We Are...

To say that we are just a school would be an understatement. We are much more than that. We, as a school, are friends. We are comfort. We are that home away from home. We are acceptance. At times of need, we come together and always lend a shoulder to cry on. We are everything we want to be. We are hope. We are inspiration. We are united. We have proven ourselves to be as strong as we can. We are what we create through our memories, both good and bad. To say that this is just a high school would be more than an understatement, for Dondero makes us who we are.

"Standing tall as the seasons change. Branches that touch the lives of so many: solid. We are strong as oak."

-Gabrielle Poshadlo

“We are what we want to be, as a school, as classes, as individuals, and as a future society. We are people who pride ourselves in our differences and care for each other because we go through the similar things together.”

We Are...

High school is more than an academic institution. We are not just students who go in and out each day, but we, as people, make Dondero what it is. We build relationships both inside and outside of school. We make memories here that we will cherish for the rest of our days. We go to dances. We play team sports. We spend time with friends. We eat lunch together. We make memories, and in the process, we are having the time of our lives.

FUN IN THE SUN

What do bathing suits, the beach, the bright sun, sleeping in late, and no homework remind everyone of? Summer vacation of course!

It seems like summer comes and goes within a blink of an eye. As the last weeks of summer come to a close, we have to start thinking of school starting, another year filled with alarm clocks buzzing at 6 a.m., homework coming out of your ears, and some kind of practice or meeting to attend. Even though summer vacation never lasts long enough, Dondero students know how to make every day worthwhile.

From going on vacation with their family or friends, or even relaxing in the sun, everyone here at Dondero seems to spend their summer days different from one another. It doesn't matter what you do during summer vacation, as long as you are having fun.

When polled, 40% of Dondero students said their favorite thing to do during the summer is sleep. Twenty percent enjoyed hanging out, 15% liked to hit the beach, 10% favored swimming, 10% liked to party with their friends, and a mere 5% preferred travel. After a long ten months of school, it is apparent that students want to do nothing more than catch up on much needed sleep!

Students at Dondero may have fun in the sun, but they still find time for rest and relaxation to prepare themselves for the coming year.

WE'VE GOT SPIRIT...HOW 'BOUT YOU?

Seniors Corey Vanderhoff, Joseph Koehler, and Bryan Beebe had no idea that on October 5 they would be showing spirit in such the way they did. After they were called down to the gym floor during the Field Day assembly, their mothers waited to surprise their sons with a smooch. Perhaps this was not a first kiss for these three young men, but it was a first for Dondero's Field Day assembly.

"It was a lot of hard work, especially since it was the very first one, but it all turned out to be pretty good," said senior Amanda Herrick, chair of Field Day committee. To get everyone into the spirit, Senate concocted several events for each class to compete against one another. There was the Pantyhose Run that involved two males and one female pulling on a pair of "Big Mama" pantyhose over their clothes and running across the gym floor. Another game was the Watermelon Pass where several members from each class had to pass a greased-up watermelon over their heads and under their legs. Each class cheered on the participants of each game as they sported their class t-shirts. Needless to say, there was a clear presence of unity.

As for Spirit Week itself, Senate picked two new additions to add to the old favorite dress-up days. The new days included Surfer Day and Wacky Tacky Day. As for the old Class Color Day, there were t-shirts available for students to buy, another Dondero first. The shirts were a huge success, and they seemed to bring each class together because they now all had something in common. After all was said and done, the student body felt closer, and homecoming week was just the beginning of a phenomenal year to come.

DON'T RAIN ON MY PARADE

Early October is a very exciting time of the year here at Dondero: the time when new friends are made, the float parties are bumping and there is a certain electricity around the school. All of this could only indicate one thing... Homecoming week.

What Dondero Homecoming would be complete without an annual parade? The parade took place at 4:30 p.m., starting at St. Mary's church and proceeding from 6th Street to Washington and back to the school. The parade consisted of the class floats, the marching band, fall sports teams, the court, cheerleaders, senate, and various other groups that chose to participate. The rain this year did not keep anyone down. The parade was phenomenal, and the crowds were just as spirited as ever. This parade was one that will be hard to forget.

A BIG WIN FOR THE TEAM AND THE SCHOOL

It was 7 p.m. on October 5, 2001. The wind was whipping, and the rain was coming down hard. This was the day that the Dondero varsity football team exhausted themselves to bring the student body the first home win since 1997.

The school spirit was evident all homecoming week and only grew at the game. The football players were smiling, and the freshmen were fitting in quite well. With the support of one of the best pep assemblies in recent years, the varsity football team also brought something different to the school year: a Homecoming victory.

The Homecoming game itself was an important turn around for the football team. Not only was it the first Homecoming win in four years, but the first home win the existing student body has ever seen. It also was the first day in seven years that the varsity football team had a winning record in league play.

"It felt great scoring three times during my last homecoming game," added senior captain Joe Guzman, who along with junior Eric Banker, accounted for the 27 points which helped the Oaks overcome the Lamphere Rams in the Homecoming victory.

The first half of the game stood at a gridlocked score of 7-6 and from the looks of it, was shaping up to be an exciting game. First year coach Jim Fitzpatrick obviously fired up the team at halftime, because they came out and went on a twenty point scoring spree. In the end, the Oaks walked off the field with a win and the crowd of Dondero past, present and future saw its first home win in many years.

"It's really exciting to finally win a homecoming game."

- Joesph Koehler '02

Congratulations to the players, and thank you for bringing back some pride.

A NIGHT AT THE OSCARS

Lights, camera, action! Saturday October 6, 2001: what a night to remember. Students walked into the smoke-filled commons to dance the night away. "The dance had an amazing environment which everyone enjoyed. I don't think that I could have asked for much more for my senior year," said senior David Benvenuto. Most everybody would agree that the decorations this year were phenomenal. Senate spent countless hours planning and decorating, which was greatly appreciated by all students. To go along with the "A Night at the Oscars" theme, gold stars were placed all over the walls of the commons and on each star was the name of the student who purchased it. "It took a lot of time and work to complete all of it, but in the end it was worth the effort," comments Senate chair of decorations, junior Andrea Torvinen. This year, for a change, the seniors who were on the Homecoming court were posted high on their own marquis, where they were visible to all.

However enjoyable though, the night finally came to an end, and students left to be with their friends. For most of the student body, it was a night that will be remembered forever.

TAILGATE AT THE END OF THE RAINBOW

What time was it? Tailgate time! You could smell the school spirit in the air. September 21 was a cold and rainy day, but that didn't stop staff and family from gathering at Dondero's 2001 Tailgate. Everyone arrived bundled up with umbrellas and smiles on their faces. When the rain started to come down hard, from behind the bleachers to the New Commons, not a moment of fun was lost.

Every booth was different and creative. From sports to clubs to classes, each booth had a new and exciting way to attract students. Such clubs and Model United Nations, Senate, and Spanish club held exciting games to attract many students. However, none compared to the biggest highlight of Tailgate...the senior booth! It raffled off tickets that were to be rewarded with a chance to pie Dr. LeCureux, Mr. Lynch, Mr. Pontziou or Mr. Streeter in the face.

When Tailgate all came to an end, the evening was brightened up with the help of a beautiful rainbow in the sky. Tailgate turned out to be not so bad after all.

COMING To AMERICA

Every new year brings new faces to the student body at Dondero, and in a unique transfer of cultures, the senior class has acquired some exceptional individuals. These four new students are Sophia Kozayeva and Konstantin Sushkov, both from Russia, Maria Figueroa from Argentina, and Barbara Billmann from Germany. These students put a little twist on to the school year.

It must be feel a little awkward waking up at 6:15 a.m. and having to get ready for school and adjusting to a new life-style. These adjustments to a new way of life can be extremely hard. These four students were lucky enough to be able to come to such a friendly and welcoming place here at Dondero.

Along with coming into a new country comes the idea of culture shock. The United States' culture is much different from any other countries, as these students will testify.

Above right: In fifth hour Sophia is improving her typing skills with the help of Mrs. Renkert.

Right: Maria, also in the same class as Sophia, is taking advantage of Microsoft Excel and other computer applications.

A MERICA THROUGH THE EYES OF OTHER NATION'S YOUTH

"Only the little things like ordering food," commented Konstantin about what has troubled him so far. "The fact you can choose your own classes," surprised Maria.

Maria also commented that she had heard nothing but good things about Royal Oak's school system before coming to the United States. However, in their respective nations, all of the foreign exchange students have block scheduling, which is much like the college scheduling we have here in the United States, rather than most high schools. "It makes things easier and more flexible," said Maria on block scheduling. Barbara added that in Germany "students lack in school spirit and sports teams." This makes for things to be more disciplined in classrooms overseas. The other thing that surprised Barbara is the fun and energetic classroom environment that is present in the United States and Dondero itself.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Family, a group of persons, consisting of parents and their children: that is Webster's definition at least. But this year family has meant a little more.

Since the September 11, 2001 attacks, siblings have put aside their petty differences and have been thankful for their loved ones in this time of national tragedy. A large percentage of the school's population consists of family members (mainly siblings). Though all sibling rivalry is definitely not at rest, things don't seem to be as heated as in past years. Families such as the Villerots and the Dresdens have upward of three family members attending Dondero. Though things are not always peaceful, "we get along most of the time," sophomore Nicholas Dresden said.

Family- sometimes you hate them, sometimes you love them, but they will always be there in a bad situation.

ALWAYS THERE FOR EACH OTHER...

It's hard to go about life without getting to know other people. Making friends is an important part of being human. President Woodrow Wilson once said that friendship is the only cement that will ever hold the world together. Friendship happens in that special moment when someone reaches out to another, and they trust and believe in one another to make a special difference that nobody else can make. Friends always seem to be around whenever you need them. A friend is someone we can turn to if our spirits need a lift. They fill our lives with joy and make the world we live in a better, happier place.

STILL THE SAME ALWAYS AS WE ALWAYS WERE...

From fast cars, Frosty Palace and poodle skirts to parties, National Coney Island and twin sets, things haven't changed much in the past 50 years.

Looking back at the classical movie Grease, there are many similarities and differences that have arisen. In Grease, there are mostly girls and boys running around holding hands and groups of kids working hard on their unique cars, getting ready for a big drag race. Nowadays, there are couples kissing in the halls and friends getting together for a party. Although it may seem that we have changed drastically, traditional occasions still have the same characteristics. There may not be milkshakes and roller-skates, but kids still know how to have fun. Grease is still the word.

ACORNS OFF

Jack Huffman is one of the many new freshmen faces here at Dondero. He is involved in swimming and the new Footbag Club. His favorite part of the day is lunch, when he gets to be with all of his friends. His most memorable moment so far was 2001 Homecoming. Jack hopes to one day go to college to become an engineer.

Amanda Presson is yet another one of the bright new freshman faces at Dondero. She participates in the Marching Band and also plays volleyball. Homecoming 2001 was her most memorable moment this year, where she had the chance to dance the night away with her friends. After graduating from high school, she plans to attend college and get a job involving children. Amanda looks forward to her senior spring break when she will be able to go on a vacation with all of her friends.

Sophomore Christopher Vandereyk is a very active member of the brand new Footbag Club. His favorite thing about Dondero are the very helpful teachers and the friendly atmosphere throughout the entire school. Christopher hopes to attend college after graduating from high school, but he is unsure about what he would like to study. Christopher is looking forward to senior skip day, when skipping school will actually be allowed.

Sophomore Erin Berard is constantly taking photographs for Dondero's Photo Club. She has been a member for the past two years and she enjoys Photo Club very much. When Erin walks into Dondero, she has the feeling that everybody here is like a big family; everybody knows each other. Her sophomore year Homecoming was a night that she will never forget. She hopes to attend college and get a job in the psychology field. Erin looks forward to being a senior, when she will be looked up to by the underclassmen.

THE OAK TREE

Shannon Earle is a junior who is involved in the French Club and the Girls Forestry Club. Her favorite thing about Dondero is, by far, the friendly teachers. Shannon will never forget when she first heard the news of September 11 while sitting in her second hour class. With only one year of high school left, Shannon hopes to raise her G.P.A. to help her continue onto college and study photography.

Junior Nicholas Stoll likes walking into Dondero's friendly atmosphere everyday to be greeted by our wonderful teachers. His most memorable moment of his high school career so far was spring break during his sophomore year. Nicholas can't wait until he graduates so he can to go to college to become a landscape architect.

Senior Anne Petrimoulx is a proud member of the Dondero Marching Band, for which she plays the clarinet. She is also in the German Club and participates in varsity Track and Cross Country. Her most unforgettable moment was when she took part in the league winning Cross-Country team her sophomore year. Anne has plans to go to college in the fall of 2002, but she is undecided about her career plans.

Every morning senior Joseph Christopher looks forward to coming to school and being with all of his friends. The one moment he will never forget of high school is when Randy Gignac mooned the crowd at the 2001 Tailgate pep assembly. After high school, Joseph plans to represent the United States in the Marines.

GIRLS JUST WANT TO HAVE FUN

Ready, set, hike! This year's Powder Puff brought on another devastating loss to the class of 2002. However, the senior girls worked very hard under the coaching staff of Joe Koehler, Ricky Calverley, Andy Buck, John Donnelly, Justin Browder, and Greg Iljkoski. "The girls played good, but we were out-coached," said senior coach Richard Calverley, commenting on the junior's coaching staff of Jeff Wilusz, Greg Breitingner, Jeff Myre, Scott Polonowski, Josh Spielbusch, and Josh Tabor. "We had a lot of talented girls and they all tried hard and played very well. I was proud," said junior coach Joshua Spielbusch. All of the coaches and players did a great job and they all went out there to have fun.

A VICTORY FOR THE JUNIORS

Things were looking up for the seniors when Erin Morris and Andrea Champagne scored the first two touchdowns of the game to give the seniors a 14-0 lead. Soon after, Jessica Olinski thought that she had secured a win for the seniors when she ran for a fifty yard touchdown, only to have the play disqualified.

With halftime approaching, it was time for the junior and senior boy cheerleaders to strut their stuff. It began with Vincent Nadar and James Sidick challenging Ryan Gates and Justin Gardner to a break-dancing competition. The boys were disappointed about the "skirt incident" and even more so when their music failed to work. "I was very upset when we were told we couldn't wear our skirts, but it ended up being okay because it was cold anyway," commented junior Vincent Nader. They continued without their music and skirts until they got booed off the field by the crowd. The senior cheerleaders then took the field, giving the crowd an all-time favorite cheer, "Peel the Banana." The seniors were lead by thew Klaver, Christopher Luketich, and ended with Mat-with a cape cheerleaders to- "It's takes a real cheerleader," said Klaver.

"The girls played hard; they should be proud."
-Jeffrey Wilusz '03

Gregory Boyer, Mat-Nicholas Maurice, Villerot, William Zachary Hickman. It thew Klaver jumping through the other wards the crowd. man to be a good senior Matthew

When the second-half resumed, the juniors responded quickly in the last three and a half minutes when Jennifer Breadon scored two touchdowns to tie up the game. It remained that way into overtime, until Stephanie Miller caught a pass to secure a 20-14 win for the juniors. "We all went out and had a lot fun," commented junior Stephanie Miller, "but the best part was when I scored the winning touchdown for the juniors."

