

CROSS COUNTRY

The undefeated Acorn harriers, with an 8-0 record, were third in the State Meet.

Paced by co-captains Fred Locke and Dale Baumler, the team won decisive victories over Redford Union, 26½-34½; Flint Central, 15-48; Hazel Park, 20-43; Dearborn, 20-41; Monroe, 15-46; Wyandotte, 20-41; Hamtramck, 20-41; and Cranbrook, 22-37.