Thoughts on Powder Puff

"When the girls started to tackle, I gained a new respect for football players."
-Jayna Estopellan '02

"Some players were really getting into the game, but I still had fun."
-Alexis DeCruydt '03

"I thought it was flag football, not tackle! Seniors still rule."
-Erica Scheid '02

"The game got physical; the seniors couldn't handle it."

LIFE ON THE RUNWAY

Sporting a certain style, holding a unique personality, and being able to see a surprising amount of school spirit-walking through the halls of Dondero always proves to be quite a site.

The males of Dondero are all unique, but there have clearly been two sides to the story: prep and casual. Many guys preferred the clean-cut style of being preppy this year at Dondero, whereas some stuck with the tried and true baggy pants and shaggy hair.

On the other hand, particularly popular trends this year for the females of Dondero included turtleneck sweaters, flare jeans and wrap sweaters.

A new big trend this year was a rise in school spirit. With the year starting out strongly with varsity football, it was easy to see the intense excitement of the crowd at pep assemblies and sports games. The Student Senate sold numerous t-shirts to students to wear in support of their classes.

Blue and white has always been a favorite at Dondero, but with a new color included with their uniform, the varsity football team started a trend which is surely here to stay: the color red. Together with the football team, the varsity boys soccer and girls softball teams incorporated the new accent color into their apparel.

Music has always had a large influence on the young culture of Dondero. Favorite radio stations differed amongst the diverse student body, but sophomore Jeffrey Vanbuskirk stands by 88.7 FM, exclaiming "89X rocks!" Alternative music may be great in his mind, but many students prefer the beats of rap, rock 'n roll, or classic rock.

Bell bottoms, peace and love, greasers: each era has its own trends to remember, for the good or the bad. But Dondero has always held its diverse culture of students dear and always will.

Right: Juniors Diane Alton and Elizabeth McCoy enjoy wearing comfortable knit sweaters. "The fuzzy sweaters look cute and come in all colors!" Diane says.

Above: Sophomore Gregory Miesch sports his faded jeans and Abercrombie & Fitch shirt. Every year, the jeans change color from the acid wash 80's look to the antique rinse of the new millennium.

Left: Senior Amber Gossett and junior Jennifer Breadon are seen comparing wrap-sweaters. Whether walking down the streets of Downtown Royal Oak or the halls of Dondero, it was clear that 2001-2002 was definitely the year of wrap-sweaters.

Below: Junior Aqua O'Bryan is proud of her trendy hairstyle. "Only a few students in the school have this unique hairstyle," Aqua says. "Dreadlocks are sweet, and I love them."

The biggest trend of the year was...

"I loved wearing my fake glasses around school because nobody else had them."

DONDERO AFTER DARK

When people think of high school, they think of all the good times at the football games, basketball games and dances. Still, the most important nights of a high school student's life are the weekends, those special times when freedom is expanded and you try to have a little fun. However, one of the biggest challenges of having a good time is finding something to do.

Dondero students can normally be found at football and basketball games on Friday nights.

Afterward, running into a few classmates at National Coney Island or Delmar wouldn't be a surprise. Most Saturdays are spent at the mall, downtown Royal Oak, or for most people, at work. At night, the Star Theater on Fourteen Mile and John R is a pretty popular sight to find a few friendly faces from Dondero and other schools from around Oakland county. Also, many teenagers find a good time at teen clubs such as "After Dark" and "Club Laboom." Weekend cruises around town, bowling alleys and road trips to Trow Bridge are fun, cheap thrills that many take advantage of when seeking a little fun. Friday and Saturday nights are mostly the highlight each weekend. A certain level of excitement is added into a students weekend when the curfew is extended and it's just their friends.

Hanging out with friends, making memories and creating bonds are what will last past our high school years and carry strong through this journey of life.

ATTACKS STRIKE DEEP IN THE HEART

On Tuesday, September 11, 2001 at 9:10 a.m., the bell rang and second hour began. 9:45 a.m. brought classes to an abrupt stop as all students glued their eyes to the television screens. "I was in my World History class, and we were watching CNN. We actually saw the second plane crash into the building," said junior Josephine Mix.

In only a 45 minute time span, two planes crashed into the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center in New York City, and one plane crashed into the Pentagon in Washington D.C., causing the death of over 4,000 innocent Americans. "At first, I thought it was an accident. After I found out it was an attack, I was in shock because I didn't know when they would stop," said sophomore Kathryn Huston.

These events affected everybody at Dondero, whether it was directly or not. "The attacks made me stop taking others for granted. Now, before I leave people I care for, I tell them I love them," comments junior Kelly Orr.

After the attacks, patriotism became a trend across the entire country. American citizens proudly hung their flags to show support for the United States. "I realized how much of a good nation we have and how we are able to come together in desperate times of need," said sophomore Kellie Weston.

Tuesday, September 11 is a day we will never forget.

Below: Thousands of citizens came to Broadway Avenue in New York City to pay their respect to the victims of the treacherous terrorist attack. Picture taken and provided by Jerry Feldman.

Q: What was your first reaction to the attacks?

"At first, I didn't think much of it, but when I saw the second plane hit, it was like my whole body stopped."
-Meghan Covell '04

"My mind drew a blank, and I was put into shock."
-Megan Baker '05

"I was a little shocked, but as the day went on I gradually became more nervous and scared of what might happen next."
-Mary David '03

"I couldn't believe what happened. I was scared for all the people who had to live through it."
-Dione Fernandez '03

We Are...

Every new year brings new faces. To look at these new faces and judge them is easy. The hard part is taking the time out to get to know what's behind their faces. Every face has a story waiting to be told. The more we learn about these people and what's behind their faces, the more we become friends. We are more than just faces in a crowd. We are people; we are friends..

Seniors

Q: What is the best part about being a senior?

"Few people pick on you and you have virtually free reign over your classes."

-Christopher Villerot '02

"Finally knowing that all 12 years have been worth it because we are almost out of here."

-Amy Edwards '02

"We are the oldest of the grades and we are the coolest. We rule the school."

-Bradley Ather '02

"Having underclassmen look up to you."

-Megan Kimmerle '02

Girl Power

With immense concentration, senior Treasurer Rebecca Kipp makes sure the seating arrangements at Prom 2001 are just right. As juniors, the officers began their hard for their school.

Through it all, they remain buddies. Rebecca Kipp and Rachel Nievelt express their friendship in the senior class room. Friendship is part of what keeps the officer team together.

Where the magic happens. The officers pause for a moment in their ever-eventful second period planning hour. This is the location where all the elaborate plans are drawn up.

Mrs. Nancy Marek
Adviser

Homecoming, floats, graduation: all huge parts of any high school senior's last year of innocence.

These are things a person remembers forever, but who makes them happen? The senior class officers, with the help of their adviser, Mrs. Nancy Marek, take on this task simply because they "wanted to represent the senior class," says Erin Morris, co-Vice President.

It takes special qualities to tackle this sort of responsibility. "I am easy to talk to, devoted, and I work hard for what I want," says Kristin Van Putten, co-Vice President. Having characteristics like willingness to communicate with staff and students and having good grades all contribute to the strong feeling of leadership.

Outside of the classroom, school spirit apparently still runs strong in these seniors. They have demonstrated their devotion by donating their time to such events as car washes and endless after school hours. However, underneath the super heroine exterior in each of these officers lies a fun loving teenager much like her classmates, a person who loves to just "chill with friends" (Van Putten), and "listen to the radio" (Mary Casey, President). All that stands out is their undying school spirit and drive to work for the things they want.

Q: Do you deserve recognition for being a senior class officer?

"We do a lot for the class. The class has been supportive whether I deserve it or not."

Mary Casey,
President

"No. I'm just a member of the student body trying to help."

Kristin Van Putten,
co-Vice President

"Yes and no. I like the support and recognition we get because we work hard."

Erin Morris,
co-Vice President

"I'm not surprised by any recognition, but I wouldn't demand it if it weren't there."

Rachel Nievelt,
Secretary

"Yes, because we plan most of the activities and fundraise most of the money."

Rebecca Kipp,
Treasurer

Dressed to impress, the officers make their stunning debut at the 2001 Prom.

An example of all those after school commitments, co-Vice President Erin Morris cooks hot dogs at a football game.

What, Where, and Whom in the future?

For about 170 students, the school days at Dondero High School will be done in nine months. For many, the thought of graduating makes them overjoyed, while at the same time several students never want to leave. Although they might have had one too many boring classes, bad grades, or even a bad school day here and there, these seniors realize high school is a great time. Unfortunately, it's soon over, and what happens then? For some students there are difficult decisions ahead, and for others it's easy to decide.

Do seniors want to go to college or a university? Do they want to stay in Michigan or move out-of-state? Do they still want to live with their parents or move into their own apartment? Do they have plans to get married and have children, or would they prefer to live as a single person concentrating on their career? Did Dondero help them shape their future? What did Dondero teach them?

So many questions exist...and here you can find some answers.

By: Barbara Billmann

Kathryn Hanks:

Katie hopes that she can go to the University of Michigan after graduating high school. She plans on majoring in psychology, and after that she would like to attend a law school. She is still undecided as to her whereabouts, but she knows she has to live somewhere sunny. At this moment, she sees herself married without children after college.

Dondero gave Katie the opportunity to find out what she wanted to do for her future. Because of Dondero's counselors, she got a feeling of which direction she wanted to head. She knows that if she had not attended Dondero, she would not be where she is today. After high school, she attended summer institutes which helped her make up her mind on becoming a lawyer.

Ilana sees herself living the big life in the future. With the money she earns from the manicuring business she plans to open, she is going to buy a huge house. In it she plans to have a happy family life with a husband and children.

She mentioned that Dondero helped her to be the person she is today. Dondero has taught her to organize and plan to make sure everything gets done. Dondero helped her make up her mind at the start of her freshman year.

She thanks Dondero

Ilana Harper

and the Oakland Technical Center for helping her formulate her goals. Without all the teachers and friends she met here at Dondero, she would not have had this success.

Jennifer Czerwinski:

Dondero showed Jennifer that if she puts her mind to it, she can really do anything. Dondero played a great role in her four years here with her being involved in after-school activities, playing a role in clubs, etc. Jennifer has been thoroughly involved with cheerleading for four years. Being a captain three out of her four years has taught her great leadership skills and lessons in leading vs. following. She can say that she has feelings both bitter and sweet regarding leaving Dondero soon. There are a lot of things that Jennifer will miss: the classes, Friday nights, cheering for football and basketball games, dances, float parties and everything else. She will be going to college next, then she will start a family when she is ready. Dondero will always be in her mind, and there will always be a place for it in her heart.

Rebecca Costigan:

Dondero helped Rebecca learn a lot and also prepared her for college. She is planning to go to Central Michigan University and wants to live there in an apartment with her two friends who currently attend. She mentioned that Dondero also prepared her for her future, and she can see herself married and having two children. She would like to work as a neonatal nurse. Beside the preparation for college and her future, Dondero helped her with her communication skills and many other skills needed to succeed in future.

Alexis Nemeth:

Dondero was just one of the necessary tools or steps Alexis had to take to get to her future. After graduating here, she sees herself living in California where she hopes to go to UCLA or to the University of California Irvine. She does not know if she wants to be married or a single person; she says she has not really thought that far ahead. She tries to plan a little bit, but she has to take life as it comes at her, and she hopes that it will all turn out okay. She also hopes to be able to find someone who she can share her life with, but she thinks that she can be happy either way.

Caitlin Christopher:

Caitlin can see herself possibly married with children, but before the children come she wants to make sure that she has earned her degree from college. She plans on becoming a physical therapist. As for her living situation, she would like to live in an apartment for a few years after college with a friend. She knows that Dondero has prepared her for college as well as it could and has pushed her to where she needs to be.

Harry Hill:

Harry's plans for the future are to go to college and after that make a lot of money at a big job. He would like to buy a fancy car and live with his wife (but without children) in a huge and sprawling house. Dondero helped him to understand the world around him and made him see what he had in store for him.

"The only things we regret are the things we didn't do when we had the chance." - Tara Loyselle

"Far away there in the sunshine are my highest aspirations. I may not reach them, but I can look up and see their beauty, believe in them and try to follow where they lead." - Andrea Lentz

"It was all it was made out to be, and an autistic pony... in a crockpot!" - Jenni Berger

"AAAHOOOUU" - Drew Budry

"Someday we'll look back on this moment and plow into a parked car." - Mary Casey

"We can't all be heroes, because someone has to stand on the curb & clap as they go by." - Andrea Champagne

"You were probably expecting something insightful... sorry, I got nothing." - Ben Zito

"Yo!" - Greg Iljoski

"Whatever makes you happy, just do it!" - Sarah Vermiglio

"The only fear you have is the fear you put in yourself." - Becky Dear

"Do what you want, not what others want you to do." - Terry Freeman

"Every minute of anger or sadness is a minute of happiness wasted." - Erin Morris

"The heart has its reasons, which reason does not know." - Greg Boyer

"Never underestimate the power of stupid people in large groups." - Rachel Bonar

"No guy is worth your tears; the one that is won't make you cry." - Amanda Docter

"Life is full of surprises. Good luck to everyone in the future." - Jessica Lago

"Always use an Indian voice to make people laugh." - Saliq Ariss

"That which is has been and shall be." - Chris Villerot

"If you stay in school, you'll have a life, most of the time." - Andy Bartley

"Got jerky?" - Jessica Frazier

"If I were reincarnated, I would want to return as a cow in India." - Jayna Estopellan

"WOULD YOU NOT LIKE TO BE SITTING ON TOP OF THE WORLD WITH YOUR LEGS HANGING FREE? WOULD YOU NOT LIKE TO BE OK, OK, OK?" - KRISTIN VAN PUTTEN

"You come into Dondero with a few close friends, and you leave with a whole family." - Missy Garland

"Up, up, up and down, down and in the end it's only round and round...and round." - Colin Samul

"Don't be like me!" - Jason Shornak

"The greatest thing you'll ever learn is just to love and to be loved in return." - Heather Snyder

"As one door closes, another opens, but you want what's behind the closed door so badly that you don't see the open door, and you don't shoot for the stars." - Mandy Weipert

"If love is not a game, then why are there so many players?" - Jackie Pagett

"FINALLY DONE!" - CRAIG HORNUNG

Express Yourself

ABOVE: The concentration is so thick, a knife could cut through it. Sarah Kendall, along with her viola, works on a difficult passage in orchestra.

Left: "It's such a rush! You become so confident in yourself," says Alexis Nemeth of her love for modeling. Here, she is doing a publicity fashion show in hopes of pursuing her passion.

Above: Run Forest, run! Josh Huebner finishes yet another race for the cross country team. Victory; yet another benefit of possessing a passion.

Within the walls of any given high school, people can be found wasting time. Wasting time worrying about grades, wasting time stressing over relationships, wasting time not living the most precious days of their lives. So then there is only one question. What is high school? To these seniors, high school is a place to express themselves, hang out with friends and discover who they really are. High school is where time stands still. These are four years when the whole world can be beneath your feet. The only way to avoid wasting time is to simply do what you love most and make it your passion. So, on graduation day, when time once again begins to move as is the way of the real world, there is a piece of heaven, of passion, that always carries.

The greatest thing about this is that uniformity is impossible; the heart's desire of a high school populous is more diverse than the color spectrum. "Even on your worst day, a makeup artist can make you look beautiful," said Alexis Nemeth, whose passion is modeling. "You can't help but love it." Self-confidence is a huge part of life for many people, as is music to others. When passionate CD collector David Benvenuto gets a CD, he said "whether it's from the store or in the mail, I get really excited and then tear into the hard-to-open plastic with unstoppable desperation." One purpose of a certain niche is to escape from what we call reality, but there are other roles that hobbies such as these can play.

"The sets are such an important part of the play. Reading blueprints and building the sets completely from nothing gives me a real feeling of self-accomplishment." A medium through which to feel important, is what purpose Chelsea Adams' passion serves. Living life to the fullest is often easily achieved through spending time with friends. Students like Jennifer Quinn have already discovered this: "We love spending time together, and that's why camping is so much fun." As these students have found, to have a passion is to have a secret that no one else can share. To have a passion is to live.

Outstanding

Megan Sulinski ... President ... Wow! Leadership, consistency, risk-taker, dynamic, caring, listener, are but a few words that describe Megan. I've known her better than the usual student/teacher relationship. With Senate, we've traveled to North Carolina for the NASC conference, all over the state of Michigan for MASC conferences and to many OAA gatherings; we've cried, laughed, sang, and had many conversations about the future, life, people, problems and the list continues. As a student, she has made her education her number one priority; as a learner, she has proven herself intelligent, focused and determined. She is truly a remarkable young lady. Megan, you will be missed! - Mr. Streeter

Chelsea Adams is a thinker, motivator, impassioned learner. Unrelenting drive, sardonic wit, and impeccable character, she grapples with Conrad and Joyce, Burroughs and Robbe-Grillet. Chelsea fights for answers and longs for more than any single text or teacher will ever offer. She provokes others to think and to feel, and by example she is a model for compassion and tolerance. - Mr. Chisnell

Ed Platt has not only distinguished himself scholastically in science, but has also demonstrated that he can apply the "textbook" science into real life applications. - Mr. Fairfield

Seniors

Andrea Kendziorski has proved to be an outstanding senior in all aspects of Dondero Social Studies. Andrea has taken the most demanding courses offered in the department and consistently maintained high standards and exemplary grades. Andrea embraces academic challenges, earning her place as a class and academic leader.
- Mrs Vick

James Sidick excels in drawing, so it is no surprise that he is the Outstanding Senior representing the Art Department. Jimmy enjoys sharing his ideas through cartoons and illustrations. He is especially talented at creating super heroes which display the physique, character and moves necessary to "save the world!" Best wishes, Jimmy! We'll be watching for your next edition. - Ms. Shrode

Anne Petrimoulx's involvement in band, orchestra, marching band, and pit orchestra programs is just one small example of how she is dedicated to our music program. She shows a great passion and interest in what music is really all about, taking in the whole musical experience, rather than just playing notes on a page. - Mr. Foreman

Marianne Tassone is a highly motivated, focused, and hard-working leader in the orchestra program at DHS. Her attitude is always positive and her "bad" days are combated with a smile aiding in every rehearsal she is involved with. In a nutshell, she is the orchestra's "musical right hand person." - Mr. Milicevic

Kevin Aulph has been in choirs at Dondero all his years here. He has been outstanding as a member of both A Cappella Choir and Musical Minority, as well as a soloist in the Gospel Mass last year and in Pop Concerts. His musical and vocal contributions to the choir definitely make him an outstanding senior. - Mr. Hartsoe

Outstanding

Dan Kirkman's dedication and display of teamwork in mathematics often insure completion of tasks that others on their own may not be so motivated to see to an end. In a class of high achievers, Dan has consistently gone above and beyond the rigors of class and continuously challenged himself outside of the classroom. Dan has demonstrated that he has sound judgement, is able to think on his feet and is a capable problem solver. - Ms. Reeves

The Business Department takes genuine pleasure in recommending Lisa Hyde as Outstanding Business Student. She has pursued advanced classes within the business curriculum. She is energetic, enthusiastic and a team player. Lisa maintains a Co-Op position within our school. She works independently and always manages to complete all tasks in a professional and timely manner. - Mrs. Marek

Sarah Kendall is dedicated to making Genesis a great experience and opportunity for its staff as well as those who submit to, are published in or who read the magazine. She has devoted time during the summer, after school, and of course, during class to assure that Genesis is a success. - Mr. Cicchini

As ACORN Editor-in-Chief, Katie Cassady coordinates the publication process and guides 25 staff members in their efforts as writers. Intelligent, articulate, passionate and supportive, she is a steady and positive force in the classroom. Katie nurtures talents, listens to ideas, and preserves the truth. Her keen perception, her collaborative spirit, her intuitive sense of people's needs, and her willingness to share ownership are key factors in the creation of a thoughtful, provocative news magazine. -Ms. Maudlin

Sara Brown has proven herself to be an excellent leader of the OAK yearbook staff. Her dedication is impressive, her energy is awesome, and her level of commitment is admirable. She surprises and makes me proud on a regular basis, and I know that she has left an indelible mark on her staff. Sara is truly outstanding! - Mrs. Kocis

Seniors

The Marketing Department takes genuine pleasure in recommending Amber Gossett as Outstanding Marketing Student. She has pursued advanced classes within the business curriculum. She is energetic, enthusiastic and a team player. Amber manages our school store, Oak Avenue, where her accounting skills are put to excellent use. - Mrs. Marek

As a fourth year language student having received all A's in French, Taylor McMahon is clearly an outstanding senior. She is a conscientious student who puts forth strong effort to improve her French. Her dedication, intelligence, and consistently excellent work make her truly deserving of recognition as an outstanding French student. - Ms. Ross

David Bevenuto has consistently been at the top of his class due to his conscientious attitude and devotion to the German language. He has been active in the Dondero German Club for four years. He is well-liked and respected by all. David has proven himself not only as a bright and studious student of German, but as a responsible and mature young man. - Mr. Weathers

Andrea Kendzierski is an excellent Spanish student. She has maintained a 4.0 for four years in Spanish. She is a very conscientious and hard-working student. She is bright and is always willing to help her classmates. Andrea has been involved with Spanish club for four years and is currently Vice-President. - Mrs. Arribas

Jennifer Edington first appeared on Dondero's stage in 1996 as an orphan in Oliver! Since then she sung and danced in Fiddler on the Roof, Bye Bye Birdie, Annie, and Guys and Dolls, acted in Up the Down Staircase (Katherine), and The Crucible (Mary Warren). She supervised the make-up and costume and was Student Director for Is there a Comic in the House? and Pippin. - Ms. Whalin

We Are...

Some may say that teachers have an easy job. After all, teachers do get the entire summer off. However, Dondero's teachers go above and beyond by pouring their hearts into their work and providing a place for students to enjoy learning. Most of a teacher's life is spent in the classroom, but many of the best times are spent outside of school with their students as the advisers, listeners, and mentors who keep our school running. Teachers should get the recognition that they deserve!

Teachers are not only just teachers. Teachers do have other things to do besides assign homework and check papers. They have their own smiles, laughs, families, friends and even problems outside of school. Just like everyone else they have their favorite things to do. Mrs. Kocis loves to get away from being a teacher by going out to the movies with her husband. "It's one of our favorite ways to spend time together," says Mrs. Kocis. The teachers here at Dondero are dedicated to their job by doing what they can to be great teachers. It is hard to believe, but teachers do, in fact, have lives outside of school.

Life Lessons

Teaching More Than The Curriculum

Our teachers here at Dondero have long been known for making the curriculum fun and exciting. Many times, teachers aren't given the credit they deserve for all the life lessons we learn everyday from them.

Whether it's Mr. Pontzious preparing kids for the wrath of the business world or Mr. Chisnell making us explore what the truth is and how to get to it, we all have learned more than we think from our teachers. These life lessons are what most of us retain, even more than the just the curriculum itself. Though we probably won't fully realize what effect they're having on us now, we'll appreciate it as the years go on and we look back on our high school days.

The thing about Dondero's teachers is that no one requires them to include teaching us anything but what they're required in the curriculum. The staff knows the importance of these ideas and outlook and how necessary it is to teach these lifelong lessons to us. Without their knowledge and guidance, Dondero would probably not be the diverse and tolerant school that all the students are used to. For that, we should not take for granted how much of a caring staff we have here at Dondero.

Lifelong Learning

Imagine arriving late for class on the first day at a new school. The bus from Dondero has already left, and it is difficult to find the right classroom at Oakland Community College. As the last student enters the quiet room, all heads turn to the sound of the door shutting. This entrance is not a way to make a first impression, but as the weeks go by the new faces become old friends.

Taking the unique classes offered at OCC is a great way to make lifelong friends and to look ahead in life. "I wanted to try Medical Skills because I may want to go into the medical field," said junior Stephanie Miller. Even though students take OCC classes for different reasons, many agree that they took the classes to help advance themselves towards their lifelong goals. "If I put my mind to it, I can do it," agreed senior Sarah Kendall. Taking new classes can be difficult, but fun at the same time. Just one advantage of taking an OCC class is learning different techniques and how to do things on your own. Senior Elizabeth Wissman thought that her learning how to do all her math without a calculator is a very important skill she will use all her life.

Kimball, another place to expand one's learning, and OCC both have very different environments. Being at Kimball is almost like being at Dondero: a school full of teenage students, six classes, 55 minutes each, detention and everything that comes with a high school. However, at OCC there is a more mature feeling, with people taking only a couple classes a week, for a couple hours at a time. OCC gives an idea of what it is like to go to college. Either way, taking Kimball or OCC classes during high school is one of the best ways to get a head start on life.

Working It...

Co-operative Education

The alarm clock goes off at 7:30, you take a shower and get dressed. Instead of going to school as usual, it is off to work. After work, it is off to school for the rest of the day.

The Co-operative Education Program allows students to work and get school credit for part of the day, and then go to school for the rest. Seniors who qualify can earn one-half credit per hour of class at the end of every semester that they work. There are many opportunities for students to get jobs in their community that they might not have a chance of getting if they weren't in Co-op. Students involved in Kimball's Medical skills program can get jobs at Beaumont. Even here at Dondero there are jobs in the office, at the school store, or at the Royal Oak Community Credit Union. If a student has not taken the required classes to get into these jobs, they can have their employer fill out an application so they can go to their regular work place during their Co-op periods.

The program can help many seniors get experience in fields that they want to go into after they graduate, whereas some just do it to earn some credit and money. When asked how Co-op has helped gain experience in a field of work, senior Timothy Shaw said, "I plan on moving into management, and Co-op is allowing me to work more to gain experience." However, Dennis Warren has different feelings towards Co-op: "If I had to dry clean clothes forever I would probably cry." So for all seniors who need experience in a certain field, or just want to earn some money during school, Co-op is a program to consider.

Still Learning

New Teachers

Amongst a group of students that never seems to stop changing, the faculty here at Dondero tends to be the only thing that's constant. However, in place of the five teachers who retired last year, Dondero received thirteen new teachers this year. Ms. Reed, Mr. Worrel, Ms. Lee, Ms. Crawley, Mr. Fitzpatrick, Mr. Dinkleman, Mr. Ziegler, Ms. Dokho, Mr. Kapla, Ms. Gardy, Mr. Kohring, Mr. Stange, and Ms. Stern are the new faces that are grazing Donderos hallways this year.

All of our new teachers come from different backgrounds. Some were first time teachers, some came from elsewhere in our district and some came from other districts. They all had the tough task of adjusting to a new working environment that they were thrown into for five days a week, and more than seven hours a day. However, many of the new teachers looked forward to working at Dondero because of the friendly, welcoming atmosphere. "It's a warm, caring school. Everyone was willing to help," commented Ms. Crawley on her first impressions of Dondero. Mr. Dinkleman said, "I noticed the hard working students, how helpful the staff was in assisting their students and everyone's friendliness."

Although the challenge of teaching in a new school was definitely difficult for them, this group of teachers did an excellent job at adjusting. They have a very bright future here at Dondero. and their smiles will lead the way.

Legends Live On

Veteran Teachers Of Dondero

It is about time that the veteran teachers here at Dondero got some recognition for all their hard work they have put in over the years. Teachers like Mr. Hartsoe and Mrs. Shapiro, who have taught here for a combined total of 50 years, are more than deserving of an opportunity to share their stories. This is especially true since many, like Mr. Fairfield said, "have learned new and effective ways to teach."

Just as students have memories of high school that they will remember for the rest of their lives, teachers have some of their own. Putting the final touches on the sets just before the opening night of a play remains to be one of Ms. Whalin's favorite pastimes teaching at Dondero. "It is so enjoyable to see all of our hard work come together in the end," says Ms. Whalin. Teachers cherish their memories forever, but memories also remind them of how much things have changed over the years.

"Life is change," says Mrs. Shapiro. Many things have changed since Dondero was first established in 1927. A total of 3,000 students in the school at one time, gym classes that were split into groups by gender, and even a dress code were all once commonalities here at Dondero.

Change seems to be the only constant at Dondero, but one thing that will never change is the way the teachers take pride in impacting their students. "Often we don't even know what kind of impact we have left on a student," says Mrs. Shapiro, "it all just comes with the job." Many students don't even realize the kind of impression a teacher has left upon them until many years later. No matter what, teachers can be assured that they have influenced at least one student in their experience. "I know I have left an impact on my students," says Mrs. Bostwick. "I know most people won't tell me that, but it is what I got into this business for." It's an attitude like that which makes our teachers here at Dondero so great.

"I am happy to be a small part of students' lives at such an important time."

We Are...

Though our academics will pave the way for our future careers, it's likely that our extracurricular involvements will be what we remember. Our memories of the contributions we made to Dondero are formed more by the many after school hours spent during the finishing touches on the set crew, playing in that pivotal soccer match, or getting the yearbook the exact way we want it. Without organizations in high school, our four years at Dondero wouldn't be as memorable. These clubs help us gain insight about ourselves, faculty, and friends. By doing our part, we become who we are.

Say What?

One thing that the French Club, Spanish Club, and German Club have in common is their love for food. The French Club and the German Club compromise and meet half-way on food when traveling to downtown Royal Oak and enjoying wonderful food together at La Fondue. The Spanish Club keeps its originality by going to La Salsa in Rochester Hills.

The German Club keeps its youthfulness by watching Disney movies in German during their after school parties. The German Club also goes to Frankenmuth every December to see the sites and visit with German Club members from Troy High.

The French Club is always in the spirit of giving. This year they decided to raise funds for Doctors Without Borders, a charity established by French physicians to aid disaster victims. The French Club finds this charity worthy of their cause. The French Club members eagerly awaited their trip to see Les Miserables at the Fisher theater.

The Spanish Club loves to go to the Yates Cider Mill yearly to unify their group and get to know each others' backgrounds.

Going Public

Where do students turn to when they are looking to remember Dondero's past? For some examples of the great artistic talent here at Dondero? Or news coverage about topics that relate to people their age? The Dondero High School publications, of course. The publications strive to do their best in keeping students and staff up-to-date on current events, memories, and artistic talent in our school.

Each year the staff of the Oak strives to put out a yearbook that will leave a lasting impression. Junior Stacy Peltier says, "It can be stressful at times, but it's a lot of fun." The yearbook staff consists of students only, with the exception of an adult adviser. The yearbook is something that will be around, and hopefully will be remembered, for a very long time.

Each month, students all around the school look forward to hearing the news that the Acorn is finally on sale. The Acorn combines current events with news that students enjoy hearing about. Included in the eight issues of the newspaper that are produced, one issue entirely dedicated to the seniors. In that edition, each senior is allotted 1,000 words to sum up what they want to leave to the underclassmen. Every year the students look forward to being able to see the last farewell of the graduating seniors.

Here at Dondero, Genesis is its literary magazine. Every year Genesis publishes one issue at the end of the year. Starting mostly as a poetry book, it has developed into much more. Genesis reflects an enormous amount of talent within our student body. Nowadays, Genesis is not only a book with poems, it also includes all sorts of art and even a CD composed of all student-written pieces.

Helping Hands

Honor is not given; it is earned. Students who participate in the National Honor Society must meet certain criteria that is not of an easy nature. To be in NHS, one must possess certain qualities and meet goals. One must have a minimum grade point average of 3.2 in order to be eligible to participate. Also, one must take part in two different community service projects. One of these service projects is an all year and ongoing goal that must be accomplished by the end of the year. For their second project members do one all day project, such as cleaning up a park or helping the elderly.

With all of this volunteering, it's easy to think that the members of the Dondero branch of the National Honor Society would be tired of helping people, but that is not the case. Senior Michelle Hurd says, "NHS allows me to help others and to take a more active role in my community." When students are involved in the NHS program, they get a better understanding of what hard work is all about.

In the past, NHS has done such fund-raisers as a Bowl-A-Thon to raise money for organizations dealing with finding a cure for terminal illnesses such as Cystic Fibrosis. The main focus of this group is to spend their time helping others, while helping themselves. Members are mandated to keep up their grades, have a good attitude, and maintain respect throughout the school and the community with teachers, advisers, students, parents, and community members.

NHS is one of the most important organizations on a school level, as well as a national level. Students nationwide take pride in being active in this organization. Hopefully, NHS is something that will continue on for a long time by helping students reach the goals they set.

Far Top Right: The years of practice that Ian Prunkner had with his guitar have finally paid off. He was a part of the 2001 Pop Concert, where his talent was put to the test.

Far Bottom Right: Nick Burns was 2001's best and only bassist. This was Nick's last Pop Concert, and it was truly one to remember.

Right: Senior Kevin Aulph got the crowd all wound up when he did his rendition of 3 Doors Down's "Kryptonite." With Kevin being a veteran of Pop Concert, he has always put the most enthusiasm into his performances. However, none could compare to his 2001 performance, the highlight being when he threw his hat off stage.

Below: Let it out! Senior Caitlin Cassady sang her heart out with the song "Snow Day," by Lisa Loeb. When she tried out, she had to sing the solo to the rest of the choir, and then they all voted. That was how she got their spot on center stage.

Right: Sarah Herzberg and Ashley Heidrich join the rest of the Pop Concert crew in the final song of the show.

A New Kind of Pop

The lights went down and the crowd grew silent. A pin could drop, and no one would hear the echoing noise. Anticipation filled the air as everyone waited. The night was not like any other. The slow rumble of bass crept off the stage and into the eager ears of the audience. Red and blue lights flashed as the whole stage was revealed. The choir was at the heart of the stage, and as they sang Phil Collins' "Easy Lover," the band encircled them. Their energy was felt not only in their voices, but it was in the air.

This is surely one of Dondero's longest and most loved traditions. Junior Emma Farr said, "It (Pop Concert) meant a lot to me because it took a lot of hard work and dedication, and when the concert finally came, all of it paid off because it was just so much fun." Involved or not, the annual Pop Concert is special to everyone.

Mr. Hartsoe has been the director of Pop Concert since the day it was formed. "The principal who hired me 34 years ago asked me what I thought of pop music. I told him I thought it should be used in choir programs. So, from that day forward, we started doing the music that the kids knew and liked. And it has been like that ever since," said Mr. Hartsoe. Every new year, the new faces and new songs assemble on stage to perform once again for the Dondero community.

Singing Serenade of Choirs

Day in and day out, Dondero's choirs rejoice to sing together in harmony. Mr. Hartsoe made sure that his choirs were in tune by giving mini-quizzes and tests. He believes that constantly preparing his students for their shows teaches them the true meaning of hard work and dedication.

The choirs had several performances throughout the year, including the Winter, All-City, Mini-Pop and Pop concerts. Dondero's choirs joined together and sang holiday carols throughout the school to encourage the holiday spirit. When "Jingle Bells" and "The Hallelujah Chorus" spread throughout the halls, smiles appeared, and the stress of the holidays was lifted.

The choir members all have a close friendship with Mr. Hartsoe. They called him a little jumping bean because "he was always jumping around trying to get the students more involved," as Molly Mutschler explained. Famous for his vibrant clothing and enthusiasm towards music, Mr. Hartsoe is one of those teachers whom many of his students don't forget. "It was very difficult to come to class everyday knowing that Mr. Hartsoe wasn't going to be there for a while after his surgery," said senior Kevin Aulph, "He's one of the reasons that I'm pursuing a career to become a music teacher."

We've Got the Beat

Among the many sports at Dondero, there is one that is quite frequently overlooked: Marching band. The students who participate in marching band also participate in the concert season of the band as well. The members of Dondero's Marching Band make a big effort to do their best, even if it does mean sacrificing a lot of time and sleep.

During the marching season, band members put in their fair share of time and more. From the beginning of August, members of the band come to practice at school at least once a week for three hour sessions. Once the school year starts, the students are required to come to practice for a collective of 16 hours a week.

The marching band takes part in many competitions throughout the season. This year the band competed in four statewide competitions, scoring in a range from 38-52. It is safe to say that the marching band worked very hard.

You Spin Me Right Round

The colorguard is a group of girls that devote their time to a different part of the band. The girls that take part in colorguard also play an instrument during the concert season of band. In one month the new, incoming girls are responsible for learning a new talent: the art of spinning.

In addition to learning flag work, the girls are also required to learn how to march correctly. The girls of the colorguard practice either separately or with the band in the same schedule. Together, the colorguard and marching band practice every morning, no matter how bad the weather gets.

Being part of colorguard is not an easy thing. Accidents regularly happen during practice. Being smacked in the face or hit in the head with a flag is a normality. Swollen lips, sprained ankles, and bruises are all some of the hazards, but the girls spin on.

A Sweet Symphony

Following the football season, the Symphony Band began its strict practicing regimen in early November. "Dedicated" is one word to describe the individuals involved in Symphony Band, and their hard work really showed at their All-City, Spring, and Collage concerts.

Symphony Band had big shoes to fill this year, since most of their first chair seniors graduated. With all the hard work and extra time the band put into their performances, they proved to be completely qualified to handle their new position. They were often put on the receiving end of roaring cheers given out by their audiences.

Harboring the young aspiring individuals of Symphony Band members of the future, Concert Band is the place for the new faces of Dondero. For those incoming freshmen who are undecided about whether or not to become involved with Dondero's great music program, Concert Band is the place for them to be. Long hours spent practicing for concerts with Mr. Foreman gave the new members a good idea

After they adjusted to the fast-paced beats and developed the necessary skills to become Symphony Band members in the following year, many found the experience to be worthwhile. Pulling Some Strings

Dondero has long been known to have an excellent music program. Our own symphony orchestra is a fine example of this. Dondero's Symphony Orchestra is composed of sophomores through seniors who play a string instrument. Every student in orchestra starts the day off with an one hour period of rehearsal. The symphony orchestra annually picks members to perform in the pit for the spring musical. Dondero's musicals would not be the same without the competence of symphony orchestra.

There are many positive aspects of being in symphony orchestra. "Playing in front of an audience" was one of senior Marianne Tassone's most rewarding experiences. Orchestra is considered an art and is another way for students to show off their talent. "Being able to express myself and other people's music in a creative way" is what senior Joy Schultz considers her favorite part of symphony orchestra. Our orchestra program is definitely one that we should be proud of here at Dondero.

All Strung Out

Incoming freshmen who want to be a part of Dondero's orchestra are placed into the concert orchestra. This is where the new freshmen begin to develop the talents and skills they will need if they want to continue on to the next level of orchestra. These students enjoy this class because they have a lot of fun. Their concerts usually are performed once every few months and in different schools for festivals. It is a very relaxed atmosphere among the members in the orchestra room.

Taking orchestra can help build confidence and self-esteem while helping one become highly advanced in the class. Orchestra can give a sense of pride, especially while performing the best, in front of hundreds of people. A good orchestra member can concentrate on music and has the ability to work hard.

BE MUSICAL

Talk of nightclubs, love affairs, police, and gambling was rarely found in Dondero's atmosphere until last Spring. The Dondero Drama Club put on the romantic comedy Guys and Dolls based on Jo Swerling and Abe Burros' book. Lead by the amazingly colorful and entertaining actors, the controversial play was brought to life as soon as they hit the stage. Putting all her effort into her acting, Shanitra Bowman did something that hasn't been done in over twenty years: she played a mans part. Accepting the challenge with great enthusiasm, she did a great job. Along with Shanitra, "The chemistry between the lead actors Ben Webster and Caitlin Cassady was incredible," commented Mrs. Whalin.

With the excellent acting, the dance moves were up beat and to match fast-paced New York life-style. With the help of a choreographer, the actors put in plenty of work to ensure the audiences satisfaction. "All the extra work was worth it when we saw audience rise and applauded," said Lara Nemeth.

Acting Up

With Christopher South playing the lead, and Molly Mutschler with Andrea Kendziorski in the leading women's roles, The Crucible was brought to life. Set in the seventeenth century amidst the witch trials of Salem, Massachusetts, The Crucible is a complex story of love, hate, betrayal, and trust.

With so much going on, all the actors and actresses had to be on top of everything. Christopher South played John Proctor, a strong-willed farmer who is eventually charged for witchcraft. Committing adultery with John, was Abigail Williams, played by Molly Mutschler. Abigail declared that John's wife, Elizabeth Proctor, played by Andrea Kendziorski, was a witch in order to get back at John.

This story is a brutal tale depicting the harsh realities of society as a whole. There was an underlying conformity theme throughout the entire play, showing that people will turn their backs on each other in the courts to save themselves. But during all of the chaos, there was a beautiful love story evolving.

The Crucible is a very climatic story ending in an unforgettable way. All the actors involved did an excellent job, which helped to produce yet another successful play. Plays that go off the way that The Crucible did help Dondero keep the good reputation that it currently has.

All of the actors in this play worked hard practicing day and night. They came in on weekends and worked for eight hour blocks. Dedication like this doesn't come easily. Dondero is proud to be the home of such people.

The footbag club was a hit right from the start, the officers, President James Ede, Vice-President Joseph Scott, Secretary Holly Dein, and Treasurer Steve Gossett were elected on the first meeting by popular vote. According to the club constitution "The Foot" officers must be responsible, dedicated, and willing to take on the responsibilities that the office dictates. The preamble states: "The purpose of this club is to protect the rights of footbag players at Dondero High School, organize play to the benefit of all players and, above all, to have fun." The Dondero footbag club meets every Thursday during lunch in Mr. Stange's classroom. During each meeting the club members watch videos on different techniques and tricks. Lead Now or Step Aside

Student Senate is an organization that improves and actively participates in the overall spirit of Dondero. Putting on all of the dances, Oak Rock, Spirit Week, and pep assemblies throughout the year took up much of the average senator's already busy schedule. For these senators though, it's worth spending the extra hours outside of the classroom to pull off Homecoming or the Canned Food Drive.

Amidst the stress, frustration and chaos, the Student Senate is a place for fun, laughter, and forming new friendships. All of the senators had a chance to experience "crunch time" right before big events like Homecoming and the Volleyball Marathon. It was a time when everything for the event had to be planned to perfection and all the glitches had to be worked out. Crunch time forced the senators to get over labels and personal boundaries to enable them to work well together so they could plan events without a problem.

When the senators weren't busy planning for events, they went to conferences and shared their ideas with other schools. This year alone, Dondero's Student Senate worked with schools such as Pontiac Central and Brandon High School to help boost their school spirit. The Student Senate was proud of all of their accomplishments and always strived to reach higher goals.

Whether helping other schools, the community, or Dondero itself, the Senate leads by example.

Positive Decisions

There is an organization at Dondero that is continually trying to better the way the world works. This organization is known as Students Against Destructive Decisions, otherwise known as SADD. The students involved in SADD strive to make their school a better place. They set examples and encourage others to make good decisions.

SADD participated in what is known as "Red Week" during the week of December 10-14. The week is devoted to warning fellow students about destructive decisions and what they can lead to. It is called Red Week because the students integrate the color red with practically everything they do during that week. The students of SADD tied ribbons around car antennas, passed out Twizzlers, and designated December 12 to the day that everyone would wear red. SADD did everything in their power to try to keep students away from destructive behavior.

Along with Red Week, SADD did what is known as Prom Promise. Each year, before prom night, the members of SADD call all students going to prom down and tell them about the dangers of drinking. They show videos and give out pamphlets to try to prevent drunk driving and the use of drugs. They ask all of the students to sign a contract promising that they will not consume alcohol, or drive under the influence.

Students around the school recognized the members of SADD and will continue to do so for a long time to come. Keeping students safe is an important job, and these members do an excellent job at it.

Council members also work with Dondero's administration following conflicts and help to resolve them. "I think the

Coloring Inside The Lines

Everyone loved to finger paint when they were young, but those days are long gone for most students here at Dondero. While the majority of students have forgotten the joy of art, there is a small group that hasn't. This talented group, which makes up the Art Club, consists of students who are fully dedicated to art, and don't mind spending some extra time working on imaginative projects.

Unlike most years, the Art Club had a rough start this year, with adviser Mrs. Shrode unsure if her schedule would allow her to oversee the group. Distraught with the idea of not being able to have an art club, the members worked diligently to find a convenient time for everyone. In spite of a late start this year, the Art Club was creative as ever.

For most members, the Art Club provides an invaluable amount of time to continue their work that they started in the class. The given 55 minutes too easily expires when working on an innovative, original piece of art. Members also take refuge in the fact that Art Club offers a place to start a project without having to worry about criteria, deadlines, or criticism from an audience. "Art Club is a place where you can be creative and free without being judged or graded," added senior Lindsay Cooper. Dondero's Art Club was founded to provide classroom doodlers and artistic geniuses alike a time to be creative, and that is, under no question, what it does best.

Picture This

Among all of the clubs at Dondero, there is one that invites culture in the school. Photo Club is an organization that takes time to add beauty to school. Senior Amber Wright said, "I really enjoy taking pictures. It is really nice to be able to show others your pictures, while getting the chance to see others'."

Head adviser, Mr. Steele lets the students choose what they capture in their pictures. There are no rules as to what may be done in Photo Club, except for practicing safety and one other: only black and white. "I think that taking pictures in black and white captures the essence of your subject," says Steele. "When pictures are in black and white, the photographer takes more time to get a quality picture. They don't get distracted by the color."

Club are developed in the school's own darkroom. Students are allowed access into the darkroom to develop pictures by themselves. Students are also responsible for the organization of the darkroom and buying the proper chemicals for the developing process.

After the pictures have been developed, they are then turned into Mr. Steele. After all of the pictures are looked over, they are displayed in a showcase in the cafeteria. The Photo Club takes time out of their busy schedules to appreciate the beauty of the world. In turn, they make Dondero beautiful at the same time.

Stay out of the Gutter

Did anyone tell Mr. Drilich or Mrs. Banat that bowling actually originated from a German religious ceremony? It is true, except back then they had to bowl to save their lives; now it is just for playful competition and a whole lot of fun.

The Bowling Club met regularly every Thursday this year at the Royal Oak Lanes to have a good time. Always very open-minded, the Bowling Club allowed everyone who stopped by to bowl a few rounds or watch and support their favorite player. There aren't too many rules in the Bowling Club; there goal was to just be safe and have fun.

The Bowling Club had an end of the year banquet to celebrate all the fun they had throughout the year. They reminisced on good times and good food while ending their season on a striking note.

Ping-Pong is Here To Stay

Never in the history of all new clubs created here at Dondero has there ever been such a creative idea: "What about a ping-pong club?" That is what Coach Chuck Steele asked himself one day this past year, and never before did he think he would gain so much support. With the ping-pong tables set up in anticipation before each lunch bell this year, the gym would flourish with many eager students wanting to play some ping-pong.

Mainly, the Ping-Pong Club here at Dondero was formed to enable ping-pong enthusiasts to work on their skills, master new techniques, and meet new people, all the while having fun doing it. The Ping-Pong Club was also deliberately set up to meet during lunch so students could have a chance to get away from their stressful lives for a moment. "The Ping-Pong Club allows students to come together to laugh," says founder Coach Steele. "It's just an all around good time."

Hangin' Tough

The Girls Forestry Club is composed of junior and senior girls who attend Dondero. This year's adviser was Ms. Crawley. She taught the girls many things, including how to play Powder Puff football. At this year's annual game, the juniors won in overtime, 20-14.

The girls also participated in several fund-raisers over the course of the year. At Christmas, the girls raised money for the Adopt-A-Child organization. Every girl bought a small toy for one child they adopted. They have weekly meetings to discuss new ways to help their community.

Camp-A-What?

One of the many clubs at Dondero is the Boys Forestry Club. This club is made up of junior and senior boys who share a common interest in the outdoors. Every year the BFC holds a Camp-A-Thon. At this event, the boys camp outside of the school in tents, rain or shine. This year's Camp-A-Thon went off with a bang. During the Camp-A-Thon, the boys raised money and collected canned goods for Focus Hope, Common Ground Sanctuary, and Red Cross and fundraised all in one weekend.

That's Debatable

The students in Dondero's Model United Nations may do their fair share of debating, but there is no arguing about one thing: they are good.

There are approximately 20 students that actively participate in this program. Numerous times each year, students and advisers alike travel to cities around Michigan for MUN conferences to compete against other schools. In these conferences, the debate can get pretty hectic. At any given conference, there can be an average of up to 15 schools.

Each school is given a number of countries that they will represent in the conference. The students are then assigned to represent a country and then discuss it. For example, a student might be representing Iraq while arguing about human rights. But here's where the twist comes in; these students must argue along the basis of their representative country, not their own opinion, even if they do differ.

The students involved put in their time. This year, meetings were held on Mondays and Thursdays from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Students took time from their busy schedules to write reports, do research and study for something they do not get graded on. Adviser, Mr. Chisnell said, "I think that these kids learn something, or rather gain something here, that you can't get anywhere else."

These students went beyond the expectations of high school, and put in the extra effort to make it worthwhile. There's certainly no arguing about that.

We Are...

There's nothing like the rush of playing a sport, especially when it's been a dream for years. There's a thrill knowing that family and friends in the crowd to cheer and support. Whether it's football, softball, or dance team, we all have a chance to choose our sport, and we strive to do the best we can. Just trying out is a success in itself. Even if we don't make the team, we know we've already done more than those who never conquered their fears.

New coaches, new jerseys, and new attitudes: that is what the Dondero varsity football team brought to the field this year. With the strong leadership skills of the seniors and the motivating words of new head coach Jim Fitzpatrick, the words "fight back to your tradition" were given new meanings. Reacting strongly to the inspiring words, the varsity squad worked hard during the entire season. Despite the sweltering heat, everyone showed up to the summer conditioning practices. Each player made it a goal to be bigger, faster, and stronger for the upcoming season.

The Oaks' solid effort during the summer paid off on game days, as players marched through the season with a record of four wins and five losses. "I'm very happy with the way the team came together this year," said senior defensive cornerback Caleb Fortune. "I can only hope that the following varsity team members can keep the tradition going."

"This is Oak country, Rams move it out!" screamed the overly excited cheerleaders at the Homecoming game. "It is so much fun to cheer for a team whom you have seen improve over the last four years," said Melissa Garland proudly. Along with this year's motivated football team, the varsity cheerleaders had a great time fostering new skills to help cheer the Oaks on to victory.

Over the summer, the varsity cheerleaders prepared for their season by going to the "Camp of Champs" at the University of Michigan. The camp taught the girls a variety of new cheers and stunts to help them become more skilled in their expertise. With these new moves, the camp also gave them the opportunity to compete for a place on the Michigan All Star team. With few other girls from all around Michigan, two of Dondero's very own, sophomores Julia Gardner and Christie Lockman, made the team. After trying out herself, sophomore Elizabeth McCoy said, "The competition was rough, but it was a lot of fun!"

The camp helped tremendously for the varsity squad, especially for the six girls that had never cheered before. Ashleigh Ruggero claimed, "I love cheerleading! I'm so glad I tried out!" The varsity squad put in a tremendous amount of work, and because of it, even with the many new members, came together as a team in a very successful manner.

Right: Seniors Corey Vanderhoff, Joshua Belvedere, Steven Anderson, Paul Baker, and James Martin hang out with their coach after beating Pontiac Northern. Who wouldn't be happy with a 10-0 win on their record?

You can't cross the street? You couldn't finish your breakfast? The Oaks soccer team taunted each other with these catch phrases all season long. Basically, they're telling each other that they can't pass or score, which definitely wasn't true this season. The Oaks finished with a League Championship and a win against Utica Ford, a division one team. During that game, the Oaks played excellent defense and finished the game with a score of 1-0, with senior Corey Vanderhoff scoring the only goal.

One of junior Scott Hepner's favorite parts about the season was that they were a pretty close team. He said they had a lot of inside jokes, and they always had a lot of fun doing stuff together. Said Hepner, "A bunch of us were on the same indoor soccer team, - the Pink Flamingos. It was always good luck to wear our Pink Flamingos shirts underneath our jerseys, so we did it at every single game. Pink power!" Whether it was going to Bennigan's before a game or scoring goals on the field, the Oaks soccer team had a great season this year.

She shoots, she scores! The Dondero girls basketball team started off the season in hopes of winning league. The Oaks took the first few league games, including Madison, Andover, and Harper Woods. They continued the season preparing for a big game against Clawson.

Clawson was one of Dondero's big rivals, so the game was important. Hopes were almost lost when the game was nearly over, and Dondero was only ahead by one basket. However, the girls kept their heads in it and stopped the opponents from scoring. The Lady Oaks finished with a proud coach and second place in league. Said junior guard Jennifer Breadon, "Even though we came in second place, I thought the team did a good job fighting throughout the whole season."

The girls always worked hard at their practices after school, and the hard work they put in certainly showed in their never-give-up attitudes. "It was a tough year for everybody, but we are all looking forward to the years to come so we can try to improve our record," said sophomore Kelly Lutz. Wonder what it would be like to run for ten or more miles for fun? Both of the Dondero's cross-country teams ran everyday in the past summer to prepare for a challenging season. They ran miles at a time for conditioning, using a technique that builds stamina by sprinting at top speed, then jogging at a regular pace, then sprinting again.

Coach Steele said that his best words of advice were, "Run like the wind." Using that advice, both teams did very well with their seasons. The girls cross country team sent three girls to the all state meet, including seniors Megan Sulinski, Jennifer Edgington and Jayna Estopellan. As for the boys team, they sent seniors Gregory Boyer, Matthew Klaver, Joshua Huebner, juniors Scott Caddy, Ian Kangas, and freshmen Sean Meisel and Christopher Walker to the league meet.

Ring! It's 6:00 in the morning and all the members of the Dondero girls swimming and diving team are already up. In fact, they've already been at school in the freezing water, waiting and ready to start practice. Outside of the two morning practices a week, the girls swim every day after school for two hours and came in on Saturday mornings. If practice makes perfect, all these practices definitely paid off.

The Oaks had a memorable season this year. They pulled together as a team, winning second place in the Lady Oaks Relays and fourth place in the O.A.A. Meet. Coming out of the season with seven wins, the Lady Oaks did a great job this year. Sophomore Claire Plouff says, "The highlight of the season was beating Kimball for the second year into a row. We celebrated by throwing our coaches in the pool!"

Below: With her fingers reaching to the ceiling and toes pointed down, senior Lindsay Cooper stretches her muscles to prepare for the next dance.

The girls of the Dondero Dance Team definitely put in their fair share of time into their sport, and then some. This year there have been many changes made to the setup and structure of the dance team. Coach Holly Weiffrsch has made a lot of improvements, including separating the dance team into two seasons, and making it a competitive sport. Junior dance team member Kimberly Michalski said, "Despite the hard work, dance team is a lot of fun, and the work definitely pays off."

The girls learn a routine and then perform it at home sporting events. The girls have performed during the halftime shows at football and basketball games. While many students enjoy the anticipation of the game, waiting for these girls to come perform is just as exciting. Dance team is one sport that almost anyone can appreciate.

This year the boys varsity basketball team had many new faces, including a new coach. Coach Sharpe came to the Oaks with high standards of performance. Although the season was not as all the players had hoped for, they still met the expectations of their coaches. "Our season wasn't the best of seasons, but we all practiced hard and played together as a team. I only wish that I could have one more season to play under Coach Sharpe," said senior Richard Calverley. No matter the situation the Oaks were in, they always had their cheerleaders and fans. As junior Jeffrey Wilusz commented, "I take great pride in playing basketball for Dondero, and it always wowed me to have all the fans cheering us on."

Right: Junior middle-hitter Jamie Gower concentrates on passing the ball. A good volleyball player knows that every great spike has to start with a perfect pass.

The ball smacks the ground with a resounding thud. It's another great spike for the Lady Oaks! The Dondero volleyball team worked on having a great season this year. They came out with quite a few major victories.

One of the toughest tournaments the Oaks are ever involved in is the Brandon Invitational. Brandon High School hosts almost twenty teams, and they all play each other continuously throughout the day. The Oaks walked in there hoping to gain some valuable experience and walked out with a second place trophy. They went undefeated the whole day, losing only to Yale, ranked seventh in the state, in the final game. Coach Millar said that it was the farthest the Oaks have ever gone in the tournament.

The Oaks also beat Kimball this year, which was an impressive victory. The Knights were pumped up and ready to win, but the Oaks worked hard and came out on top. The players did a great job of coming together as a team and having a great season.

Right: Senior Jayna Estopellan, the only female wrestler, puts in her best effort every time she wrestles. She is very proud to represent Dondero as the first female wrestler on the varsity team.

The 2001-2002 boys wrestling team had a very strong year. Led by senior captains Joshua Belvedere and Steven Anderson, the Oaks won the majority of their league meets and came a long way as far as personal improvement goes.

"A lot of younger kids stepped up, and the whole team worked hard for the wins," said Anderson, "It was all work and no play." This year the team had some big group wins, including a 52-24 victory over Kimball. "Practices have been harder this year, but I like that because I know it only makes us better," Belvedere said.

The wrestling team also had a new addition to the team: senior Jayna Estopellan was the first female wrestler in school history. But she didn't do it for the fame: "I did it to prove to myself that I can survive one of the hardest sports."

Dondero/Kimball gymnastics team? What !?! This year the Dondero gymnastics team welcomed the Kimball girls and their coach. All the girls worked hard and had a positive attitude, so there were no conflicts on the team. Junior Andrea Hoff says, "At first I was unsure about Kimball and Dondero uniting to become one team, but I soon realized that it was a ton of fun!" The girls on the team ran countless amounts of stairs and did countless crunches to build stamina and keep their bodies in shape. They proved their dedication by keeping their title as undefeated in their league. Both of the coaches are very proud of their girls, because they have worked really hard to make this season great.

It's eight a.m. on a Saturday morning. Dondero's pool is filled with members of the Royal Oak Boys Swimming and Diving team, which is practicing for the sixth time that week. What most people don't realize is how much time the boys spent in the pool, which totaled to about 10 hours a week.

A highlight of the winter swim season is always the middle school meet. At Dondero, the swimming and diving team is joined with swimmers from Keller and Addams middle schools to have a few fun hours of mixed relays. Even though the meet is mainly put on to show the younger kids what fun this sport is, it is a good experience for all.

Last year the team had a very solid season, but this year was used as a time to rebuild. The team lost many valuable swimmers and came back with only three seniors this year. The team is composed mainly of freshmen, but junior diver and captain, Scott Hepner, feels that next year will be a very strong season if all the members return.

From the courts to the ice, sports are looked at from different angles. Two sport teams representing Dondero, the Royal Oak Blades hockey team and the Royal Oak Edge ice skating team, are joined together with Kimball. The only Dondero student on the varsity Blades was junior Scott Brown. Dondero was represented by tri-captain sophomore Kyle Moore, sophomore Timothy Pingle and freshman Jason Daggy. To stay focused on the game and make sure all of their plays are just right, they wake up extra early to have practice at Lindell Ice Arena. Even with all their hard work, this year was a rough season for the Blades.

The only Oak representing Dondero on the Edge team was junior Ellen Backus, who is also a captain for the team. Even though the Edge is new to being a varsity sport, the team worked hard and made the Royal Oak high schools proud. With the Oaks and Knights coming together, nothing but their hard work, endurance and strength shined on the ice this year.

Pass With Care

Emily Dressler '01 Krista Kaiser '01

Practicing everyday and running for miles at a time really helped the varsity girls soccer team pull off a good season. Goalies Rebecca Dear and Michelle Boiteau helped the defense hold off the opponents in all kinds of weather and muddy conditions to ensure that Dondero would have a winning season. Becky said, "I loved playing goalie when Michelle was sick or injured, but once I got hurt the best thing that I could do was cheer on the sideline." All of the girls showed team spirit when they were on the sideline. As for the team's overall season, Megan Sulinski said, "The team really pulled together, and it helped us to have such a good season. Even though we'll miss the seniors, it won't stop us." The team lost some valuable players last year, but they aren't worried because they know they have what it takes to make a great team: work ethic.

Above: Graduate catcher Stacie Seymour makes a quick dive for the ball, but comes up short. As a four year starter, Seymour rarely missed the ball, throwing out 18 runners at second base just last year.

"Strike three, batter's out!" Pitcher Deanna Miller heaved a sigh of relief as she finished yet another win for the Lady Oaks softball team. Of their 28 wins, Miller pitched sixteen shutouts, leading the Oaks to their second consecutive league championship. The 2001 Oaks were the first Dondero softball team to win both league and district championships since 1980, when coach Vicki Earnshaw was a member of the team. Senior Sara Thomas said, "It was really exciting to win both league and district this year. The funniest part of the season was when I had to pitch, something I haven't done since freshman year! Deanna [Miller] and Erica [Scheid] both got hurt, so we had no other pitchers. They put me in on the mound and I even got a strikeout!" Coach Earnshaw and assistant coach Faulkenbury had a goal for this season: they wanted their team to win thirty games and the league championship. Not only did the Oaks achieve that, but they went above and beyond it.

Right: Senior Craig Hornung throws his body forward, unleashing his extreme fastball. Craig was the Oaks relief pitcher last season and helped the varsity squad to many victories.

The boys baseball team had an impressive season last year. All of their hard work during the winter helped them clinch second place in their league. Junior catcher and left fielder Joseph Guzman said, "I was happy with the way we played together. Even though I thought we should have won leagues, it was a very successful season, and I was glad that I was a part of it." The Oaks did have an impressive season and paved the way for the following year's varsity squad. The varsity coaching staff also did a great job in coaching the Oaks. They made sure that all of their practices paid off during the games. This season was one for these boys to be proud of!

On those cold, rainy spring afternoons when everybody is inside with a warm blanket and the T.V. on, the track teams were outside practicing hard. Both teams practiced whether rain, snow, sleet, or hail. The teams were determined to get better with every stride taken. The boys said that they were fortunate to have great captains who were strong leaders, able to help and support the team. Coach Steele, Coach Ratliff, Coach Fluery, and Coach O'Brien were out there everyday working with the athletes to better their times and abilities. Last year the boys team had four team members attend regionals: Michael Krist and Scott Hepner in the one mile, and Scott Olsen and Matt Klaver in the two mile race. All of these boys had an exceptional season, and Coach Steele was proud to send them to regionals. As for the girls team, Jennifer Edginton went to regionals in the two mile race, and Amber Gossett went to defend Dondero in the shot-put throw.

Progressing Players

Right: Sophomore runningback Shaun Barber makes sure the screws aren't loose on his helmet after making a tremendous play to help out the Oaks defense.

Michael Fossano reflects on the last play after coming off the field. The Oaks finished the season with three wins, one of them against Avondale, their rival. Says Fossano, "We were all really excited after our win against Avondale. We were determined to take no prisoners."

Above: After a hard-fought battle against the Madison Eagles, Oaks Daniel Mahrle, Michael Fowler, Shaun Barber, Kyle Breitingner and Shawn Seymour take a breather. Fowler reflects, "In the whole season, the moment that sticks out the most in my mind is when Nate Webster wore his unforgettable blue and white striped socks."

Below: Top Row: Coach Hubbard, Justin Brye, Duane Himmel, David Reid, James Thomas, Brent Sundberg, Zachariah Hanson, Coach Groves. Middle Row: David Kime, Shawn Seymour, Kyle Fall, Orlando McCullough, Zachary Vickers, Jordan Keyes, David Maroni. Bottom Row: Andrew Scheid, Kyle McHugh, Kirk Wilcox, Christopher Page, Christopher Wasinski, Kirk Schumacher. Not pictured: Kenneth Garrett, Marcus King, Zachary Maggi, Donald Pauck.

Above: Coach Groves explains that winning isn't everything; it's playing with heart that counts. The highlight was winning their game against Brandon. Kyle McHugh comments, "They're a division higher than us, and it was a tough game - it went down to the final minute! At 1:26, we scored a touchdown for the win."

Left: Kyle McHugh covers his face in disgust after the opposing team scores a touchdown. McHugh was walking the sidelines after a strained neck injury in the Lahser game. Luckily, he got back in later on in the season and ended with six touchdowns.

Yell It Loud

Above: Freshmen Ashton Isaacson and Katherine Davey concentrate hard on their next step for their competition cheer. As captains, they want to get the moves perfect on the first try.

Above: Sarah Wallace stands in the New Commons awaiting Ms. Reed's instruction to move into the gym. It's Sarah's first basketball game, and she is a little nervous.

Below: The junior varsity cheerleaders warm-up, so that they can have a perfect jump by the time competition rolls around.

Right: First year cheerleader Katherine Davey practices her toe touch while second year cheerleader Rachel Fox acts as her post.

Left: "Five...six...seven...eight." Freshman Jessica Patterson counts in her head to remember the next move in the girls' halftime cheer.

Through The Hoop

Right: Freshman guard Allison Darland passes the ball around her Kimball defender. Even though the game was a loss this year, the Oaks were never intimidated by their cross-town rivals. They were still proud to leave the game knowing they played hard.

Above: Sophomore center Ashley Wilson leaps above some Madison Eagle defenders to shoot for two. Although it was her first year playing, Wilson was a top player for the team.

Left: Only one of three sophomores on the team, Katie Park looks to grab the rebound over her Kimball defender: Comments Park, "We had a really young team this year, so our season was rough." Despite the challenge, the Oaks still played hard and managed to have fun.

Below: Maureen Burke and Samantha Seymour block their opponents' pick and roll to stop the offense. The Lady Oaks basketball program is known for their tight, solid defense, which they work on during practice everyday.

Heading For the Net

Right: Freshman William Weipert approaches the soccer ball to pass it to his teammate. William was a key player for the Oaks in their successful season.

Above: Freshman Corey Gower thrusts his head forward to bump the soccer ball off his head. Heading the soccer ball was key in the JV team's success.

Acing the Win

Right: Setter out! Sophomore setter Jennifer Carty shows perfect form to complete a good pass while sophomore Christine Dorn gets ready to step up and take the set. Their teammates are cheering them on as the enthusiasm builds. Talking about team spirit, Carty said, "We did lots of team stuff together. It was fun when we made boxers in the New Commons."

Blocking the Spikes

Left: Coach Heidi gives a quick pep talk to the girls during a time-out. As a first-year coach, Heidi did an excellent job of bringing the freshman team together this season.

Above: Setter freshman Katherine Torvinen passes the ball at a tournament. Torvinen says, "My favorite memory of volleyball was spending all day at the tournaments. They were so long!"

Above: Top Row: Amber DeAngelo, Jamie Gower, Coach Lynn, Colleen Taylor, Jennifer Carty. Middle Row: Megan Thompson, Erin Davidson, Allison Phillips, Bianca Naas, Brenda Bogues. Bottom Row: Erin Scafone, Kelly Lutz, Christine Dorn.

Left: Sophomore Colleen Taylor blows by her opponent, hoping to score. Taylor and the rest of the girls learn teamwork and gain skills during the practices. Says Taylor, "For practice, we had to run six miles to Dairy Queen. It was really long, and everyone was complaining when we got there. It was worth it, though, because our coaches bought us ice cream! It was the best practice ever!"

On Deck and Swinging Away

Right: Junior Gregory Breitingner hunches over while waiting for the next batter to approach the batter's box. Since Greg is playing third base he has to be ready at all times for a hard hit to go screaming down the third baseline. Greg is looking forward to playing baseball with the returning seniors next year, and he hopes he can help the team to many victories.

Right: Junior Adam Johnson swings hard to hit the ball. Coach Pontzious works with his players on the proper fundamentals of swinging a bat. Unfortunately, this swing for Adam wasn't on the ball. Oops!

Above: Junior Daniel Schenk strides forward and puts power into his curve ball, during a scrimmage against Ferndale. Unfortunately, the umpires didn't show up for the Oaks that day, so one of the player's fathers had to sit in.

Hitting Their Way To Victory

Left: "Going, going, gone." That was what went through sophomore Sean McNairnie's head as he hit the shot out of this ball. Sean contributed to his team's productive season by giving it his all during both practices and games. Sean was also one of the players that received the call to play on the JV team as they played Kimball High School. He went on to have a great game and was a part of an important win for the Oaks as the team beat Kimball.

Above: Sophomore Eric Garland gets himself low to the ground so that he can move fast for a groundball. Eric is the second baseman for the freshmen Oaks. Eric liked to get himself low so that he could have an easier time fielding the ball. He does not understand why people play standing up when the ball is rolling on the ground.

Left: Sophomore Miles Hancock pushes with all his might off his back foot as he launches the ball past the batter. He wears black strips under his eyes to protect himself from the glare of the sun. Miles also plays third base for the freshmen squad, but on this day he was earning the win with this third strike pitch to end the game.

Slam Dunk the Funk

Right: Sophomore Sean McNairnie is captured mid-shot at the home Lamphere game. Sean played his hardest and pulled off an amazing game.

Above: Number 42, sophomore Eric Forgash, shoots from a play set up by his teammates. This was Eric's fourth play of the game and his sixth point.

Above: Lamphere's #14 fouled sophomore Andre Shayna during their second game against each other. Andre was on his game that night and made all of his free-throws, but unfortunately the Oaks came away without a win.

Set it Up... Put it In!

Left: Freshmen Kirk Wilcox, Ryan Moore, Albert Johnson and Kyle Breiteringer look on as their teammates push down the court. The constant support from the sidelines only helped the Oaks play better on the court their entire season.

Left: Freshman Joseph Locricchio plays hard nose defense against Berkeley. Locricchio tried to take a charging penalty for the player running into him, but unfortunately, the call was against him.

Outstanding Athletes

Matthew Klaver

"Matt was captain of the boys cross country team. He was a great teammate and leader."

- Coach Chuck Steele, Boys Cross Country

2

Megan Sulinski

"Megan was dedicated to the sport. She was a positive role model, and she never gave up. She was also one of our scholar athletes."

- Coach Kathleen Hoover, Girls Cross Country

Lindsay Cooper

"Lindsay exemplifies everything the Dondero Dance Team looks for. Lindsay's leadership shows in her great technique, showmanship, recognition of others' talents and total commitment to advancing the team to a higher level of 'play.' Great job, Lindsay! We'll miss you next year!"

- Coach Holly Wieferrich, Dance Team

Joshua Belvedere

"Josh has had an outstanding career as a Dondero wrestler. He is a three time regional qualifier and has over 100 career wins. He has been a team captain for two years and shown great leadership in both of them."

- Coach Lonnie Allen, Wrestling

Scott Hepner

"As a captain, Scott qualified for the Oakland County Championships and the State Diving Regionals this year. He broke the team record for six dives on our 'Top Ten' list in diving."

- Coach Darrin Millar, Boys Swimming and Diving

6

Courtney Park

"As the captain, Courtney has great skills and a strong athletic mind. She is a tough competitor and led her team by example."

- Coach Cammie Millar, Volleyball

Jeffrey Wilusz

"Jeff was our leading scorer and go-to player throughout the season. However, his greatest contribution to the team was his development into a consistent player who could be counted on to work hard and to be as efficient as possible. We are looking for Jeff to step up even more next year as we challenge the best teams in our league."

- Sam Lynch, Boys Basketball

Jennifer Osterhout

"As a captain, Jenny is a four-year state qualifier. She won All League and All Area for 2001. Jenny has a great work ethic and is a true leader."

- Bob Schurig, Girls Swimming and Diving

Christie Lockman

"Christie helped motivate her team members, always having a positive attitude, and was dedicated to learning and improving. Additionally, she is a natural leader."

- Christine Reeves, Cheerleading

Joseph Guzman

"Joe possessed a strong determination to compete; his 'will to win' pushed others to fight on Friday night and get the tradition back to Oak Country. Joe's competitive spirit was filled with belief and pride."

- Jim Fitzpatrick, Football

11

Timothy Osborne

"Tim was a great team leader and played very well for the team. He played first singles and had many wins throughout his season."

- Yearbook Staff, Boys Tennis

12

Kelly Lutz

"Kelly made a major improvement over the last year, and she really stepped up in singles play."

- Carrie Reese, Girls Tennis

Outstanding Athletes

1

Michael Vosburgh

"Mike was an excellent leader, a good team player and he earned excellent grades. He was very helpful with the younger players and really represents what Dondero athletics are all about."

- Jim Anderson, Boys Golf

Deanna Miller

"Deanna's leadership skills were outstanding. She led the team in many categories and was an outstanding pitcher. She and Stacie Seymour were an excellent pitcher-catcher combination."

- Vicki Earnshaw, Girls Softball

Laura Guzman

"Laura was the leading team scorer and point guard. She was in charge of selling the offense and did great, despite it being only her second year on varsity."

- John O'Brien, Girls Basketball

4

Michael Volk

"Mike received the Most Valuable Player award for special events."

- Chuck Steele, Boys Track and Field

5

Paul Caddy

"Paul Caddy received Most Valuable Player for track events."

- Chuck Steele, Boys Track and Field

6

Robert Thomas

"Rob received the Most Valuable Player Award for field events. Rob, Mike, and Paul were the epitome of teamwork for the track team."

- Chuck Steele, Boys Track and Field

7

Andy Englehart

"Andy's ability to lead by example made him an important asset to the team."

- Brett Tillander, Boys Baseball

8

Marie Maurer

"Marie performed all four events in gymnastics. She would have gone to State if it weren't for her injury. She had high level routines on bars and floor and was a wonderful leader who helped others when they were in need."

- Clyde Ewell, Girls Gymnastics

Ellen Backus

"Ellen has shown her hard work and dedication by skating for ten years. She wakes up three days a week at 5:00 a.m. to practice from 6:00 to 8:00 a.m. Ellen has a chance to show off all this hard work when she skates in her ice shows."

- Yearbook Staff, Ice Skating

Scott Brown

"Scott represents Dondero proudly by being the only Dondero student on the varsity hockey team. Scott walked with his head held high after being named Outstanding Athlete two years in a row."

- Yearbook Staff, Hockey

11

Joshua Belvedere

"While scoring many goals, Josh made sure to show his leadership skills. Josh had an important role, as he was tri-captain of the varsity boys soccer team and helped lead them to leagues."

-Yearbook Staff, Boys Soccer

Michelle Cohen

"Michelle was an active member of the girls track team for two years. Michelle participated in the long jump and ran for the long distance teams. She also went to leagues for the one mile."

-Yearbook Staff, Girls Track and Field

Katie Kidder

"Katie was an excellent leader in soccer. Not only did she play hard, but she was one of the most dedicated players I've seen."

- Cammie Millar, Girls Soccer

We Are...

Every July, before school even starts, yearbook staff members pound the pavement in search of community members who will agree to support the upcoming yearbook. The hard work comes from the OAK staff, who go from door to door with smiling faces, risking rejection, but the generosity and heart come from the patrons who make the publication of our book possible. Without the support of our surrounding community members and businesses, the memories that made us who we are this past school year might have been just that - mere memories.

Thank you to all!

YEAR IN REVIEW

01-02

Much like Dec. 7, 1941 (the attack on Pearl Harbor), Sept. 11, 2001 also became "a day that will live in infamy."

At 8:48 a.m., a hijacked American Airlines commercial jetliner crashes into one of New York City's World Trade Center towers. At 9:05, a second plane crashes into the second tower.

As people try to evacuate, the impact and heat from the crash cause the first tower to tumble to the ground in enormous clouds of smoke and debris. The second tower collapses shortly thereafter, leaving nothing but ash, rubble and destruction for miles where one of our nation's greatest landmarks once stood.

▲ At 9:40 a.m., a third hijacked plane flies into the Pentagon, and within the hour, a fourth crashes near a wooded area in western Pennsylvania. More than 4,200 lives are lost in total.

▲ The hijackings are part of an intended multitude of terrorist attacks on America headed by Islamic radical and wanted terrorist leader Osama bin Laden and his al Qaeda terrorist network. Bin Laden had been making open threats against America for several years, demanding the U.S. withdraw from the Middle East.

“Today, our fellow citizens, our way of life, our very freedom came under attack...”

Thousands of lives were suddenly ended by evil, despicable acts of terror...The pictures...have filled us with... terrible sadness and a quiet, unyielding sense of anger.”

In an address to the nation, President George W. Bush ▲ demands Afghanistan’s ruling party (the Taliban) hand over bin Laden. The Taliban attempts to negotiate the United States’ demand, saying they will not cooperate without evidence of bin Laden’s involvement in the attacks. Bush states the demand is non-negotiable, and the U.S. will take retaliatory action against Afghanistan if they refuse to hand bin Laden over.

Airlines around the world suffer major setbacks, many declaring bankruptcy. Congress approves an airline assistance package that includes $15 billion in financial aid and a victim’s compensation fund to limit expensive lawsuits that might bankrupt airlines like American and United.

▲ Former Pennsylvania Governor Tom Ridge is appointed by President Bush to head the newly created Office of Homeland Security Cabinet post, which involves coordinating and creating a strategic plan for homeland defense against future terrorist attacks.

“And tonight, the United States makes the following demands on the Taliban...These demands are not open to negotiation or discussion...This is the world’s fight...the fight of all who believe in progress...tolerance, and freedom...We will rally the world to this cause by our efforts, our courage. We will not tire, we will not falter, and we will not fail.”

President Bush announces plans to starve terrorist groups of all money, and signs an order to freeze all U.S. assets of suspected terrorists, ordering financial institutions to do the same.

▲ After repeated refusals from the Taliban to turn over bin Laden, the U.S. and allied British forces begin launching air strikes on Afghan cities, military targets and terrorist camps.

▲ The U.S. continues bombing Afghan cities, while at the same time dropping food packages, called Humanitarian Daily Rations (or HDRs), from planes to help Afghan refugees at risk for starvation.

The World Health Organization warns Western governments to be on the alert for attacks using chemical and biological warfare.

▲ A 63-year-old employee at the American Media building in Florida dies from inhalation anthrax, a potential agent for use in biological warfare. Several other American Media employees also test positive for anthrax.

◀ Osama bin Laden is the leader of al Qaeda, a worldwide network of terrorists, and is America's most wanted terrorist suspect. Born in Saudi Arabia to a wealthy Yemeni family, bin Laden became an Islamic fundamentalist and turned against Saudi Arabia and the U.S. after working with the Afghan resistance against the former Soviet Union in 1979.

◀ Mullah Mohammed Omar was the supreme leader of Afghanistan's ruling Taliban. Rarely ever photographed, Omar fought beside bin Laden in Afghan resistance to Soviet occupation. ▲ The discovery of letters containing anthrax in several states other than Florida (including D.C., N.J., N.Y., Ind., Mo., and Va.) raises the fear of bioterrorism. Traces of anthrax turn up in postal facilities around the country, and two Washington, D.C. postal workers die from the inhalation variety of the bacteria. Authorities are unable to pinpoint the letters' source, and are unsure whether they are connected to the al Qaeda terrorist attacks.

President Bush signs an anti-terrorism bill into law, giving police and intelligence agencies new powers against terrorism, including stronger penalties for harboring or financing terrorists, an increase in the number of crimes considered terrorist acts and tougher punishments for committing them. The bill also gives police new rights to secretly search people's homes and business records and to eavesdrop on suspect telephone or computer conversations.

The Bush Administration faces accusations from many that the array of new tactics implemented with the anti-terrorism bill, including military tribunals (trials held in secret in which the judges are military officers, a two-thirds vote is enough to convict, and there is no need for proof beyond a reasonable doubt), are the worst infringement on civil liberties in decades.

▲ About 1,000 U.S. Marines move into Afghanistan to tighten the squeeze on remaining Taliban and al Qaeda leaders by limiting their movements from Kandahar, Afghanistan's second largest city and center of trade.

The Taliban surrenders the city of Kandahar, their last major stronghold. The city falls to looters after the last Taliban fighters flee the area.

▲ An American is discovered among Taliban prisoners after a violent prison revolt that killed hundreds of the prisoners as well as an American CIA officer. John Walker Lindh, a 20-year-old non-Afghan Taliban fighter (originally from California), said he joined the Taliban six months earlier after converting to Islam and "jihadi" (fighter of holy wars). Walker is returned to the U.S. to face four criminal charges, including conspiracy to kill Americans abroad. Prosecutors consider other evidence that could carry the death penalty.

▲ Hamid Karzai is named the Prime Minister of Afghanistan's interim government. The title is passed to him by former Afghanistan president, Mullah Mohammed Omar, marking the first peaceful transfer of power in Afghanistan in more than two decades.

▲ A videotape is acquired by the Pentagon, showing Osama bin Laden boasting of his involvement in the Sept. 11 attacks, and rejoicing in the level of devastation "achieved" by the terrorists aboard the planes, some of whom did not even know what kind of mission they were on until they boarded the planes.

British citizen Richard Reid ▲ boards trans-Atlantic American Airlines Flight 63, and attempts to light explosives hidden in his shoes. He is subdued immediately by passengers and crew members, and sedated. The plane diverts to Boston, where Reid is arrested. He is later charged on nine counts, and it is discovered he received training in al Qaeda terrorist camps.

The U.S. military ▲ sends al Qaeda prisoners to a prison in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. The detainees are questioned for information pertaining to the Sept. 11 attacks, the whereabouts of bin Laden and other attacks that may have been planned.

As the war on terrorism continues, the U.S. rallies the support of the international community. Taking the intelligence gained from prisoners as well as investigations at home, America turns attention to other terrorist havens around the world, such as Abu Sayyaf, a terrorist group in the Philippines allegedly connected with the al Qaeda network. ■

Groups

International Front for Fighting Jews and Crusades

This is a large coalition of groups dedicated to killing Americans and destroying U.S. interests worldwide. It was formed by Osama bin Laden in 1998, and includes al Qaeda (also founded by bin Laden), a network of small terrorist cells operating independently around the world, dedicated to overthrowing Middle Eastern rulers and removing westerners from Muslim countries.

The International Front is partnered with the Egyptian Islamic Jihad, or "Al Jihad." This group was established in the 1970s with the aim of overthrowing the Egyptian government and setting up an Islamic state. The group's leadership is divided between those who favor violent means and those who favor more peaceful means, particularly against U.S. targets.

Northern Alliance

The Northern Alliance is an Afghanistan rebel faction that has actively opposed the Taliban for five years. Prior to the fall of the Taliban, the Northern Alliance claimed five percent of Afghanistan, while the Taliban controlled the other 95 percent.

Abu Sayyaf

Abu Sayyaf is a smaller Islamist group fighting to establish an Iranian-style Islamic state in Mindanao, an island in the southern Philippines. The group, whose name means, "Bearer of the Sword," has ties to a number of Islamic fundamentalist organizations around the world, including Osama bin Laden's al Qaeda and Ramzi Yousef, an individual convicted of organizing the 1993 bombing of the World Trade Center in New York City. Abu Sayyaf has a membership of approximately several hundred young Islamic radicals, many of whom were recruited from universities and high schools.

I.S.A.F. (Internal Security Assistance Force)

Also called the "peacekeepers," the I.S.A.F. was developed after the collapse of the Taliban to help keep peace in Afghanistan during the interim government's establishment. The peacekeepers consist of British Royal Marines as well as troops sent in by France.

Jim Shea captured the gold for the U.S. in the men's skeleton with a time of 1:41.96, and made his family the first to produce three generations of American Olympians. Shea's grandfather, Jack, won two speed skating golds at the 1932 Lake Placid Games and Shea's father, James, competed in three nordic events at the 1964 Innsbruck Games.

In a surprise victory, U.S. figure skater Sarah Hughes outdid Olympic gold medal favorite Michelle Kwan in the ladies' free skate. The 16-year-old performed the most difficult program with seven triple jumps (five in combination) and did it flawlessly, taking the gold in one of the biggest upsets in Olympic figure skating history.

▲ Little League Baseball officials ordered the Bronx all-star team to forfeit all wins after it was discovered the squad's star pitcher, Danny Almonte, was 14, two years beyond the Little League age limit. Almonte's birth information had been falsified by his father.

▲ The football community mourned the sudden death of Minnesota Vikings' lineman Korey Stringer, who died from heatstroke during an intense practice at the team's training facility. His death caused coaches and athletes everywhere to consider the dangers of heat exhaustion and harsh practice sessions.

▲ Thanks to an RBI single by Luis Gonzalez at the bottom of the ninth during game seven of the World Series, the Arizona Diamondbacks won their first championship, beating the New York Yankees, 3-2.

▲ Football fans watched a close Super Bowl XXXVI game when the "underdog" New England Patriots beat the St. Louis Rams, 20-17, with a last second, 48-yard field goal. The win was the Patriots' first after three trips to the NFL title game.

off the wire!

After 16 seasons and 583 home runs, super-slugger Mark McGwire of the St. Louis Cardinals announced his retirement from baseball.

Despite their defeat at the hands of Colorado, the Nebraska Cornhuskers were the controversial choice to play the Miami Hurricanes for the national championship in college football's 2002 Rose Bowl. Miami beat Nebraska, 37-14.

"Iron Man" Cal Ripken announced his retirement at the end of the 2001 baseball season. The 20-year Baltimore Orioles veteran is one of seven baseball players with more than 400 homers and 3,000 hits.

STRANGE but TRUE

Midnight Snack

An Albuquerque policeman and his pilot faced disciplinary measures after using a police helicopter to land next to a Krispy Kreme doughnut store, where they ran in, grabbed a dozen, and took off again.

Lobster Spared

A head chef in London's elite Mayfair district spared the life of Barney, a giant lobster thought to be one of the largest lobsters caught in Europe. The chef said he could not bring himself to sacrifice such a beautiful lobster, and Barney was escorted back into the ocean by a diver from a local aquarium.

Duck, Duck...Cop

When a family of ducklings fell through a Vancouver sewer grate, their mother waddled over and persistently grabbed the leg of a nearby policeman until he followed her to the sewer. The babies were discovered and lifted to safety in a vegetable strainer.

Saved by the Phone

Britain's Royal Air Force saved the life of a missing climber trapped on a remote Welsh hillside by sending him a text message on his mobile phone. The injured climber picked up the message, and directed a rescue helicopter toward him.

Dreamworks Pictures' animated "Shrek" and Disney/Pixar's "Monsters, Inc." were hits with humor appealing to kids and adults alike. Both films were nominees for the new Academy Award category of Best Animated Feature Film.

The popular teen drama "Buffy the Vampire Slayer" switched from the WB television network to rival network UPN, making television history as the first time a hit series jumped networks solely over economic issues.

Famed for his role as the sardonic Archie Bunker on "All in the Family," actor Carol O'Connor died of a heart attack at age 76.

Mel Brooks' Broadway musical "The Producers" took home a record 12 Tony awards in 2001, beating the record of 10 set in 1964 by "Hello, Dolly."

AP Photo/Richard Drew

Oscar-winning actor Jack Lemmon, most well-known for his roles in the 1968 "The Odd Couple" movie and the "Grumpy Old Men" movies, died at age 76.

AP Photo

Eagerly-awaited films based on old (and not so old) favorites included "Planet of the Apes," "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone" and "Lord of the Rings." After opening weekends, "Potter" grossed the most with a record $93.5 million, and "Lord of the Rings" was nominated for 13 Academy Awards, the second highest in Oscar history.

Berliner Studio/BEI

The 1960 Alfred Hitchcock film "Psycho" topped the American Film Institute's list of the 100 most thrilling American Movies. "Jaws" and "The Exorcist" took second and third place.

Vince Bucchi/Getty Images

Director Ron Howard's "A Beautiful Mind," won best drama, best actor (Russell Crowe), best supporting actress (Jennifer Connelly), and best screenplay at the 59th Annual Golden Globe Awards, and was nominated for eight Academy Awards, including Best Film of the Year.

More than 30 television networks along with 8,000 radio stations and Internet sites across the country simultaneously broadcast the live special "America: A Tribute to Heroes." The show was a two-hour, star-studded telethon that raised more than $150 million for the victims of the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks.

off the wire!

The fashion magazine "Mademoiselle," first published in 1935, went out of business, citing financial problems which were made worse by the Sept. 11 attacks.

Fans bid farewell to the Emmy-winning sci-fi series "The X-Files," which ended its nine-season run on Fox television network.

Cyborgs, creatures that are half machine and half animal, are no longer science fiction. Researchers in Chicago fused the brain of a lamprey eel with a small robot. The eel's brain finds light, then directs the robot's wheels to move toward it.

Paleontologists found the oldest-known dinosaur fossils in Brazil. The fossils date back to the Triassic period (approximately 210 million years ago), when dinosaurs were first developing, and may provide clues about how they evolved.

STRANGE but TRUE

Tip of a Lifetime

Waitress and struggling single mother of two Colleen Gallagher was given an $11,000 tip by John Boc, chief executive of Meridian Investments, Inc. at Chicago's Excalibur Club where she worked.

Whiz Kid

California high school senior Trevor Loflin scored a perfect 1600 on his SAT despite the handicap of having lived the past three years with his mother and sisters in the back of their Chevy Suburban.

Homer's Odyssey

The Oxford English Dictionary, which traces the coining of words, has credited cartoon dad Homer Simpson with popularizing, if not inventing, his trademark "d'oh," which the OED defines as "expressing frustration at the realization things have turned out badly or that one has said or done something foolish."

Strange Brew

NASA announced plans to send unmanned solar-powered aircraft over Hawaiian coffee plantations to monitor the optimum times for growers to pick beans for the most flavorful brew.

ACORN Seniors,

I'll remember:

- Kevin's spontaneous visits that made the days bright, and the way his legs were always too long for the couch.
- Rachel's steadiness, persistence, patience and the fact that after seven years, she made sure we got T-shirts.
- James' affable nature, his thoughtful thoughts in verse and his smile at all hours of the day.
- Ryan's unflagging zest, his inquisitive spirit, his grand entrances, and that tennis story headline that gave me great pause.
- Rebecca's kindness, perpetual good cheer, bagel sales spirit and her engaging stories amidst great chaos.
- Jamie's dependability, his calmness in turbulent brainstorming seas and his charming sing-a-longs behind closed doors.
- Kristin's larger than life personality, her fierce independence, her courage, and her stuff in the office (even though it wasn't supposed to be).
- Chelsea's wisdom, her willingness to search, her words (a marriage of poetry and prose), and the fact that she put up the mirror for all of us with grace and a gentle, eloquent voice.
- Julee's creativity and diligence, her swiftness, her swivel and glare from the big chair while wearing her even BIGGER boots, and her tender refrain of one word: "Maudcanyoucomeheeeeere??"
- Katie's candor and snappy wit, her soundness and strength, her compassion, her liberal politics, her faith in people, the fact that she often knew my thoughts before I ventured them aloud, and her ability to fill even the smallest of spaces with the greatest of truths.

With love and best wishes ,
Ms. Ann Maudlin

SENATE 2002,
AS YOU LEAVE DONDERO HIGH SCHOOL, REMEMBER
YOU WILL BE MISSED. YOU'VE HELPED CREATE MANY MEMORIES FOR THE STUDENT BODY AND THE STAFF
OF DHS DURING YOUR FOUR YEARS. YOU'VE MADE
MY LIFE SO MUCH EASIER BY GIVING YOUR BLOOD, SWEAT AND TEARS. THANKS! PLEASE KEEP IN MIND THESE WORDS FROM RALPH WALDO EMERSON

AS YOU SEEK SUCCESS:

WHAT IS SUCCESS?

TO LAUGH OFTEN AND MUCH;

TO WIN THE RESPECT OF INTELLIGENT PEOPLE AND THE AFFECTION OF CHILDREN;

TO EARN THE APPRECIATION OF HONEST CRITICS
AND ENDURE THE BETRAYAL OF FALSE FRIENDS;

TO APPRECIATE BEAUTY;

TO FIND THE BEST IN OTHERS;

TO LEAVE THE WORLD A BIT BETTER, WHETHER BY A HEALTHY CHILD, A GARDEN PATCH OR A REDEEMED
SOCIAL CONDITION;

TO KNOW EVEN ONE LIFE HAS BREATHED EASIER
BECAUSE YOU HAVE LIVED;

THIS IS SUCCESS.

CONGRATULATIONS, ALEXIS

"ALEXIS NEMETH"

JANUARY 21, 1984, ON THE COLDEST DAY OF THE CENTURY YOU MADE YOUR DEBUT INTO THIS WORLD, ENTERED OUR LIVES AND SPENT THE NEXT EIGHTEEN YEARS CAPTURING OUR HEARTS. YOU WIGGLED, CRAWLED, WALKED, AND RAN THROUGH THOSE EIGHTEEN YEARS AND HAVE GONE FROM PLAYING MAKE-BELIEVE TO PUTTING ON MAKEUP. SOON YOU WILL BE LEAVING HIGH SCHOOL AND MOVING ON TO THE NEXT BIG STEP IN YOUR LIFE. YOU PROBABLY THINK YOU'RE NOT READY AND YOU MAY BE UNSURE OF YOURSELF. BUT KNOW THIS: IN THE PAST EIGHTEEN YEARS YOU HAVE STRUGGLED THROUGH PERSONAL AND ACADEMIC CHALLENGES AND EMERGED VICTORIOUS. YOU HAVE ALWAYS BEEN RESPECTFUL BUT ALWAYS MANAGED TO MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD. YOU HAVE LAUGHED AND CRIED AND MADE MANY FRIENDS ALONG THE WAY. YOU HAVE LEARNED MANY THINGS AND HAVE MANY TALENTS AND GIFTS YOU'VE ONLY BEGUN TO DISCOVER. THE GREATEST OF THESE GIFTS IS YOUR DEEP-ROOTED COMPASSION AND INNER BEAUTY THAT FAR EXCEEDS YOUR LOVELY APPEARANCE. AS YOU ENTER THE NEXT CHALLENGE OF YOUR LIFE, PLEASE REMEMBER YOUR SCHOOL MOTTO: "ENTER HERE TO LEARN, GO FORTH TO SERVE," BUT UNDERSTAND THAT THIS IS ONLY A BEGINNING. YOU WILL NEVER STOP LEARNING AND SERVING YOUR FELLOW MAN IN A JOURNEY NOT A DESTINATION. ABOVE ALL, PLEASE REMEMBER TO KEEP A DEEP ABIDING FAITH IN GOD. MAY GOD BE WITH YOU WHEREVER YOUR FUTURE TAKES YOU. KNOW THAT I LOVE YOU, AND I PRAY THAT I'VE SERVED YOU WELL.

COLIN, FROM THE DAY YOU ARRIVED, LIFE HAS BEEN AN AMAZING, BLESSED ADVENTURE.

WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU AS YOU CLOSE THIS CHAPTER OF YOUR LIFE. GO FORWARD AND ENJOY WHAT LIES AHEAD. WE HAVE NO DOUBT THAT YOU WILL DO WELL AT WHATEVER PATH YOU CHOOSE.

LOVE ALWAYS,
MOM AND DAD

Anne Petrimoulx

Our arm-hang queen, your perseverance has paid off.
From our curly-headed cutie and clowning jokester, you've grown to be intelligent and determined, as sensitive as you are strong-willed. Believe in yourself and in your own strength. Remember, "What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matter compared to what lies within."

Drew Budry

To an outstanding athlete, gifted artist, and graduate: Be proud of yourself and the efforts you've made towards your goals. We can't say enough about how proud we are of you. Congratulations!

Alexis Nemeth

You're a special, talented lady. Determination will help you realize your dreams. I believe in you and know you will accomplish much. The world is a better place because you're in it. Love you bunches, Mom

Julie Budnick

You have made us proud over the years, and we know you will continue being the special person that you are. We love you and know the future will bring you happiness and success. Love, Mom and Dad

Jaclynn Pagett

You've come a long way, BABY! We are all so proud of you, Jackie! Congratulations! Love you so much, Mom, Dad and Vicky

Marianne Tassone

Keep that smile going through life. We are proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad

Andrew Buck

You give us so much love and laughter. You have determination, courage and a big heart. We know you will achieve your goals. We're very proud of you. We love you, Mom & Dad Jeff, Paul & Gary

Timothy Testerman

From day one you've brought great joy to our lives. Through the years you've made us proud. Today we're filled with joy and pride at the young man you've become. Congratulations! Love, Mom and Dad

Matthew Ptaszynski

Be true to God and yourself. Don't forget to give back to the world all that you have been given. Always remember how much you are loved. Wishing you every happiness, Mom and Dad

Chelsea Feldman

How proud we are of you!
You've grown into such a beautiful young woman, shining light everywhere with your smile. Your enthusiasm for fun will ensure you a lifetime of happiness. Now it's time to take that enthusiasm and that smile and show the world your magic!

We love you very much,
Chelsea.
Mom, Courtney and Hannah

Joseph Scott

We are so proud of you. We know you will do great in college and in life as well.
You'll always be our
"SUPER" son!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Corey Vanderhoff

From your first day of school
to your last day of school,
we are very proud of you.

Congratulations
Love,
Mom and Dad

Glen Linson

We are so proud of you!
Time goes so fast; suddenly you're a young man ready to face the world. Follow your dreams; we are behind you all the way!

Love,
Mom, Dad and Corissa

Molly Angus

It's been an interesting journey for your dad and I watching you grow into the wonderful, loving person you've become. You made us both proud. We love you very much.

Bryan Beebe

Boo Bear - You have grown from a shy little boy into a fine young man. You make us very proud. Always believe in yourself as we believe in you.

Love,

Alexis

Brandon Somers

Congratulations,
"Branmuffin." You finally made it! We are very proud of you.
Love,
Your family

Chelsea Adams

You light up a room with your wit and your passion and give a voice to your convictions with the power of your pen. I do know how hard you've worked and am so proud. I love you baby girl- always, always, always.
Keep your life as interesting as your socks, and know your mom's here for you;
there's always a way.

David Benvenuto

Teddy Bear, you've always been a screaming joy to us.
This ride on the autobahn in 1986 won't be your last,
and we hope the rest of your trip down the road of life is a success. Congratulations!
Love,
Mom, Dad and Chris

My dear Sara,

How lucky can one mother be? Not only are you beautiful, intelligent, capable, fun, witty, charming and spirited, you are caring, sensitive, thoughtful, kind and generous.

Every single stage of your life has been a learning experience and an absolute ball. We've emerged from even the rocky, emotional moments laughing and loving each other.

I eagerly await the rest of your life even as I want to freeze each moment and truly make time stand still.

I can't wait to witness your many accomplishments and stand happily on the sidelines and applaud your numerous successes. I promise to be right there for you, too, for those unfortunately unavoidable moments.

Please remember that I love you beyond words and will always, always be available, willing, and anxious to help and support you.

Your greatest fan,

Mom

MY DAUGHTER WHOSE HAIR IS A GOLDEN SANDY BEACH
WHOSE LIPS ARE AS PALE PINK AS THE SKIN OF A NEWBORN
BABY
WHOSE NOSE WRINKLES UP IN DISGUST AS HER MOTHER LIGHTS
UP A CIGARETTE.
MY DAUGHTER WHOSE ARMS ARE CATTAILS REACHING OUT INTO THE SKY
WHOSE ARMS ARE CONNECTED TO GIVING HANDS
AND HER CATTAIL ARMS AND GIVING HANDS GIVE HUGS AS WARM
AS A BLANKET WRAPPED AROUND ON A COLD WINTER'S NIGHT.
MY DAUGHTER WHOSE LONG, LANKY LEGS REACH UP TO HER HIGH HIPS
WHOSE LEGS RUN LIKE THE WIND OF THE HURRICANE TO ANSWER
THE PHONE
WHOSE LEGS CAN MOVE AS DELICATELY AS A BALLERINA WITH THE SURE STEPS OF A JAZZ DANCER
WHOSE LEGS ARE CONNECTED TO FEET THAT SEEM TOO BIG FOR HER, AWKWARD AS A FIRST DATE
WHOSE FEET TRIP AND STUMBLE OVER THEMSELVES AS INVISIBLE BLOCKADES OF HANDS REACHED OUT TO GRAB THEM.

MY DAUGHTER WHOSE EYES ARE AS BLUE AS THE SKY ON A HOT SUMMER CLOUDLESS DAY
WHOSE EYES LOOK AT THE WORLD WITH AS MANY QUESTIONS AS THERE ARE STARS IN THE SKY
WHOSE MIND IS CONSTANTLY THINKING ABOUT BOYS, SCHOOL, LIFE, LOVE, THOUGHTS AS DEEP AS THE OCEAN FLOOR.
MY DAUGHTER WHOSE ENTHUSIASM IS AS ENDLESS AS THE GALAXY AND BEYOND
WHOSE LAUGHTER IS A MORNING DOVE COOING IN THE EARLY SUN
WHOSE LAUGHTER IS A SYMPHONY FLOWING THROUGH THE HOUSE WHICH WARMS THE HEART WITH MARSHMALLOWS OVER AN OPEN FIRE.
MY DAUGHTER WHOSE TEMPER IS HOT, HOT AS THE TEAPOT
WHISTLING ON THE STOVE
WHOSE TEMPER BLOWS OFF HOT STEAM THAT EXPLODES WITH SUCH A SUDDEN BURST, AS THE BALLOON WHICH RECEIVES ONE TOO MANY BLOWS OF AIR
WHOSE TEMPER CAN HURT HER MOTHER'S FEELINGS AS THE PRICK OF A SINGLE THORN FROM A ROSE
WITH A HURT THAT CAN SHATTER THE WORLD
WHOSE APOLOGIES MELT HER MOTHER'S ANGER AS SIZZLING
BUTTER IN A FRYING PAN.
WITH THE SOFTNESS OF AN ANGORA RABBIT, SHE REACHES OUT
WHOSE SOFT, GENTLE VOICE SOOTHES THE PAIN OF BEING BURNED BY FIRE.

MY DAUGHTER WHOSE HEART IS FULL OF LOVE, A NEVERENDING
FLOWING WATERFALL OF LOVE
WHOSE LOVE GUSHES OUT IN BURSTS OF INTENSE HOT BOILING
BUBBLES
WHOSE LOVE LEAKS OUT IN A SINGLE TEAR OF AN EYE HAVING SEEN A SAD SAD MOVIE.
MY DAUGHTER WHOSE LIFE HAS FILLED HER MOTHER'S HEART
WITH FEARS AS DEEP AS THE DEPTHS OF HELL ITSELF
WHO'S FILLED HER HEART WITH JOY AS WIDE AS THE GRAND CANYON AND JUST AS DEEP
WHOSE LIFE AND LOVE HAVE FILLED HER MOTHER'S HEART TO THE VERY BRIM AND BURSTING EDGES WITH A LOVE SO FULL
THAT THE MOON, THE STARS, THE GALAXIES AND HEAVEN ITSELF COULD FIT INSIDE IT AND EVEN MORE.

I'M VERY PROUD OF YOU, HEATHER.
CONGRATULATIONS,
LOVE,

"Kate the Great",

We are so proud of you!

We love you,

Dad, Laura, Robert,

Bianca, Chris and

Annie

Kate,

From your first day of school with Bert and Ernie in tow, you have met challenges with intelligence, humor, grace, and courage, always reaching for more and taking risks. I am often overwhelmed with love and pride.

Mama

Katie,

*I love you a bushe
and a peck!*

Grandma

Katie,

On August 9, 1984, you put a magical light into my heart, and it continues to burn brighter every year. Thank you for giving us such joy and laughter. I am so very proud of you.

Love,

High school has a unique meaning to all of us. For some, high school supplies years of memorable experiences.

Others will just remember how much they wanted freedom from it all. We will all have our own unique memories of Dondero, but whether we want to admit it or not, we will all desperately seek the carefree times we shared in our journey here. We are all forever left with an imprint of Dondero, and no matter how hard we try to erase those memories we've made here, Dondero will forever be a part of us. Dondero helped make us who we are.

The 2002 edition of the Dondero High School yearbook, published by Walsworth Publishing Company, came to the students and staff courtesy of the hardworking OAK staff members. Many thanks go out to our sales representatives and friends, Bob and Nora Guiney, who listened to our complaints, helped us in our time of need, and visited us on numerous occasions. Also, we would like to thank Holly Switzer and everyone else at the Walsworth Computer Support center. Without the help of all these people, as well as our wonderful and supportive adviser, Jennifer Kocis, our book would never have been completed. The entire OAK staff would like to thank you for taking the time to look at our publication. Many hours and long nights were spent publishing this, and we hope you enjoy it.
